Begin it now! Swat the fly.

This is a Democratic government we are living under, and there is no one who has the audacity to say that we are going to the dogs on account of it.

March 4th having been such an auspicious inauguration day, the movement to postpone future similar events until spring opens will be set back to some extent.

Speaking of Wilson's cabinet, there were a lot of people who knew just who would secure the portfolios but they kept it all to themselves, and merely made their guesses public to throw the common herd off their guard.

LOCALS

If you are in need of fertilizers, ask Weber, Centre Hall.

Miss Cora Brungart is back from a visit to Youngwood, the home of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Getchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harshberger, of Altoona, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzler, in Centre Hall. Mr. Harshberger is a railroad man.

A Milroy correspondent to a Lewis-town paper says: Several men and teams from Centre county moved Ira Barger's engine and saw mill over the mountains on Tuesday.

Aaron Thomas is getting out timber with which to build improvements on the Thomas farm, near Pine Grove Mills. Postmaster Boal is also preparing to erect a large hog pen and corn cribs on his Manor farm.

Prof. P. H. Meyers is now operating his Ford runabout, and turns the steering wheel with considerable confidence. The car was purchased through the H. C. Breon & Company agency, at Millheim.

B. F. Reish, who during the past ten days had moved his goods from Centre Hall to Milroy, is now in charge of the Milroy hotel, having purchased the same from S. S. Brown, who for many years was proprietor there.

February finished out with snow and rain. It rained all day on next to the last day of the month, and on the last day, Friday, it also rained and rained, indicating according to the old weather prophets that March is to be a wet month.

On the eighth page of this issue is printed the death of a son of Mrs. Leah Herman, at Rosecrans, and since the item was put into type a third child, a daughter, Miss Lizzie, aged sixteen years, has died. This leaves but one member of the little family of four children, and this one—a son—is also ill with scarlet fever.

Forester Harry J. Mueller, who has headquarters on the state reservation on Nittany Mountain, and who was quite ill for some time, is again able to attend to duties. He and William F. McKinney, the ranger at Pottery Mills, were called to Harrisburg a short time ago to receive instructions from the heads of the Forestry Department of the state.

Paul Muser, the crack pitcher of Millheim, who last year was on the payroll of Griffith's Washington club, left for Georgia Monday where he will be in training until the opening of the American League next month. Muser has all the qualities required of a first class pitcher, and with a little more experience in the fast set will develop into a star.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Homan moved from the Henry Homan farm, east of Centre Hall, last Thursday, and are now occupying a portion of the Saunders house. Mr. Homan will be employed by S. W. Smith as farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homan and son Warren have taken possession of the Homan farm, and will resume farming after an intermission of two years, during which time they lived at State College. Misses Vera and Lula Homan, their two younger daughters, will remain at State College until the close of March, at which time the Homan property there will be occupied by a lessee.

DEATHS

While working on a saw mill about ten days ago, Israel Runkle, of Woodward, was stricken with apoplexy, and Thursday of last week he became unconscious, and remained in that condition until death came on Sunday morning. His age was sixty-one years.

Interment was made this (Thursday) forenoon at Woodward, the pastor of the Evangelical church officiating.

The deceased is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Miss Vesta N. Vonada, and two sons—Harry and Ard, both of Pittsburg; and three daughters—Mrs. Ella Snyder, Yeager-town; Mrs. Bertha Smith, Woodward; Mrs. Dorothy Glessner, at home.

These brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Sarah Beay, Spring Mills; James W., Centre Hall; John W., Middleburg; Lot Calvin, Shamokin; Daniel S., Spring Mills; Robert Duncan, Shamokin. Two sisters are deceased.

Charles D. Miller died at Rock Springs early Tuesday morning, after a short illness of pneumonia. Prior to Wednesday of last week, Mr. Miller was in his usual good health, but on that day took sick and rapidly grew worse until the time of his death. Funeral services will be held at his home to-day (Thursday) and interment made at Gatesburg.

At the time of his death Mr. Miller was aged seventy-eight years. He was a farmer and in that vocation achieved success, owning a large farm and other property. As a citizen he was highly respected, being honest in all his dealings with his fellowmen.

Mr. Miller was a widower, his wife having died a number of years ago. No children were born to this union, but they shared the comforts of their home with two children whom they adopted in early life. One of these, Mrs. Emma Carson, lived with Mr. Miller up to the time of his death.

After a residence in Oklahoma for but a few weeks, Mrs. Mary Mowery, formerly of Aronsburg, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Rupp, aged sixty-six years. Death was due to a complication of diseases, and it was on February 24th that her death occurred.

Mrs. Mowery, who was the widow of Henry Mowery (her maiden name was Shunk), was taken to her western home early in February by her daughter, upon the request of the mother. The surviving children are these: Mrs. Annie Stricker and Harvey Mowery, Aronsburg; Mrs. Nora Raymond, Lemont; Mrs. Della Kraden, Madisonburg; Mrs. Eva Borden, Pittsburg; Mrs. James Rupp and Mrs. Lizzie Haugh, Oklahoma; Misses Jennie and Ruth, State College; Charles, South Dakota.

