DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TO BE RECALLED.

Chairman Guthrie to Reassemble and Nominates Candidate for Superior Court Judges.

Democratic State Chairman Guthrie announced that in the absence of any enabling legislation by the present Legislature, the last Democratic State convention will be recalled to name a candidate for one of the two Superior Court vacancies to be elected in November.

Mr. Guthrie's statement is based on the party rules which he says must govern in such cases. It is probable, accepting Mr. Guthrie's view, that the Republican State convention, which adjourned, would follow the same procedure on the Republican side.

When the last Legislature abolished Spring elections and scheduled State elections for even numbered years, they overlooked the Superior court vacancies. Under present conditions, no specific method is provided for this year. Bills, among them state-wide primaries, are now pending. Unless these bills are enacted, the question will be up to party rules.

In response to the query as to the procedure, Mr. Guthrie said: "Of course any opinion which I now express is predicated on the assumption that no legislation effecting the matter will be passed at this session of the Legislature."

"Assuming then that no such legislation will be passed, any nominations for this office by the Democratic party must be made under Section 6 of rule VI of the Party Rules."

"This section provides among other things, that in the event of any vacancy occurring in any office which vacancy is to be filled by an election of qualified electors of the State of Pennsylvania the Democratic State convention, composed of the delegates who constituted the last preceding Democratic State convention, shall have power to nominate a candidate for the office affected by such vacancy if the same is to be filled at an election to be held prior to the next regular or stated meeting of the Democratic State convention."

"Section 7 of the same rule provides for the manner in which the convention shall be called together."

"In case therefore, the Legislature should adjourn without any action, it will be the duty of the State Chairman to call the state central committee together to issue a call for a special meeting of the Democratic state convention, to be composed of the delegates to the last state convention, to nominate a candidate for the Superior Court, and to fix the time and place for such a meeting."

"I do not know, of course, how the Republican party would act, as I do not know what its rules are; but as the last state convention only adjourned to meet again on proper call, I have no doubt that it also could be called together for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate."

"However that may be, I am quite confident that the proper and regular mode of procedure for the Democratic party."

"A new convention could not be called, as there is no legal machinery for the election of delegates."

COUNTY GRANGE MEETS.

Session Held at Unionville in Hall of Union Grange.

The second quarterly meeting of the Centre County Pomona Grange was held in the hall of Union Grange, in Unionville, Thursday, last week. The attendance was quite large, and representatives of the Order were present from many distant points in the county, many making the journey wholly or partially by rail.

Union Grange has a commodious hall, that lately has been enlarged and otherwise improved, and at present is not yet fully completed. This Grange has had an uninterrupted existence for a period of thirty-eight years, and some of the charter members are yet living and active in Grange work.

The meeting opened promptly at the appointed morning hour. Dr. Irvin, on behalf of his Grange, welcomed the members of the County Grange with a hearty greeting, and this cordial welcome was responded to by Prof. C. R. Neff, lecturer of Progress Grange.

The master appointed George W. Gingerich and Mrs. D. M. Campbell a committee on credentials.

The first question for discussion, "an machine power be used in doing household work?" was opened by Cloyd Brooks, of Progress Grange. He gave a detailed statement of the use of gasoline power on the Rhoney-nede farm of which he is manager. He uses a one-horse power gasoline engine for pumping water, separating cream, turning the grind-stone, the washing machine and clothes wringer. While this hard work is being done, the farmer's wife sits in an easy chair, calls over the telephone on business, or makes social engagements over their wire with her neighbors.

David K. Keller, secretary of the Grange fire insurance company, reported increased business during the first quarter of the year. Also, that there had been no assessments for fire losses for three years, and that the average cost of insurance including survey, policy, premium and taxes, for a period of thirty-seven years has been but two cents per one hundred dollars of actual insurance.

