LOCALS.

Progress Grange will hold a festival on the evening of Memorial Day.

W. E. Tate is said to have had a rather attractive offer for his farm from a Mr. Houser, at State College.

John Geary, the sexton of the Centre Hall cemetery, is getting the burying ground in condition for Memorial day.

D. F. Luse is building a bay window on the south side of his residence. The work is being done by Messrs. William B. Fiedler, Irvin Showers, and Frederick Carter.

Read J. H. Weber's advertisement this week. It is seasonable, and should claim the careful attention of every farmer who at this time is contemplating the purchase of some new farm implement.

George W. Bradford returned from the east to which section he had gone to sell a car load of milk cows. While in Chester county he visited his daughter, Mrs. Jerome Auman, at Phoenixville, and brought home with him his little granddaughter, Jennie Auman.

A bill signed by the governor provides that not less than ten verses of the Bible must be read each day, without comment, in every public school. Another bill signed puts a heavy penalty on miners who misrepresent their age in order to secure liquors from a licensed house.

Guy S. Boone, a merchant, and Earl E. Meyer, a miller, both of Loganton, have formed a partnership and will engage in the manufacture of lumber, having purchased a saw mill from W. E. Shreckengast. The firm recently bought two valuable tracts of timber land, one from Mrs. Leah Herman, on the Summit, and the other from Nathan Haugh, in Brush Valley.

Within the past few months mention was made of a contemplated factory building by the Wheel, Top and Hardware Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio. W. W. Boob now writes the Reporter that his company changed their plans, and are now moving into an eight story building 60x163 feet, which will accommodate the plant in fine shape. It will require several months to get the machinery and fixtures into position but in the mean time the house is filling orders.

This personal is reprinted from the Watchman: Katherine H. Allison the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Allison will leave Washington about the seventh of June for Montana, to be for the journey and during her visit in the west, the guest of James H. Ryman, of Missoula, a close friend of her parents. Katherine with her mother, will go to Washington early in June where she will join Mrs. Oliver Dixon, wife of Senator Dixon, who with her two daughters Virginia and Florence will leave for their home in Montana, where they spend their summers.

Improved Poultry Place.

Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm, at Centre Hall, on last Saturday, was inspected by two professors and twenty students in the poultry division of the Agricultural Department at Pennsylvania State College. This is the largest and most complete poultry plant in Central Pennsylvania. The plant grew from its modest beginning to its present large proportions during a long period of years, indicating its experimental stage having long been passed. The visitors made a close inspection of every department of the plant, and were greatly pleased with the methods employed in conducting the various departments of the business, and paid a high compliment to the class of stock found there.

The visitors are named below, the first being the head of the poultry department at State and the second his assistant: Milligan C. Kilpatrick, David E. Warner, Carl F. Wellman, Lloyd L. Cassile, Samuel N. McCalmont, Lester S. Meek, J. T. Havrilla, C. Roger Smith, N. S. Gottshall, J. B. Scherrer, D. O. Dague, Chas. N. Long, E. J. Thomas, Hugh Fergus, R. G. Edgar, J. C. Hoffman, C. W. Clemmer, George Harold Bedell, W. P. Essey, H. H. Schwartz, W. E. Ives, and W. R. McKnight.

The ladies of the Civic Club will hold a festival in the Boal hall on the evening of Memorial Day. Proceeds will be added to the street light fund. Further announcement of the festival will be found in another column.

"Jimmie" Boal (as he is familiarly called) one of our oldest residents, a deaf mute, is ill with dropsy of the heart. He is being cared for at the home of Mrs. George Boal by trained nurse employed by his nephew, T. D. Boal.

Miss Hazel Lucas returned to her home at Boalsburg after a visit of four weeks, with Mrs. George Boal, at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Boal took pleasure in showing the young lady many of the beautiful sights and interesting places of the city.

Cyrus Durst with his grandson, Cyrus Wagner, visited on Saturday at the Phillip Durst home, east of Centre Hall. In the afternoon Miss Mary Durst and Master Cyrus took a drive to Penna. Cave, while the two aged brothers enjoyed the time together.

At the entertainment in the Boal hall on Friday evening given by the citizens of Boalsburg and vicinity for the benefit of the fire company about two hundred were present. The music was furnished by the band and the orchestra, and those who desired to do so amused themselves in dancing. Refreshments amply were supplied. Forty-seven dollars were realized.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Anna Kuriz, of Bellefonte, spent a week very pleasantly with her brother-in-law, Lewis Mensch.

Misses Florence Mensch and Martha Haines spent Saturday in Millheim with their friend, Miss Rishel.

Rev. Barry and lady friend, of Centre Hall, were entertained in a pleasing manner at the home of Rev. Geesey, on Tuesday.

Editor Charles Mensch and family, together with Attorney and Mrs. Walker, spent the Sabbath with the former gentleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mensch, where they were royally received.

Saturday morning Miss Mary Stover, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Stover, left her parental home for Pittsburg, where according to prearrangement, she met her fiancé, Fred Guisewite, formerly of Fiedler, but who for the past year has been employed at Akron, Ohio.

Rev. B. R. M. Shender, formerly of this place, united the pair in bonds of matrimony. The best wishes of the writer go with them.

Back to the Blue

Are you partial to blue? A good many men are. Almost every man chooses for himself once in so often a suit of good dependable blue serge.

This season there is an added pleasure in coming back to good old blue. Fashion, fickle dame, declares that dark blue with a fine pin stripe is just about the thing for Spring and Summer, 1913.

So here they are, ready for you in genuine Montgomery Quality.

You will see them on the street a little later, but just now you have a chance to be first with the new.

Drop in today.
