LOCALS

There was a heavy rain fall Friday night.

Several members of the Tate family, on Nittany Mountain, are seriously ill.

The Y. P. B. will meet at the home of Miss Gladys Jones on Thursday evening.

H. D. Shlegel, of Spring Mills, is lathing the new house being erected by Samuel Shoop. The plastering will be rushed to completion.

Mrs. W. B. Mingle on Wednesday accompanied her daughter, Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, to her home in Philadelphia, where she will remain for several weeks.

Charley Stump writes the Reporter that he reached Fort Mitchell, Virginia, safely, and that while it is not so cold down there they just passed through a rainy season.

Mrs. George Spayd, of Bellevue, Ohio, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Luse, west of Centre Hall, a short time ago. She came east to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Breen, at Sober.

A new Democratic newspaper is to appear in Williamsport on Saturday. The editor will be Hon. Walter E. Ritter, and Charles C. Tate president of the publishing company. The name of the new publication has not yet been given out.

Charles Stover recently went from Berea, Ohio, to Jacksonville, Florida, where he secured a position in the postoffice. The young man is a son of Mrs. Eliza Stover, of Centre Hall. The Reporter is happy to note this recognition of ability in the young man.

Four deaths have occurred within the family circle of Mrs. Samuel W. Moore during the short period of four weeks. Beside Mr. Moore, his son's wife's mother, Mrs. Herch, of Pittsburgh; Wm. Pruden, of Morristown, N. J., brother-in-law of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Martha Teede; and Mrs. M. N. Culbertson, of Basking Ridge, N. J., sister of Mrs. Teede, have died.

John C. Bailey has been given a position by J. H. Weber, proprietor of the Centre Hall Flouring Mills, and is also engaged in the sale of coal, implements, fertilizers, etc. Mr. Bailey just completed a course in the Pennsylvania Business College, Lancaster. His work with Mr. Weber will be of a varied character, including bookkeeping and sales agent, and at this time is out on a trip through Blair and Clearfield counties.

The W. C. T. U. will give a chicken and noodle supper in Grange Arcadia on Saturday evening between the 4:30 and 10. This is the first effort the society will have made to gather funds from the general public, and they very much desire a liberal patronage and are deservyng of it. In another column reference is made to the work of the W. C. T. U., and it is to finance their schemes that the supper has been arranged. Give the ladies your support.

Among the Reporter's callers on Monday was Samuel E. Weber, of Boalsburg. Until recently Mr. Weber was a partner with his brother, John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, but now he is doing business in his own name at Oak Hall. His lines include grain, coal, hay, straw, fertilizers, salt, feeds, flour, implements, etc. The farmers in Mr. Weber's locality will find him the same capable and genial business man when doing business for himself as they did when a member of the firm with which he was connected.

The following is reprinted from the Anville (Lebanon county) Journal:

Mrs. J. E. Campbell, of Linden Hall is visiting the family of Thos. S. Stein. Mrs. Campbell is Mrs. Stein's sister-in-law. She is the mother of Mary L. Campbell, who was a member of the Anville High School class of last year and now taking a course to become a trained nurse in the Hebrew Hospital, Baltimore, Md. Her mother spent Christmas with her and has stopped here a few days on her way home.

Centre County Grange.

The Centre County Pomona Grange will hold its quarterly meeting in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, on Thursday of next week, opening at 10 o'clock, and continuing during the entire day. A general attendance of the members of the Order is expected from every Grange in the county, as this is the time for the annual report of all the business associations of the County Grange. Among the reports will be the Grange Fire Insurance Company; The Patrons Rural Telephone Company; The Grange Encampment and Fair Association. The report of the finance committee, giving a detailed statement of the investments of the County Grange, will be received with the financial standing of all the business enterprises of the County Grange, as well as a general discussion of many important problems that confront the rural communities.

The Fifth Degree, (Pomona) will be conferred in full form at 3 o'clock p. m.

It is customary at these meetings to hold the noonday luncheon at the Grange Hall. The members bring their lunch with them, and in this way have a pleasant social banquet. Progress Grange will set tables, provide coffee, dishes, etc. Ample stabling will also be provided for teams near the hall.