At noon luncheon was served, and more than an hour was devoted to social chats. At the opening of the afternoon session the achievements of the order were gone into by Prof. C. R. Neff, and Miss Florence Rhone. It was brought out that the Grange had already accomplished much in establishing free rural mail delivery, a rural telephone system, etc.

Another question discussed was "How to restore the elements of fertility of the soil."

By request the esoteric work of the Order was given by the master. Then followed a general discussion of topics for the good of the order.

The body adjourned to meet in the hall of Washington Grange, near State College, Thursday, June 5th.

AARONSBURG.

Miss Jennie Nylvis and Mrs. Archie King spent Sunday at Smulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gramley, from Millheim, were entertained for a few hours by Effie Weaver.

Mrs. Mary Brindel, of Coburn, was the welcome guest of grandmother Hafley.

Warren Winkleblich and family spent Sunday with Jacob Winkleblich, at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Jeff Stiver, of Wolfs Chapel, spent a few hours with her aged aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver.

Mrs. E. A. Bower was entertained a few days at the home of her son while in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Astron Weaver and Mrs. Jennie Sylviss spent a day in Penn township at the home of Ralph Stover.

Ray Stover is employed at Spring Mills running the engine for the crusher on the state road.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick and son, of Pottery Mills, were over Sunday guests of E. G. Mingle.

Mrs. William M. Whitmeyer was the welcome guest of her aged grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guisewite and daughters, Mary and Florence, spent Saturday at the home of George Weaver.

Fred Limbert, wife and son Carl, returned to their home in Altoona after spending a few days with Mrs. Elizabeth Limbert.

Misses Sara and Mae Guisewite, the accomplished daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Guisewite, were Bellefonte visitors, from Friday until Monday.

Those who attended the Sunday-school convention at Madisonburg from town were Henry Krapp, Frank Burd, Ruth Cronse, Vera Bower, Jennie Hull, Nellie Burd, Annie Eisenhaur, and Rebecca Snyder.

Centre Mills.

Mr. Hoy, of State College, on his way to Smulton stopped at Centre Mills, where his wife's former home is.

Elias Breen has purchased the saw mill from J. A. Kline, and is now rebuilding it near Smulton, where he expects to begin sawing in a few days.

C. H. Small sold a timber tract to Elias Breen for $800. The tract is located midway between Centre Mills and Smulton. Robert Hackenberg also sold Mr. Breen a piece of timber land lying near the mill mentioned above.

The Sunday-school convention at Madisonburg on Saturday was largely attended. Those present from Centre Mills and Spring Bank were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stump, Harry Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller, J. A. Kline, Miss Minnie Kline.

Keep in mind the festival in Grange Arcadia on the evening of Memorial Day.

DEATHS.

The Appollo Sentinel printed this death notice of a son of a former and well known resident of Penns Valley: The Sentinel says in part:

The many friends of Theodore Charles Frederick were very much surprised and greatly shocked last week to learn of his sudden illness and death at his home at Spring Church on Thursday, May 15, 1913. His death was due to a severe attack of acute indigestion from which he suffered for about twelve hours. He was born January 1, 1874, and was aged thirty-nine years, four months and fourteen days. He was the oldest son of Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Frederick, of Spring Church, Arma run county, March 24, 1898, he was married to Miss Jennie Heckman, who, with one daughter, Sara, ten years of age, survive him, as do his father and mother, one sister, Mrs. John D. Miller, and one brother, Charles Frederick, all of Spring Church. He was popularly known as Christy and was engaged with his father and brother in growing fruit and vegetables on their farm, and for many years his market wagon was a familiar sight on the streets of Appollo.

William J. Singer, Esq., one of the best known attorneys formerly at the Centre county bar, and until eight years ago a prominent resident of Bellefonte, died, of a sudden, of heart failure at the Hotel Hastings, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Singer was admitted to the Bellefonte bar in the spring of 1889, and in 1892 was elected district attorney and was reelected three years later.

