LOCALS

Furniture of quality—Goodhart.
Joseph L. Runkle on Tuesday began the plumbing in the Reporter building.

The "auto" fever is breaking out in Centre Hall. There are several business men pretty critically ill just now.

Messrs. W. B. Fiedler and Irvin Showers, of Centre Hall, are doing some repair work on Witmer Grove's barn, east of town.

Smith, the tinner and dealer in stoves, is doing work at Pleasant Gap this week. Last week he was engaged in putting up heating plants at State College.

The Feldings, near Linden Hall, had a goodly supply of hogs to put on the market. John C. Rossmann bought from this farmer $600 worth of hogs, and there is yet a large stock on hand.

Horses, cows, young cattle, and hogs are selling readily at the public sales. The leading agricultural papers state that horses are scarce in the west, and that the prices on top animals are high.

John C. Rossmann shipped a mixed car of hogs and cattle to a Shamokin packing house, on Tuesday. That makes a total of eleven car loads of cattle and hogs shipped by him to that point.

Benjamin Emerick had a misfortune with one of his horses, and the result was one of his team horses died beginning of this week. A nail penetrated the foreleg of the beast, and before the owner knew it blood poisoning set in with the above result.

J. W. Raymond, who is making a productive farm out of one that was not considered so before he became its owner, had business at this office last Friday. He lives south of Earlytown. He and Mrs. Raymond and their only son had been ill during the past few months, but all are well at present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Litzell, of Millmont, are in Chicago, having returned to that point from the more distant west where they visited friends. In Chicago Mr. and Mrs. Litzell are spending the time with their sons—Samuel, Roy and Paul—and brothers—Samuel and George.

A civic improvement club was organized in Millheim with Mrs. G. S. Frank, president; Mrs. S. Ward Gramley, vice president; Mrs. W. S. Musser, secretary, and Mrs. W. F. Smith, treasurer. The chief object of the club will be to raise funds with which to build a town hall in Millheim.

Oliver Strunk will again become a resident of Centre Hall, and about April 1st will move from near Zion, and will occupy the portion of the Benner property Aaron Thomas will vacate. W. D. Strunk, who now lives on the Struble farm, near Zion, will be employed next summer by W. W. Rupert, who lives in the same community.

Messrs. George W. Bradford and William S. Brooks, both of near Centre Hall, were business callers at this office the latter part of last week. Mr. Bradford tells the Reporter that he is making regular shipments of milch cows to the eastern market, and that the cattle throughout the country are in fair condition. Mr. Brooks claimed the good the Pine Stump telephone company was doing, and left with the writer positive evidence of his assertion.

A few weeks ago mention was made in these columns of the fact that George Litzell, son of the late Samuel Litzell, of Spring Mills, was operated on in a Chicago hospital for appendicitis. The Reporter is now pleased to say that he is again at his Chicago home, and in a very short time expects to engage at his usual work, which is painting and decorating radiators and steam pipes after they are installed. He does mostly contract work. It might also be said that he has lived in Chicago for eighteen years, and that he is getting along fine, just like most Pennsylvanians who locate in the west.

U. E. CONFERENCE.

Nineteenth Session Opens at Lewisburg Thursday of Next Week.

The nineteenth annual session of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the United Evangelical church will convene in the United Evangelical church at Lewisburg, Thursday, March 6th, opening 8:30 a. m. Bishop U. F. Swengel, D. D., of Harrisburg, senior bishop of the church, will preside.

The board of examiners will meet at the same place on Tuesday preceding for the examination of applicants for license to preach, and junior preachers.

The nineteenth annual session of the Conference missionary society will also be held at the same place on Wednesday evening. At this session the roll of charges is called and each pastor reports the amount of money raised for missions during the past year.

There are 120 charges served by as many pastors. These charges are divided into five districts, each district being under the supervision of a presiding elder.

Seventeen pastors will have served the four year time limit, and consequently will be necessitated to vacate and move to other charges, which the stationing committee, composed of the five presiding elders with the Bishop as an advising member, may assign them.

Four pastors on Centre District come under the time limit, as follows: W. J. Campbell, Altoona; J. R. Sechrist, Bellewood; L. C. Cooper, Burnham; S. A. Snyder, Centre Hall.

Spring Mills

Mrs. William Myers is visiting in Millheim.

G. C. Walker spent Saturday at Lewisburg.

William Braucher purchased a horse from C. G. Decker.

The Lutheran congregation is repairing the interior of their church.

Mrs. W. O. Gramley gave a dinner party to a number of her lady friends last Wednesday.

Merchant John Rishel was quite ill last week. He has improved at this writing.

Miss Cora Sechrist, of Millheim, spent Sunday at the home of Grover Walker.

Messrs. Daniel Corman and Ralph Shook were to York where they each purchased a team of mules. They also bought a mule for John Hosterman.

All who want an evening's entertainment should attend the minstrel show given by the Millheim company on Thursday evening, February 27, in the Grange Hall.

Shem Hackenberg, farmer on one of the Allison farms, made a trip to Centre Hall and brought a load of alfalfa back with him for W. O. Gramley, the dairyman.

The store of Uriah Auman, at Sober, was robbed last week, and goods to the amount of about sixty dollars were taken. G. C. Walker's barn was also broken into on Saturday night and feed taken from it. There is too much petty thieving going on. Some one will get punished. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. Charles Colyer is confined to the house with an attack of neuralgia.

A. P. Wieland, of Harrisburg, was here the beginning of the week for a short visit with his brother, leaving Tuesday morning for Lock Haven and Berwick.

