formed congregation.

After withdrawal of the Reformed congregation and the building of their church, the Lutheran congregation continued their worship for some years in the "old stone church."

In 1868 the present structure was built during the pastorate of Rev. J. T. Williams.

The congregation came into possession of their parsonage in 1894 by the will of Mrs. Maria Swinehart.

The parsonage underwent extensive repairs. At the same time the Sunday-school rooms were renovated.

The present pastor has been in charge since October 5, 1902.

DEATHS.

From the Altoona Tribune.

"Mrs. Gertrude Weber, widow of Samuel Weber, a former resident of Altoona, died at the home of her father, J. E. Davis, 110 West Eighty-ninth street, New York city, on Friday morning of a complication of diseases. Deceased was aged thirty five years, during her residence here resided in the Fifth ward and left the city some five years ago to reside in New York. For the past several summers she returned to the city to visit relatives, and was esteemed and respected by a large circle of friends who will learn of her death with sincere regret. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and besides her father is survived by one daughter, Mary Jane, of New York city. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. G. H. Miller, of this city and Mrs. Warren Miller, of Pitsboro. The remains were brought to this city Saturday and taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. Miller, 182 E.venth avenue. This morning the remains will be taken to Alum Bank, Bedford county, where short services will be conducted in the Methodist Episcopal church and followed by interment in the church cemetery."

Mrs. Weber is kindly remembered by many in Centre Hall, where she and her little daughter Mary spent much time at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber.

Joseph Gilliland died at Karthaus, aged seventy-two years. He was a son of John Gilliland and was born at Potters Mills. When but a few years old Mr. Gilliland accompanied his parents to Clearfield county. He began business at Pottersdale, where he engaged in the mercantile business and lumbering, and later purchased a store in Slatons. From Slatons he went to Lock Haven to engage in the laundry business, and four years ago returned to Clearfield county, locating in Karthaus where he again became a merchant, until selling his store to his nephew, Harry T. Gilliland.

Mr. Gilliland was twice married, his first wife being Adaline Yothers, who died about thirty-five years ago, and his second wife, Lucetta Lucas, who died twelve years ago. Surviving him, however, are two daughters by his first wife, Lydia, at home, and Mrs. James Haney, of Vinsondale, also two brothers and two sisters, namely: Dr. William S. Gilliland, of Karthaus; Robert C., of Snow Shoe; Misses Mary and Hannah, who resided with the deceased. Mr. Gilliland was a member of the Methodist church for many years.

Mrs. Margaret Spidel, wife of Christian Spidel, died at her home at East Germantown, Ohio, aged seventy-two years. Her maiden name was Margaret Ruhl, and she was born at Rebersburg. She leaves to survive her husband and four brothers and two sisters. One sister, Mrs. William Kreamer, lives in Millheim.

George A. Shine died at Scotia, aged fifty-six years, ten months. Surviving him are his wife and the following children: Mrs. A. Z. Mattern, of Patton township; Thomas, John and Isaac, all of Scotia. He also leaves four brothers, Irvin, John, Thomas and Lincoln, all of Altoona.

Centre Mills.

David Weaver visited friends at Millheim Sunday.

Mr. Cummings and family visited at Madisonburg on Sunday.

Rev. J. Max Lantz took dinner at the home of John A. Kline, Sunday. Chas. Coble and Nevin Shaffer visited at Mr. Coble's home at Linden Hall over Sunday.

Miss Ketchline, of Pine Grove Mills, and Mr. Kline and family, of State College, were also visitors at the same place.

Mrs. Long, of Millheim, who has lived with the family of Harvey Lambert for some time returned to her home Saturday.

Mrs. Small, who had been cared for during the past months by her daughter, Mrs. Edward Miller, has recovered sufficiently to be moved to the home of another daughter in Rebersburg.

The lawns are looking beautiful.

Hosterman-Phillippi.

Dr. James K. Hosterman and Miss Albertine Phillippi, both of Crystal City, Missouri, were united in marriage Tuesday of last week, and immediately started east on their honeymoon trip, and are now at the Hosterman homestead, at Cent e Hill, guests of the groom's brother, Thomas A. Hosterman, having first stopped with Register J. Frank Smith, a brother-in-law. They will return to Missouri on Saturday.

The groom is well known on the south side of Centre county, the home of his youth. For a number of years he practiced his profession at Ford City, but later became connected with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, and now is a general manager for that corporation at Crystal City. Although during late years he has not been in Centre county to any large extent, he continues to retain an interest here. The Hosterman homestead, which he owns, is one of the most delightful places in Potter township, and was made so by him.

The Reporter extends its best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Hosterman.

Aaronsburg.