November 20, 1890, he was united in marriage to Miss Edna Clark Trafford, of Huntingdon county, who died ten years ago. Two sons are left: Edward L. and John Trafford Singer, who are at Asheville, N. C. He also leaves three sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. William Beck, of Nittany; Sara, John Robb, of Howard; Mrs. John Royhorn, of Clearfield county, and Benjamin, whose whereabouts are unknown. His age was fifty-one years.

Dr. A. W. Hafer died in Bellefonte at the age of sixty-seven years, nine months and sixteen days. He was a dentist by profession and was a resident of Bellefonte for many years.

Dr. Hafer was born in Miles township, and was married to Martha Jane Beck, who died twenty years ago. The surviving children are: Laura K., wife of Francis S. Hamilton, of New Haven, Conn.; Alpha G. Hafer, assistant superintendent of the New Haven (Conn.) general hospital; F. Jane, at home, and William Talmage, a student at Perkiomen Seminary, Pennsburg, Pa. One daughter, Mrs. Haagen, died in Tyrone several years ago.

CLASSIS AGAINST LIQUOR.

Drastring Anti-Liquor Resolutions Adopted by Reformed Body.

In addition to a mass of routine business pertaining to church matters transacted by the West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church which met last week in New Berlin, drastring anti-liquor resolutions were adopted. The resolutions provide that no church member shall hereafter be in any way connected with the liquor business; neither shall he act as bondsman for hotel proprietors nor sign petitions for licenses.

While no specific action was taken concerning the Freeburg charge, where a delegation of prominent churchmen interested in the liquor traffic brought this spring to muzzle Rev. J. B. Griemer, the pastor, in his sermon against the evil in the community, the above resolutions were in a way designed to meet that situation. It is said that conditions in the little Snyder county town which had been torn by strife are calming, and the leaders of the liquor faction have lost much of their original following, who upon calm second thought have come to the pastor's support. Threats of discharge or curtailment of salary have not materialized.

Bucknell University Commencement.

The sixty-third Annual Commencement of Bucknell University will occur June 18. It is expected that on that date will be completed the series of efforts to raise $500,000 for the institution. The sum of $500,000 has been secured in cash or legally binding subscriptions.

Rebersburg.

John Harter quite recently lost a valuable horse.

The past week H. G. Miller had Milford Garret, a carpenter, engaged improving the interior of his house.

Wm. Shull, who was all-around boy at the hotel, quit the job, and Wm. Haines is his successor.

Ammon Shroyer and family, of Loganton, spent several days this week in town with relatives.

J. N. Meyer is at present having numerous improvements made in his dwelling house in the line of papering, painting and changing partitions, etc. One day last week D. B. Weaver was called to Philadelphia on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. Brumgart, who is in a hospital at that place and whose recovery is doubtful.

Mrs. Wm. Moyer and children, of Illinois, arrived at this place last Saturday and will visit relatives in this valley for several weeks. Mrs. Moyer is a daughter of Daniel Weaver, of Wolf's Store.

Last Friday while A. B. Wolf, of Wolf's Store, while speeding through the narrows in his auto on his way to Millheim, the machine turned a somersault over an embankment; luckily none of the occupants received injury, but the machine was pretty badly used up.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Hours When Services Will be Held and the Speakers at the Various Cemeteries.

Tomorrow, Friday, will be Memorial Day, a day set aside by the National Government on which the graves of all soldiers are to be decorated. The chief object of decorating the graves and the holding of the services on this day is to instill patriotism in the younger generations.

Services will be held at the following places and hours named below:

Centre Hall, 6 P. M., address by Rev. H. F. Foss.

Sprucetown, 2 P. M., address by Rev. R. R. Jones.

Union, 9:30 A. M., address by Rev. F. W. Barry.

Spring Mills, 6 P. M., address by Col. A. A. Dale.

Georges Valley, 2 P. M., address by Rev. Price.

Pine Grove Mills, 2 P. M., address by Col. H. S. Taylor.

