LOCALS.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Saturday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yearick of Howard were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shaver east of Centre Hall for several days.

The summer course for teachers at State College closed last week. About 500 teachers from all parts of the state attended the short term.

John W. Adams, a former resident of Millheim, is a Democratic candidate for the office of sheriff in Huntingdon county. He is a resident of Huntingdon, and for a number of years has been one of the justices of the peace in that place.

Mrs. George W. Spangler, who for some time has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Crawford, in Centre Hall, had the misfortune on Saturday morning to fall down a stairway and break the bones in one of her arms above the wrist.

Michael Shaffer and son N. Bigler Shaffer of near Rebersburg were in Centre Hall on Friday. The latter Mr. Shaffer, who is engaged in farming operations in Brun Valley, reports crops very good down there, and that farmers are well on with their work.

The automobile is attracting the attention of George H. Emerick, the implement dealer in Centre Hall, to a considerable extent, and it is said that by fall he will be the owner of a touring car of a high class. He expects to use the machine in his business as well as for pleasure.

The venerable John A. Hunter of Stormstown, Half Moon Valley's most aged citizen, was delighted to have a visit from his son, John A. Hunter, professor of mechanical engineering in the University of Colorado. The latter Mr. Hunter is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College.

Mrs. C. H. Meyer and daughter Miss Miriam of Reedsville are at the home of Mrs. Meyer's father, Capt. G. M. Bohl, Miss Miriam just returned from the south, where for some weeks she was entertained by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick of Columbus, South Carolina.

Dr. J. Frank Meyer has moved his family from Bloomfield, New Jersey, to Washington, D. C., and is now connected with the Department of Commerce as associate physicist in the Bureau of Standards. Dr. Meyer is a son of J. S. Meyer of near Penn Hall. The position he fills is a very responsible one, but he is abundantly qualified for the place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harpster of Freeport, Illinois, are at the Centre Hall hotel and will remain for several weeks. Mr. Harpster is an internal revenue collector, and was also elected one of the three commissioners who will govern Freeport in the future, that city having adopted the commission form of government. The latter position is a very important and exacting one. He represents the Republican party, which in Freeport is the majority party.

A bushel of eggs! That's a lot of eggs—thirty-six dozen—and that's the number of eggs found in one nest at Elmer McClellan's barn, south of Centre Hall. The good old hens about the McClellan place found an opening under a shed floor, and it was to that quiet place a number of them went to relieve themselves of their burdens. A cocking hen gave away the secret, and one of Mr. McClellan's little daughters began to investigate and the picking of a bushel of eggs was the result.

Barn at Baileyville Burned.

Wednesday seems to be a fatal day for barns. Two weeks ago the Wagner and Klinger barns were burned and Wednesday of last week the barn on the farm owned by Mrs. Calvin Sunday near Baileyville in the western portion of the county, was struck by lightning and burned. The farm is tenanted by Ray Williams, son of John H. Williams, and formerly of Centre Hall. He succeeded in getting all his stock from the barn, but all this season's crop—hay and grain—were burned as were also some farming implements harness, tools, etc. Mr. Williams is a young man, and just began farming operations, consequently the loss will be felt keenly by him.

Mrs. Sunday had insurance in the Farmers Mutual Insurance Company, D. F. Luse, Centre Hall, secretary, in sum of $1200 on the barn and $400 on its contents.

Dr. George Lee Very Ill.

Dr. George Lee has been seriously ill for ten days, suffering from a complication of diseases. His condition as this issue went to press was very critical, and there is little or no hope for his recovery. Dr. C. S. Musser is the physician in attendance.

LOCALS.

Misses May and Florence Rhone are spending their vacation at Gracelandburg Inn, Fayetteville, Franklin county.

A horse belonging to John Delaney at Eastlystown was found dead in the field. It is presumed the animal was overcome with heat.

Forester W. F. McKinney and Mrs. McKinney of Pottery Mills were in Centre Hall on Tuesday and called on the Reporter on a bit of business.

Frank D. Lee of near Bellefonte and M. S. Benjamin Stamm of Boalsburg, brother and sister of Dr. George Lee, have been at his bedside during his serious illness.

