LOCALS.

Mrs. Kate Conley is back to her home in Centre Hall, after spending a week with her son, J. Will Conley, in Bellefonte.

The Reformed congregations of Howard, Lock Haven, Nittany Valley and Bellefonte will hold a reunion at Hecla Park today (Thursday.)

Edward Rhoads of Port Matilda was obliged to plank down $25 as a fine and costs amounting to $47 on account of his dogs chasing deer.

Mrs. Horace S. Bower of Evansville is a guest at the United Evangelical parsonage, being one of Mrs. Foss' intimate friends when living in Evansville.

Hon. C. L. and Mrs. Gramley, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Haines and son Kenneth of Rebersburg attended the Chautauqua on Monday and Tuesday making the trip in the former's car.

Harvey Rote and little son Russel of near Farmers Mills were in Centre Hall on Monday. Mr. Rote owns and tills the Detweiler farm, which is a productive one under his management.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Bible and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goods and family and Albert Goods of Altoona made a trip to the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Bible on Sunday in an auto. Mr. Bible had been ill at his Centre Hill home for the past few weeks, but is improving at this writing.

A Critt five passenger car is the type of machine Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Neff will be seen traveling through the country in. The car was purchased from Cleveland Brungart of Tusseyville, and Wednesday morning he went to Philadelphia, and is expected back to day with the car in question. Mr. Neff is a farmer, and during the past few years has been giving considerable attention to the production of butter. He has a fine herd of cows, and these are fed from a silo in the winter time. Others are suspicious that it is the returns from the dairy that gave Mr. and Mrs. Neff the automobile fever.

The huckleberry crop is a good one, and the region of mountains about Coburn is one of the most prolific fields in Centre county. Berry picking becomes a business with many people in the vicinity of these berry fields, and the luscious fruit is gathered by the hundreds of bushels, and there is no trouble to dispose of it. The centers along the Seven Mountains where the greater part of the berries are sold to merchants and hucksters are Woodward, Coburn, Spring Mills, Potters Mills, Colyer, Boalsburg and Pine Grove Mills. The local demand for this fruit is always good, but the greater part of the crop is shipped to the larger cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Smith and children Paul and Catharine of Frugality have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory S. Ripka in Centre Hall. Mr. Smith is a native of Penn Hall, and has held several very important positions during the past six or seven years, the time he has been absent from his parents in Gregg township. He began as a clerk for Ripka Brothers, at Spring Mills, and later became a manager for a string of company stores, and is now manager of a large supply store conducted by the Frugality Merchandise Company, at Frugality. The trade is almost exclusively among the miners, but the volume of business is large, and requires the close personal attention of the manager. Mr. Smith is now resting up after a period of hard work which impaired his health.

STATE GRANGE AT READING.

Sessions Will Open December 9th—Hostesses Men of City Will Spend $1000 to Entertain.

The State Grange will hold its annual meeting in Reading, December 9, 1913. This was decided at a conference of officials of the State Grange, chamber of commerce, board of trade and Berks County Agricultural Society.

The chamber of commerce guaranteed the executive committee of the grange that the citizens of Reading would provide $1000 for entertainment, a place of meeting and bureau of information.

Among those in the conference were William T. Creasy, master of the State Grange, of Catawissa; I. Frank Chandler, of Chester county; William Armstrong, of Alderson; C. H. Dildine, of Orangeville, Columbia county; John H. Keppelman, president of the board of trade; Daniel J. McDermott, secretary; J. P. Hennessey, president of the agricultural association, and members of the chamber of commerce.

Moon-light Party.

A moon-light party was given near Linden Hall by Misses Ruth Yarnell and Emma Rowe, on Friday evening, of last week. The evening was spent playing games in which everybody joined, and about half past eleven refreshments were served after which the amusements were continued. About one o'clock everybody returned home rejoicing. The following young people were present: Carl and George Bohn, Ralph and Berthard Keller, Roy Mariz, Roy Smith, Wm and George Swartz, Gilbert Henry, Lee and Earl Frazier, Fred Horner, William Rickard, Robert Burehfield, Paul Ross, Edward Yarnell, John Stoner, Samuel Ross, Domer Ishler, John Patterson, John, George and Gilbert Reamey, Mr. and Mrs. John Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas, Mrs. George Yarnell, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Yarnell, William Swabb, Fred Brown, Emma, Daisy and Blanche Rowe, Phyllis Johnsonbaugh, Ruth Mariz, Ada Meise, May and Bessie McClellan, Orpha Fielesher, Margretta Rockey, Alma Stoner, Virginia Young, Edna and Mary Wagner, Katharine, Lavon, Hazl and Ruth Yarnell.