Boalsburg, 6 P. M., address by Col. H. S. Taylor.

Pine Hall, 6 P. M., address by Rev. L. S. Spangler.

Indian Lane, 2 P. M., no speaker.

Tusseyville, 2 P. M. address by Rev. F. W. Barry.

Millheim, 2 P. M., speaker Capt. Kress, of Lock Haven.

Madisonburg, 9 A. M.

Rebersburg, 10:30 A. M.

Aaronsburg, 6 P. M.

I. O. O. F. Notes.

These bits of information were gathered from the Gettysburg convention reports:

A total membership of 155,000 in Pennsylvania was reached.

The relief fund contributed towards the Ohio and Indiana flood sufferers totaled $4,200.

At a special session four hundred paid grantees were admitted to the grand lodge.

Ten new lodges were installed during the past year.

The Rebekahs reported a large gain in membership, and that thirteen new lodges had been installed.

Road Case Settled.

The suit of the County vs. Harris township involving $1,552.22 as the township's share in the cost of a piece of State road built some years ago, was settled out of court. The township had refused to pay its share of the cost of the road on the ground that it had not been built according to specifications. A settlement was effected whereby the township agrees to pay $1,552.22, and the county is to pay the cost.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Sarah Kerlin is having her home in Centre Hall repainted. The work is being done by C. E. Flink, the tenant.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle and daughters, and Miss Fannie Hoffer, of Bellefonte, were guests on Sunday of Mrs. W. B. Mingle.

Mrs. James Leitzell writes the Reporter from Milmont that corn is up and grain and grass looking fine, and fine prospects for a large hay crop in that section of Union county.

J. C. Brooks and J. R. Smetzer are representing Potter township as jurors this week, and former Commissioner G. L. Goodhart is representing Centre Hall in the same capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks and children, and Hon. Leonard Rhone, on Sunday drove to Millheim, where they were entertained by Mr. Rhone's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sankey.

The Daughters of the Revolution comprising the Bellefonte chapter, forwarded to the Reporter office a number of Betsy Ross flags to be placed on the graves of Revolutionary soldiers in the Centre Hall and Pennsylvania cemeteries, and in Indian Lane.

This (Thursday) evening the degree team of Centre Hall Lodge, I. O. O. F., will go to Boalsburg to confer the second degree upon a number of candidates at that place. A number of other brothers will accompany the team and the trip will be made mainly in automobiles.

Messrs. John E. and William Rishel, administrators of the estate of their father, M. L. Rishel, are preparing to sell at public sale the Rishel farm, at Farmers Mills, which farm is now tenanted by the junior Mr. Rishel, and is one of the most productive farms in that locality.

The Odd Fellows and Eagles will participate in the Memorial Day services at Centre Hall. Former Sheriff Brumgart will have charge of the program in a general way, Prof. P. H. Meyer, will lead in music, and the speaker will be Rev. F. H. Foss, pastor of the United Evangelical church.

Prof. D. L. Bloom, who just completed a course of study on Agriculture in State College, will give an interesting talk on "Soil Analysis" in Tyler-ville, on Friday evening of this week, and on Friday evening following (June 6th) he will speak in Rebersburg on the same important question.

The three cows sold at the B. H. Arney sale, in Centre Hall, on Saturday brought good prices. One sold for $82.50 and was purchased by W. V. Harnsberger, the Rebersburg poultryman; one passed for $71.50 and the other for $64.50, the purchasers being William F. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, and Milton Kline, of near Centre Hall.

CONVENTION AT MILLHEIM.

The Ministerial, Sunday-school and K. L. C. E. Convention Held Profitable Sessions.

The Ministerial, Sunday-school and Keystone League of Christian Endeavor Convention of Centre District of the United Evangelical Church convened in St. Luke's United Evangelical church in Millheim, May 20, 21, 22.