Henry Franz, of Sunbury, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Mary George.

Mrs. Eben Bower was seen in town with her father-in-law, E. A. Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hubler, of Centre Hall, spent a day with Edith Weaver.

Mrs. Jacob Sharer and daughter, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of Charles Wolfe.

Jennie Sylvia and niece, Catherine Haffley, were Bellefonte and Coburn callers one day last week.

One of the bright little boys of the town, William Adams, was quite sick on Sunday. We hope he will soon recover.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lambert has been confined to the house during the last week, but is now in a fair way to recovery.

Henry Mingle, a boy highly regarded here and deserving of success, will go to Akron, Ohio, to visit his brother William, and if he likes the place will remain there for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stover went to Ohio where they will visit their three children living in Youngstown and Burbank. They will also stop at Seal Level, in this state, to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corman.

An effort is being made to secure funds with which to purchase a piano for the church, and to help along candles and ice cream are being sold by a number of the younger workers in the church, and among these are: May Stover, Florence Orwig, Marion Haines, Martha Haines, and Edgar Stover.

Obedied the Dream.

Life is sometimes saved by dream warnings. Take the case of Dr. Harvey, the celebrated discoverer of the circulation of the blood. When he was a young man he set out from London to go to Padua, in Italy, the seat of the famous university where he wished to study. When he got to Dover the governor refused to let him enter his packet to cross the channel, but declined to give any reason. The next day news arrived at Dover that the packet had been lost with every soul on board. Then the governor explained his strange conduct. He said that he had had a dream of overwhelming force, in which he was forbidden to allow a young man, whose face appeared to him, to enter the boat. When Harvey presented himself the governor recognized the face seen in his dream.

Daniel O'Connell.

After a dinner at Lord Dunganvan's, Lady Morgan writes in her diary: I met the redoubtable Dan O'Connell. Dan is not brilliant in private life, not even agreeable. He is mild, silent, unassuming, apparently absorbed and an utter stranger to the give and take charm of good society. I said so to Lord Clanciarde, who replied: "If you knew how I found him this morning! His hall, the very steps of his door, crowded with his clientele. He had a word or a written order for each, then hurried off to the law courts, thence to the Improvement society and was the guest here today. Two hours before he was making that clever but violent speech to Mr. la Touch, and now no wonder that he looks like an extinct volcano."

A Literary Cynic.

"Some day," said the novelist, "I'm going to write something big—something that will make the world remember me."

"Ah, yes," his friend replied, "but when are you going to do it?"

"Just as soon as I have turned out enough trash to make me independent."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Primeval Reproaches.

Adam and Eve were leaving the garden of Eden.

"It's all your fault," said Adam.

"It isn't, either," replied Eve. "It's your fault. You ought to have had us put under civil service so we couldn't be turned out."—Washington Star.

Not Exactly Playing.

Bellows—Does your daughter play on the piano?

Fellows (in tones of deep disgust)—No, sir. She works on it, pounds on it rakes it, scrapes it, jumps on it, rolls over on it, but there's no play about it, sir.—London Telegraph.

Ludwig Johnson.

The marriage of Walter D. Ludwig and Miss Harriet P. Johnson took place at the Episcopal rectory, State College, Saturday, 3rd inst. Both parties are from Boalsburg, the groom being a state forester and had charge of the Bear Meadows district for a number of years. The bride is a trained nurse, and has been in the Theodore Davis Boal home for some time. They will live in Boalsburg.

This is May 15th, and there has been much below t e average of rain fall for the first half of the month.

Soth Waiting.

State College Times. State College is still waiting for the official announcement of the spur from Fairbrook by the Pennsylvania railroad and the short line from Zion, via Pleasant Gap, by the New York Central. Just why these operations are being held up may be conjectured, but it is to be hoped that the petty opposition which is now manifest will soon be swept aside and the work of progression begun.

Fruit Growers, Insure Your Crop

The one thing that you want from your orchard is fine, sound, unspotted fruit of good color and free from worms.

BOWKER'S PYROX
IS THE ONE SPRAY THAT INSURES YOUR FRUIT CROP

It is a smooth creamy paste, mixes easily in cold water, and sticks like paint to the foliage and "won't wash off." It kills all leaf-eating insects, destroys fungous growths, scab, blight, rot etc. It is also the best spray for potatoes—kills bugs and prevents blight. By warding off the blight it gives the crop two or three weeks longer to grow at a time when every day's growth means a larger potato.

If you are going to do any Concreting don't forget the fact that I have in stock Alpha Portland Cement, the recognized Standard American Brand. If you are interested in the use of Portland Cement, and if you wish to make the strongest and best concrete work, use Alpha Portland Cement.
