The weather during the past week has been fine, but a bit cool.

Among the many other things that will be sold on Saturday at public sale by B. H. Arney are three cows that are much above the average in quality.

Mifflin county's tallest man died when James F. Cupples, of Reedsville, passed away. He was six feet four inches tall, a veteran of the civil war and a mason by occupation. His age was seventy-six years.

During a recent windstorm a large tree was blown across the stone wall surrounding the Centre Hill cemetery and tore a large gap in the structure. The repair work was done by John Horner, of near Tusseyville.

David Shull and Orvis M. Shull planted 425 choice peach trees on their tract of cleared land on the mountain northwest of Millheim. A strawberry patch on the same tract promises to yield a fine crop this year.

This item is reprinted from the Mifflinburg Telegraph: Mr. S. Wm. Diehl was up to Centre Hall latter part of last week, on business pertaining to his line, horse dealing. We are informed that on this trip many horses were bought and sold. No use in talking, "Billy" is a hustler in this line.

Mrs. Emetzer gave a party for her husband, James H. Emetzer, on his sixty-fifth birthday. Those who participated in the event were: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shirk, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Puff, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. John Martz, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whiteman.

Miss Mattie McCool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCool, of near Tusseyville, is on an enforced vacation from the Freeburg music school. About ten days ago she and a number of classmates were preparing a spread for company guests, when in some manner she got one of her fingers into a power bread cutter, and snipped off the point.

Mention was made in these columns of the shipment by express of day-old chicks to Oklahoma by C. D. Bartholomew. The chicks, although they laid over in Bellefonte from four o'clock until the next morning, arrived at their destination on the eighth day in fine condition. Of the 510 chicks, but fifty-eight were dead, and seven died before the purchaser made his report.

Samuel Durst accompanied his daughter, Miss Anna and son Ray, to White Haven where they entered the sanitarium. The many friends of the young people are confident that their stay there will not need to be long, and that they will soon return to their home completely cured. The one thing needed is courage and a hopeful spirit on the part of these young people.

The local lodge of Knights of the Golden Eagle had a particularly interesting session on Friday night, and a part of the program was to confer a degree on a class of several members. The Millheim lodge was represented by these members: Jos. W. Reifnyder, J. H. B. Hartman, C. G. Haessinger, H. C. Haessinger, E. E. Knarr, F. E. Gutelius, J. F. Wilcox, T. K. Frank, H. H. Leitzel, C. H. Breon, William Breon, Ira Gramley, Orvis Gramley, M. L. Breon, B. O. Musser, R. I. Musser, and R. M. Foote.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Claude Feidler, of Feidler, spent a few hours with Walter Orwig. There are now thirteen automobiles in Aaronsburg. Pretty good for a town of this size.

Your correspondent is pleased to mention that William Adams is up and around again.

Harry Homan, of Lewistown, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Homan.

Mrs. Mable Crouse Hain, of Sunbury, was an over night guest, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse.

Mrs. R. Emma Hess is improving the looks of her home very much by having a fine porch built on the south side front.

Mrs. A. S. Stover and son spent Friday afternoon in Millheim with her sister, Mrs. Caroline Harter and other friends.

William Foster and Mr. Sington, from Millburg, were canvassing the town for lady's clothing and the vacuum cleaner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver spent a day at Feidler, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gieseler, the former a sister of Mrs. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, of Rebersburg, spent a day last week very pleasantly with Mrs. Miller's brother, Charles Wolf.

Henry Walter, of Swengle, an up to date carpenter, is here helping his nephew, Gildard Eisenhauer to put up a new house on Main Street.

Harvey Crouse made his monthly business trip to Renovo and Lock Haven in his auto, Albert Mingle accompanied him and visited his uncle, Albert Stambach.

Mrs. David Wance, who was paralyzed more than a year ago, is still confined to her bed and is helpless. She can talk and is very glad to have her friends come to see her.

John Houz, one of the industrious young men of this place, had the misfortune to fall upon a sharp stone, and received injuries that for a week caused him much pain, but at present he is again able to locomote without the use of a cane.

LOCALS

The Reporter regrets very much to say that Mrs. James P. L. Gregg, of Tyrone, is in very delicate health.

A party of sightseers from Lewistown under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Grove visited Penns Cave on Sunday. The trip was made in a six-seated power wagon.

Meers, Charles S. Kresner and A. C. Folmer, of Lewisburg, are Republican candidates for sheriff, and Ned C. Church, of Millburg, is a candidate for prothonotary of Union county.

John Treaster, the lumberman, was in Lock Haven for a day or two last week. He is mixing farming and lumbering this spring, but he declares he would rather yank logs around than guide the plow.

A large stone crusher, one of the most modern make; concrete mixers, traction engines and steam rollers are some of the shipments to Rockview to aid in the construction of roads and buildings on the penitentiary site.

Newton Yarnell and son Edward, of Linden Hall, were callers at this office on Friday. Mr. Yarnell reports that he is giving milk cows more attention than heretofore and is milking seven teen at the present time. He is tenant on the D. J. Meyer farm.

The law of the road is to turn to the right when meeting a vehicle of any kind. When approached from the rear by a conveyance more speedy than your own, turn to the right and leave it pass you on the left side. Automobiles are also obliged to pass you on the left side, provided they are traveling in the same direction.

The callithumpians had a delightful time serenading Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradford. The groom kept them guessing for some time, but they finally scented him up a tree in an orchard to the rear of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bradford. When discovered he came down and did the elegant, rewarding his companions and the younger roosters in town for their faithful three hours' search.

The Clinton county commissioners found considerable opposition to the ruling in this state that all church property not used exclusively for religious purposes must be taxed. This means that all parsonages, no matter how they are located, are assessable. The law has been sustained by the courts.

Many purchasers of real estate incorporate in the deed a sum more or less than the actual selling price, depending upon which figure is supposed to prove to the advantage of the purchaser. A law has been introduced and is well on the way to passage, making such a mis presentation punishable by fine.

Notice to Civil War Survivors.

Those in need of application blanks to secure transportation to Gettysburg can obtain them, or should, from any G. A. R. Post, whether they ever were members of a post or not. Form "A" is used exclusively for men who were in the service and are now residents of Pennsylvania. These forms can also be obtained from Col. Lewis E. Beltler, Secretary Battle of Gettysburg Commission, Harrisburg, or from Col. F. Fortney, Bellefonte.