Twenty-one ministers and about sixty delegates were in attendance, representing eight different counties.

The singing under the direction of chorister Rev. A. F. Weaver was inspiring and uplifting.

The officers of the convention were: President, Rev. Henry A. Benfer, D. D.; Vice President, Rev. J. C. Reeser, A. M.; Secretary, Rev. H. W. Buck, Jr., Treasurer, Rev. W. J. Dice.

The opening address of the convention was made by Presiding Elder Benfer, of Lewisburg. He spoke on the subject, "The Preacher and the Demands of the Times." He said, "The times demand, novelty, sensationalism, flattery and compromise. The preacher must not yield to the demands, but preach the Word."

Wednesday morning and afternoon sessions consisted of subjects bearing on ministerial work, such as "Effective preaching," "Pastoral visitation," "The value of system in church work and finance," etc. The various subjects were well presented showing thoughtful preparation, and giving many practical hints and suggestions. Some of the subjects were largely and profitably discussed.

Wednesday evening the session opened promptly at 7:30 o'clock. After song and devotional service, two of the local S. S. classes sang very beautifully.

Rev. S. A. Snyder, of Middleburg, also sang a temperance song.

The speaker of the evening, Rev. J. C. Reeser, A. M., of Lewistown, was then introduced. He spoke magnificently in an earnest forceful manner on "The imperative needs in the present temperance crisis." He pictured the saloon as a gigantic foe, but conquered by the power of the Word of God. He spoke of the day is not far distant when it will be a thing of the past. He showed clearly that the only successful way to overcome it is by the vote cast at the polls, and urged that each one vote for the men who will use their power for national prohibition.

Several very important subjects were presented and discussed on Thursday morning, and the S. S. and K. L. C. E. District Secretary, Rev. W. E. Peffley, of Juniata, gave his report, which showed advancement along different lines of work.

Thursday afternoon the subjects bearing on different phases of C. E. W. were presented by Rev. R. S. Dautert, of Liverpool; Rev. C. S. Messner, of McClure; and Rev. D. A. Erlic of Clintondale.

Rev. H. W. Buck, Jr., of Millin, spoke very earnestly on "The importance of maintaining a Christian home."

The subject "Music in our churches," was very ably presented by Rev. A. F. Weaver, of Bellefonte, and the address so well received that the convention requested that he send a copy of the address to the editor of "The Evangelical" for publication.

Thursday evening, the president of the convention, Dr. Benfer, presented the district K. L. C. E. banner to the delegates representing the society at Winfield, for having raised the highest average per member missionary money.

There were two speakers for the evening. Rev. W. E. Peffley, B. D. spoke on "The qualifications and spiritual equipment of the S. S. teacher." Rev. D. F. Young, of Altoona, read a well prepared paper on "The great commission and the United Evangelical church."

The visiting pastors and delegates were royally entertained. All returned home feeling that the time spent in Millheim was not only delightful but profitably spent.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

Friday—Memorial Day.

The man who loafs in Centre Hall is loafing by choice.

Miss Florence Rhone for several days was the guest of friends in Tyrone.

J. M. Ross, of Linden Hall, was a business caller at this office Thursday of last week.

The appropriation committee has recommended that Bellefonte Hospital be given $14,000.

The painter who goes to the trouble to canvass Centre Hall might find a number of property owners who could be induced to give him work.

A thousand chicks are being hatched on the Kerlin poultry farm for a New Jersey party. The eggs have been in the incubator for almost two weeks.

Raise the flag tomorrow (Friday) which will be Memorial Day. The proper form is to raise the stars and stripes any time after sunrise and take it down before sunset.

The elk shipped to the state game preserve in the Paddy Mountain district have all been liberated from the inclosure in which they were first placed. They were given their freedom in groups.

Byron Musser, who had gone to Utah about a month ago to spend his vacation with his sister, Mrs. J. C. McCloskey, returned to his home at Millheim and has resumed his work at the station at Coburn.