Mingle Property Sold.

The house and lot until last spring occupied by W. Gross Mingle in Centre Hall was sold by C. D. Bartholomew, real estate agent, to P. A. Lester. The purchasing price is said to have been $1400. Mr. Lester now occupies the place, and of course it is his intention to remain there.

E. M. Kuhn and Walker Shutt have made improvements to their dwellings by the addition of porches.
C. D. Moore of State College spent his vacation at Boalsburg, where he assisted at the ingathering of the harvest.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wagner, Miss Elsie Wolfe, and Miss Verna Dougherty all of Altoona are visitors at the home of D. W. Myers.
Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher with their little grandson Jack Fisher of Bellefonte, were guests at the George Kaup home over Sunday.
C. W. Corl has started in threshing wheat with his new machine. The new attachment, a self feeder, is giving good satisfaction.
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Port with two daughters from Huntingdon, Miss McAllister from Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Arabella Morron of Aron Springs were visitors at the J. M. Wieland home.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Walter Orwig spent a few days with friends at Feldler.

Prof. Wm. Ziegler of Philadelphia was a welcome caller in our town on Saturday.

Wm. Minnick moved from this place to Lemont at which place he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hosterman spent a day last week with friends at Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Royer of Spring Mills were seen at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Limberts.

Mrs. Kerstetter and daughter Mary of State College are welcome guests of their uncle Z. D. Thomas.

Mrs. W. D. Donat and Mrs. O. P. Adams are under the care of a doctor, but at this writing they are improving.

Rev. F. W. Brown of Danville, a former pastor of the Reformed congregation, spent a few days with friends in town.

Clymer Stover of Lewisburg was the welcome guest of George Weaver one day last week; he came over on his bicycle.

Warren Winkleblich and family spent the Sabbath at the home of John Detweiler living near Centre Hall.

Grandmother Condo and daughter, Mrs. James Roush, spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koeb in Boalsburg.

Thomas Hall and Philip Eisenbaur, who are employed at State College, spent the Sabbath at their homes at this place.

Rev. Geesey pastor of the Lutheran congregation, and Mrs. Geesey are spending a few weeks with their parents in Hanover.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles Kremer and son of New Hope are guests of Mrs. B's father, Henry Bower. They have many friends who were glad to see them.

Miss Beatrice Coll and brothers Randolph and Donell of State College visited at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Keeners, over Sunday.

Miss Mildred Acker, who is employed in Chicago, Ill., has come to spend an indefinite time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Acker.

Mrs. Elsie McKay and daughter have returned to their home in Philadelphia, after having spent some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Philips.

Dr. C. S. Musser of Aaronsburg assisted by Dr. Braucht of Spring Mills successfully removed a growth from the hand of Mrs. Sarah Harper. At this writing she is getting along nicely.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Abbie Woodling, a widow, is on the sick list and is very feeble.

The stork visited the home of John Day and left a little baby boy, Good, Day.

This week our farmers are busy storing away their grain and making hay.

Charles Weber and family of Philadelphia are spending in Rebersburg at present.

Mrs. Lester Minnick and son Stover are spending this week at State College and Bellefonte.

Adam Borer, a former resident of this place, but now resides in Kansas, is at present visiting relatives in Brush Valley.

Prof. J. C. Morris this week had his household goods shipped to this place from Huntingdon and will become a resident here again.

Prof. E. S. Stover and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hosterman of Woodward spent last Sunday at this place at the home of Scott Stover.

The nine year old daughter of Monassa Stover of Livonia, who several weeks ago was bitten by a rattlesnake, we are glad to mention, is on a fair way to recovery under the skillful treatment of Dr. Bright. One day last week while Russel Beckenbaugh was cutting wheat with a binder he drove his horses into a grain cradle which was left lying along the grain by a careless employee. The cradle was demolished and one of the horses was badly cut on the leg which put it out of commission for the present.
