

Death of Mrs. B. D. Brisbin.

Although Mrs. B. D. Brisbin had been in delicate health for several months and had been afflicted with heart trouble for a number of years, the announcement of her death on Sunday evening was a shock to the community.

Mrs. Brisbin was a daughter of Joseph and Eliza (Benner) Shirk, and was born at Old Fort, sixty-six years ago.

Interment was made at Centre Hall on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. Max Lantz, pastor of the Methodist church, being the officiating minister and pastor of the deceased.

The children of the deceased and their husbands, also the granddaughter, and brothers and sisters, were present at the burial.

Mrs. Henry E. Duck died at her home in Millheim on Saturday afternoon from cancer of the stomach and intestines.

The maiden name of the deceased was Miss Anna M. Frank, and two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Smith, of Millheim, and Mrs. Susanna Swartz, of Penn township, survive.

Mrs. James Horner died at her home at Colyer on Sunday morning, after an illness of but a few days.

The maiden name of the deceased was Miss Mary Noll, and she was aged some fifty years.

Adam Mayer, aged seventy-eight years and six months, died in Phillipsburg on Friday morning.

Letters from Subscribers.

From the label on my paper I discover that another year has passed by and a year's subscription is now due you if I want to keep my label in advance.

We had a bad flood here, the worst I ever saw. Hundreds of people were driven out of their homes, but very few lives were lost.

Yours respectfully, JARED MOWERY, Youngstown, Ohio, April 21st, 1913

Enclosed find one dollar for Reporter during 1913. We enjoy reading your paper, as we always see something in it about our old friends and neighbors.
