CONSTIPATION MANY DAYS OF

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods, they do not scour; they do not gripe; they do not weaken; but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverishing it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it. Price 25 cents. All Druggists.

2,000 Dead, 8,000 Wounded.

How many have been killed or wounded is a question which none can answer with any exactitude. It is rect number.

From a source usually considered careful and conservative it has been stated that the number of dead is not less than 2,000, while the total of wounded amounts to from 8,000 to 10,-000. The great majority of these are not soldiers, but men, women and children unable to escape the lines of fire. the reports of scores of officers of the White and Red Cross Societies and of Shamokin.-Baby Geraldine Snyder was burned to death while two other children and her mother were taken from their burning home by brave Jefferson Renn, his son Kiefer, and Mrs. John Shuster. Mrs. Snyder and her three children were in two bedpected have been added the effects of rooms upstairs, and she was seized vicious machine gun and rifle fire in with illness and lay on the bed while the children played in the adjoining room. They accidentally set fire to the mattress, and in a short time all the rooms were full of smoke. Jefferson Renn, a neighbor, discovered the fire, found all the doors and windows locked, and climbing a telephone pole to the reach porch roof, broke out a window and dashed into the smokefilled apartments. At the landing at the head of the stairway he stumbled over the unconscious form of Mrs. Snyder, and carried her down-stairs. Rushing back into the house, Renn again groped his way to the second floor and heard children screaming in the front room. He had difficulty in forcing an entrance into the room, as doubtful whether even the govern a burning bed had been pushed ment records will ever reveal the cor against the door. By the time he had entered the children had succeeded in opening a window and were about to leap out. He grabbed them-Walter, aged five, and May, three-and carried them out. Mrs. John Shuster, joining Renn in the scue work, found a burning cradle in the bedroom and discovered little Geraldine asleep therein. Mrs. Shuster picked up the This estimate was made after hearing cradle and was about to carry it out of the house, when it fell apart, and the burning bedclothing and the child rolled to floor.