D. M. CAMPBELL,
Secretary.

Homan-Meyers.

Wednesday of last week at the Boalsburg parsonage, Frank Homan and Miss May Meyers, two well known young people of Ferguson township, were united in matrimony by Rev. S. C. Stover. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Grover Code. After the ceremony they were given a wedding dinner at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George Homan. The next day they left for a short honeymoon trip. The bride is the daughter of Fred Meyers, of Pine Grove Mills. Both parties are very popular among their acquaintances. On April 1st they will go to farming on the Homan homestead at White Hall.

Centre County Association of Philad'a

The officers and board of directors of the Centre County Association of Philadelphia, held a meeting at the office of Dr. Roland G. Curtin last Friday night and decided to hold the next annual mid-winter banquet at the Continental Hotel on Saturday evening, Feb. 1st. All Centre Countians residing in and about Philadelphia are cordially invited to attend and earnestly requested to send their names and addresses to the secretary, John C. C. Beale, 41 South 15th Street.

Held Engagement.

Ray C. Gilliland, Prof. Ham and W. L. Foster, of State College, drove over to Shingletown Gap to do some fox hunting and trapping. Foster took the rig and drove to Reitz's Gap, and the other two started on foot across the mountain. They got lost, and came out at Greenwood Furnace, where they hired some one to bring them back again. As had been agreed upon Mr. Foster was there waiting for them, and the party reached their home again in safety.

Herman Holtz Dead.

Herman Holtz a member of the firm of Joseph & Company, Bellefonte, died at the home of his daughter in New York city, where he went about two weeks ago. Mr. Holtz had not been in good health for some time.

He expects to visit at the home of his sister Mrs. Simon Showalter of near Northumberland, from there he will go to Lewistown to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Toner, returning home by way of Altoona, he expects to spend some time with relatives at Unionville.

It has been decided that accounts in postal savings banks are subject to taxation just like any other money bearing interest. Those having money on interest have been dodging taxes where ever possible, and the postal savings bank was supposed to be an ideal place to store small sums of money with tax dodging in view, but the state authorities have decided otherwise, and assessors should take notice.

HOME FINDERS' EXCURSION

To PARADIS, LOUISIANA

Tuesday, January 21, 1913

"There can be nothing so good as this anywhere else in the United States;" "There's no use to look any further;" "This is my home as soon as I can move down;" "are some of the expressions of our then "Home Seekers" on the excursions, Nov. 19th and Dec. 3rd. Five of our party stayed at Paradis (others bought farms and will move down soon as possible) and went to farming at once. Radishes and lettuce are now being shipped and by the middle of February will follow onions, peas, beans, strawberries, cabbage and many other things, at good profits, to the ready buyers of the north.

Ninety-five percent of all the people who go to Paradis buy farms. Sixteen new houses have been started there inside the last thirty days. A new church and store are to be built soon, one general store being there already. To accommodate the increased passenger and freight traffic a new station is soon to be built by the Southern Pacific. And they don't spend money on sentiment or promises of real-estate men but only when increased business demands better facilities.

Mr. Northerner, do you want to exchange your cold winters for a delightful outdoor life both winter and summer; do you want the best living at minimum cost and at the same time sell three big crops yearly at good profits; do you want to raise cattle, hogs, chickens, etc., at least possible cost and market them at once at large profits? Game and fish are plentiful all year round. Lumber being very cheap you can easily afford a home of your own. The soil is the richest in the world needing no fertilizer of any kind, is very loose and loamy, not a stone or obstruction of any kind and level as a floor.

In short, do you want to live where you can have as many of the comforts of life as possible with but few inconveniences. Then get to Paradis at once. You can buy on easy monthly payments yet.

Those who go on Jan. 21st can also see the great Mardi Gras Parade at New Orleans free. Many thousands of people from all parts of the United States will be in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras. You can see it every year, if you live at Paradis only 27 miles away.

GEO. T. DeHASS,
State College, Pa.

DEAR SIR: Seeing the announcement of your "Home Finders' Excursion" to Paradis, Louisiana, for Jan. 21, 1913, I desire to know the cost of the round trip. Also please send me some literature regarding these rich farms.