The remains of Miss Clara A. Holahan, who died in a Philadelphia hospital Friday, aged thirty-nine years, arrived in Lock Haven Monday morning and were taken to the mortuary building of Undertaker C. R. Lauer, and on that afternoon funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lewis Nichols, of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a former member, and interment was made in Highland cemetery.

Miss Holahan is well known in Centre county, having been prominently connected with the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church, and as an officer in this body frequently appeared in various churches in this valley.

Corl Buys New Threshing Outfit.

Everything must be modern these days. Machinery must not only do good work, but it must have the latest improvements attached, so that there is economy in operation. With this in view C. W. Corl, of Boalsburg, went to Harrisburg a few days ago and purchased a new Huber threshing machine, with a self feeder attached.

To show that Mr. Corl's machine was not worn out it needs only to be cited that last season, from July 15 to December 23, it threshed 49,631 bushels of grain. Up to March 1st Mr. Corl also did some hay baling, packing a total of 478 tons. Twenty-five days were given to crushing stones, the power for which was furnished by the Corl traction engine. The work was all done in Harris and College townships.

Councilman Becomes 44.

From the Johnstown Daily Democrat the following is clipped regarding a former Centre Hall boy:

Warren S. Krise, the recently-elected member of council for the Eighth ward, was forty-four years of age yesterday and in his honor a particularly fine dinner was served at his home. He was the recipient of many congratulations during the day. Mr. Krise was born in the Cooper store and residence building in Coopersdale. When about six years of age his parents took him to Centre county, where he remained until he was about twenty-two years of age. Locating then in this city, he was school teacher, real estate and insurance man. As a real estate operator he has been particularly successful. Mr. Krise is a well-read man on the questions of the day and his mind is a veritable storehouse of information. On economic questions he is particularly well informed.

A coincidence in connection with Mr. Krise's natal day is that today is the birthday anniversary of his wife, who is forty-three years of age.

Mr. Krise, although a Democrat, was nominated by the Republicans to fill a vacancy in the select body of the city council, and defeated the regular Democratic candidate. The ward he represents is nominally Republican.

Linden Hall.

Wallace White, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his family here. Miss Mary Potter and sister Mrs. Kent spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Miss Mary Homan went to Selin-grove Saturday returning on Monday.

Tuesday evening Irene Reifsnnyder gave a party to a number of her friends. Mrs. William Ferree spent Sunday with her daughter at the Lock Haven Normal.

Last Sunday Rev. S. A. Snyder preached his farewell sermon at Rock Hill.

Mrs. Nester Heckman and children were guests at the home of J. L. Treaser in the beginning of the week. On Saturday evening Charles Johnsonbaugh and daughters gave a party for Mrs. Johnsonbaugh in honor of her birthday. A large number of friends and neighbors were present. The evening was spent playing games, after which choice refreshments were served.

One of the most delightful social gatherings of the season was the party on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane. The guests included a number of young people from State College, Lemont and the surrounding community. Mr. and Mrs. David Bradford, and Dr. and Mrs. Foster, of Centre Hall, were present.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. C. J. Finkle is ill. The local Grand Inland twelve new members on Saturday afternoon.

Merchant J. H. Rishel, who has been quite ill, is not improving at this writing.

Miss Mabel Long spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister Miriam at Susquehanna University, at Selin-grove.

Dr. Braucht took Mrs. Edward Jamison to the Bellefonte hospital, where she had an operation performed last Saturday.

R. G. Kennedy is on the sick list. He had been employed at Snow Shoe as a car-carter for a year, but came home some time ago and has been sick ever since.

Last Friday being "Corn Day" at State College quite a number of people took advantage of the special train and went to that place. Among those who attended the show were these: C. A. Krape and wife, T. M. Gramley, C. E. Zigler, Wm. Myers, John Myers, C. P. Long, J. W. Got-ble, James Reeder, J. W. Evans, James Evans, John Roosterman, Gross Shook, E. P. Shook and Samuel Ulrich.

Potters Mills

Alexander McCoy shipped a car load of cows on Monday morning.

Lot Condo moved from Bellefonte, Milfin county, to this place, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Reese, of Johnstown, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meeker.

Miss Bertha Armstrong spent several days at the home of Marcellus Sankey, at Millheim.

Mrs. William Martz and Mrs. Foster Frasier, of Tusseyville, spent Saturday with friends at this place.

Mrs. Anna McClenathan has gone to Milroy to be with her sister-in-law who is seriously ill.

Clayton McKinney shipped his household goods to Altoona on Tuesday. The family expect to leave in a week or ten days. Every one here is sorry to see them leave.

You can say goodbye to constipation with a clear conscience if you use Chamberlain's Tablets. Many have been permanently cured by their use. For sale by all dealers. adv.