Dr. John Hardenburg, who gives poultry considerable attention, was annoyed for some time by a snake that fed on the chicks he was growing. Finally the doctor captured the reptile which proved to be a black snake and was forty inches in length.

Hon. C. L. Gramley forwarded to this office a number of blanks for transportation to Gettysburg reunion celebration, July 1st to 4th. Any of the Reporter readers who are entitled to such a favor from the state may obtain the blanks by calling here.

Tomorrow (Thursday) George Boozer expects to leave Centre Hall for a month's visit with his brother, Ralph C. Boozer, in Chicago, Illinois. He contemplates making the trip alone, and is looking forward with great delight to his stay in the city on the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barger, who for about a year have lived in Tiffin, Ohio, have moved to Jewett, in the same state. They are former residents of Spring Mills. From the stationery used, the Reporter infers that Mr. Barger is employed by the Harrison-Jefferson Telephone Company.

John Taylor, a south side bird, was found guilty of aiding a fellow prisoner to escape from Fort Lee, in Bellefonte. Mease, who escaped, was captured, and at the trial for the offence peached on Taylor who had made a wire skeleton key with which Mease picked a lock. Application was made for a new trial, and argument was heard.

According to reports from Rev. R. R. Jones and others prominent in the affairs of the Reformed church, the meeting of Classis at New Berlin, last week, was a decided success. That the people of New Berlin are a very hospitable class, and did all in their power to make the short stay of the visitors a pleasant as well as a profitable one, was the impression made upon those from Centre Hall. Classis will meet next year at Rebersburg, the date having been set for May 21.

S. E. Brown, of near Potters Mills, was in Centre Hall the latter part of last week, and favored the Reporter with a call. He is preparing to build a new house on the Jerre C. Brown homestead, near Potters Mills, which he purchased some time ago from the heirs. The Reporter is pleased to note that Mr. Brown is making such an improvement, for no man has all the pleasant experiences he is entitled to unless he builds from the foundation his own home, and that is what he is doing.

This is a concrete age, at least when it comes to building walks in Centre Hall, for very few permanent walks were constructed of any other material during the past five or six years. There are now many good side walks in all parts of town, and they are permanent. Messrs. Boozer and Boozer have taken up the building of walks and other work of concrete, and they are making an effort to improve on the work done in the past. More attention will be given to details, with the hope that there will be fewer blocks with flaws in them. And here it must be said that it is regretted that the borough long ago did not have a grade adopted, so that where walks are built there would be more uniformity in grade.

Auto Bus Line.

The Keystone Gazette hears that a Wilkes Barre party is planning to run a ninety-horsepower bus line between Millburg and State College, the schedule time between the extreme points to be one and one-half hours. The machine will have a capacity of sixty passengers, and is built on lines similar to a trolley car, except it will carry its own power plant and run over the public highway. The intermediate points to be accommodated are Pleasant Gap, the Penn Site section and Lemont. A number of cars of a like character are in use in the Pittsburgh district, and other points in the state.

I. O. O. F. Grand Officers.

Grand master, Fred C. Hanyon, Soranton; deputy grand master, Paul A. Benson, of Erie; grand warden, J. P. Hale Jenkins, Norristown; grand secretary, U. A. Hall, Philadelphia; grand treasurer, M. Richards Muckle, Philadelphia; grand chaplain, the Rev. D. S. Mackellar, Hawley; grand marshal, Phillip J. Vetter, Soranton; grand guardian, O. B. Blanchard, of Nelson; grand herald, Harry Smith, Philadelphia. Harry S. Wright, of Philadelphia, was appointed assistant grand secretary, and the appointment was approved by the Grand Lodge.

The Ladies' World for June is the first number at the new price of ten cents, and in point of interest it is the best issue of this popular magazine that we have seen. An air of novelty is given by the cover, a striking picture of a Gibson man taking the place of the usually pretty girl.
