The Third Degree.

The United Play company will present Charles Klein's play, "The Third Degree" at Garman's opera house on Monday evening, April 14th. Mr. Klein is the author of the well known play, "The Lion and the Mouse," which was also produced here by the United Play company. While "The Lion and the Mouse" dealt with characters high in politics and speculative commerce, in "The Third Degree" the story is laid in New York and deals with men and women in the smart set and the methods of the police in wringing confessions of guilt through the sweating process.

DEATHS.

Henry W. McCracken, one of Ferguson township's most prominent citizens, died at his home at Rock Springs, on Sunday morning at two o'clock. Mr. McCracken had been in his usual health up to Saturday night, at which time he became ill, and continued to grow worse until death came.

Interment was made at Graysville on Wednesday morning, Rev. R. M. Campbell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, being the officiating minister. Mr. McCracken was born in Ireland, but for many years lived at the place where he died. He owned several fine farms, and was himself a practical farmer. His wife, who survives him, was Miss Eliza Campbell, and these children also survive: Mrs. Anna Campbell, Ohio; Rev. John O. Johnston; Clara, Mary, Lizzie, and Henry, at home.

The age of the deceased was eighty-four years.

David B. Meyer, one of the oldest residents of Miles township, died on the Meyer homestead on Thursday evening of last week. Interment was made at Rebersburg on Monday, the services being conducted by Rev. Bin-gaman, pastor of the United Evangelical church.

The deceased belonged to one of the oldest families in Brush Valley, the elder Meyer having settled there early in the history of Pennsylvania. He was a farmer by occupation and was born September 15, 1827, making his age over eighty five years. His wife, who survives him, before marriage, was Miss Fietta Bierly. There also survive one son, Henry, who lives on the old homestead. Two brothers—Hon. Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, and Daniel Meyer, of Dakota, Illinois; and a sister, Mrs. Judith Bierly, widow of Joseph Bierly, of Rebersburg, survive.

After a prolonged illness Daniel Stover died at his home at Woodward, of paralysis, on Tuesday evening. Funeral will take place on Saturday morning; interment at Woodward. His age was about sixty-seven years. He is survived by his second wife and three sons and two daughters.