Mrs. Agnes Meyer who is now with her son at McElhattan will return shortly to make preparation for the sale of her household goods, on Saturday March 15th, at one o'clock.

Orrie Rupp has been housed up at the home of his aunt Mrs. Maggie Swabb, with an attack of tonsillitis.

Miss Anna Ross attended the Colonial party at the home of Mrs. Ferree, on Friday evening.

Edward Weaver, of Lock Haven, was a Sunday visitor at the home of his parents on the Van Tries farm.

The high school will give a play—a comedy in three acts, entitled, "The Fifteenth of January," sometime during the month of March.

Mrs. Mary Page and daughter, Mrs. Annie Noll, will leave here Thursday for a visit of several weeks with relatives at Youngstown, Ohio. On their way home they will also visit for a few days at Greensburg.

Georges Valley.

John Minnieh is spending this week at the home of J. W. Gobbie.

S. E. Gobbie moved last Thursday from his home at Locust Grove to the Erle homestead.

Mrs. F. W. McClellan and daughters Myrtle and Frances, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday at the home of F. M. Ackerman.

Wilmer Confer, who is working for Howard Iesnuth, was home with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Confer over Sunday.

Gladys Heckman, the two year old daughter of A. P. Heckman, got a bottle of iodine on Sunday and drank a portion of it and at this writing is in a serious condition. The bottle was kept in a sideboard, supposed to be well out of the way, but the little one found it there.

Harris township.

Miss Mollie Hoffer, of Centre Hall, is spending this week at Boalsburg.

C. W. Corl made a business trip to Harrisburg the early part of the week. S. E. Weber spent Sunday with his brother at Huntingdon.

George E. Meyer attended the Laymen's Missionary Convention at Altoona.

J. H. Weber, of Centre Hall, spent Wednesday afternoon, of last week at Boalsburg.

George C. Meyer, of State College, is recovering from an illness of three weeks with pneumonia.

The Ladies Civic Club held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Neidigh, of Pine Hall, were guests at the Reformed parsonage Wednesday of last week.

Miss Esther Sparr, of Williamsburg, is enjoying part of the Lenten season with relatives and friends in this place. Mrs. Maggie Radenbush, of Pleasant Gap, is visiting at the Lutheran parsonage for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goben entertained a number of their associates at a card party on Saturday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Stover enjoyed Thursday at a quilting party at the home of Mrs. Fred Myers, at Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. J. Curtis Meyer, with her daughter Evelyn, of the Branch, enjoyed a drive to Boalsburg on Saturday afternoon.

The Civic Club of Boalsburg will hold a festival May 30th, the proceeds to be used for the maintenance of street lights.

About fifty of the young people of Boalsburg and vicinity assembled at the home of Miss Naomi Myers on Friday night and had a jovial time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh will return from their wedding trip to-day (Thursday), and will be given a reception at the Mothersbaugh home this evening.

William Myers, one of the most industrious men in Boalsburg, is off on a vacation visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Myers, at Newark, New Jersey.

Dr. L. E. Kidder and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Goben and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane attended a colonial party at the home of William Ferree, at Oak Hall, on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Weber attended a birthday party last Wednesday evening at the home of Charles Kuhn; the party was given in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Charles Kuhn and Master John Smith.

Frank Krumrine, one of College townships prosperous farmers, attended to business at Boalsburg on Monday. He sold $800 worth of hogs this year, and invested some of the cash in turkeys for which he paid a high price.

The play entitled "The Old Maids' Club", rendered so successfully in Grange Arcadia, will be repeated in Boal Hall, Boalsburg, Saturday evening, March 8th, under the auspices of the Boalsburg Civic Club. The funds will be divided equally between the Civic Club and Progress Grange, and the former will use its money to maintain the street lights and the latter will apply its surplus to liquidate the bonded indebtedness on Grange Arcadia.

Aaronsburg.

Jacob Balm is slowly improving. His friends are looking forward to see him out in a few weeks.

Mrs. Claude Feidler, of Feidler, spent some time with her friend, Mrs. Walter Orwig.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreamer are rejoicing over the arrival of a dear baby girl. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

Russell Sylvis, one of the industrious boys of the town, started to work in the knitting factory in Millheim.

Albert Johnson, of Altoona, spent some time with his family here, and they are always glad to have him come home.

Ray Stover, son of Ernest Stover, and Miss Nellie Burd, took a trip to Akron, Ohio, to visit among their many friends there.

Mrs. Caroline Harter, who was employed by William Krape, returned to her home in Millheim, and is again working in the knitting factory.

Paul Klag, four years old, while out playing in the barn with neighboring children, fell down the hay loft, and broke his arm near the wrist. The fracture was reduced, and the lad is now doing nicely.

Miss Lizzie Yarger, who was visiting for the last few months at West Fair View, returned to Aaronsburg, and is now at the home of her brother-in-law, A. S. Stover. Her many friends were glad to see her come back.

Harry Homan, son of George Homan, who is employed in one of the Youngstown shops, had the misfortune to get the middle finger cut off by getting it into one of the machines. At first he suffered great pain, but he is now getting along nicely.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

The Principal of the Boalsburg High School will open an eight weeks summer term, beginning Monday, April 21, 1913. None under the grammar grades need apply. Preparing teachers for the provisional certificate a specialty. Terms moderate. Further information cheerfully furnished by addressing

WE'VE LOST HER HAIR.
But she found it again. That is the good part of the story. It cost her a lot of pride to lose it, and just a dollar to find it. You see, the dollar is the price of a bottle of Hall's Hair Renewer. No coloring of the hair. First of all, she talked it over with her doctor. This gave her confidence to go ahead.