Bellefonte has been designated one of numerous substations for state police, and a detail of Troop A will be located there as soon as funds are available for that purpose.

James Durst of near Milroy had been at the home of his brother, Samuel Durst, near Centre Hall and was called home on account of the sudden illness of his wife. He was taken to Milroy by Edward Durst in the Durst Overland car.

The engagement of the Rev. Phillip Thomas Gorman, pastor of the Highland Avenue M. E. church of Lewis-town to Miss Madeline Lenore Shimer, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Shimer of Port Royal is made public.

Miss Lizzie Knuckle of Spring Mills, who has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. John H. Runkle, east of Centre Hall is suffering from a paralytic stroke received last week. She has improved considerably, but is yet in a rather serious condition.

Boyd Magee has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Emerick in Centre Hall since the latter part of last week. He is in the real estate business in Philadelphia, and came up to the country to escape the excessively hot weather being experienced in the city.

Former Prothonotary A. B. Kimport is now located in Montgomery county, near Delphi, in Former Governor Pennypacker's Schwenksville district. He purchased a farm there, and expects to join the agriculturalists in feeding the world. Of course, he will not forget politics altogether.

A mixed party of white and colored people from Lock Haven on a joy ride to Bellefonte last week sidetracked a taxicab on its way from Bellefonte to Hecla Park, and the taxi was ditched. Mrs. H. R. Bell, wife of the steward of the Nittany country club, was seriously hurt. Her two sons, Robert and Samuel, and two maids, Miss Edna Russell and Miss Dora Zimmerman, who are employed at the club house, were also thrown from the taxi and injured. The joy riders were arrested, and Justice Brown fined them $25.00.

Ray Glenn Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Decker, of Tyrone, is spending a short time with his cousin, John Whiteman, in Centre Hall. Ray, who is eighteen years of age, has taken on considerable avoidopolis since his last visit here, a year ago. His former school mates and associates who always knew him as a lad of spare form, and who weighed little over one hundred pounds a year ago, looked with astonishment on the physique of the young man, who now tips the beam at one hundred and ninety pounds. His father conducts a restaurant in Tyrone.

John Blauser was pretty badly injured by a kick from a horse. He was skidding logs for Brabin & Company on their Egg Hill tract, and while in the act of picking up a grab, one of his horses kicked with both feet, striking him on the jaw and breast. Two teeth were broken out, a gash cut in his jaw, and the upper portion of the breast bone was pretty badly bruised, and is probably the most serious injury. Mr. Blauser is a man of fine physique, muscular, and full of grit. He refused assistance, and mounted the animal that kicked him and rode to his home near Potter Mills.

Aaronsburg.

W. H. Phillips made a business trip to Georges Valley one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kliggerman of Ebersburg were visiting at the home of Lewis Mensch the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilland Eisenhaur and children, spent Sunday at Penns Cave.

Burley Bower of Renovo spent some time at the home of his aunt, Emma Bower.

Mrs. Mary Burd has gone to State College to spend a few weeks with friends.

J. T. Arnagast of Centre Hall was the welcome guest of his friend, Eallie Stuffer.

Mrs. Wm. Marr of Phillipsburg visited her aged mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver.

Mrs. Emma Jordan Hess has greatly improved her home by having the same repainted.

Frank Rupp of Chicago, Illinois, has come to spend some time in this place, his boyhood home.

Perry Adams has gone to State College for a few days. He is having another house built at that place.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Geesey returned home. Mrs. Geesey's mother, Mrs. Bailey of Hanover accompanied them to the Lutheran parsonage.

Miss Helen Stover and Mr. Gephart of Rebersburg, and Miss Nellie Burd and Mr. Hackenberg of Rebersburg, were out joy riding on Sunday.

Prof. and Mrs. William Meyer, and daughter Mrs. Eva Cranston of Philadelphia, were guests of Luther E. Stover and other friends.

Miss Mable Zerby of near Penn Hall spent part of the Sabbath at the home of George Stover. Clyde brought her down to get her acquainted with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmar Stover and son were to Millinburg on Sunday in their auto. While there they met J. W. Forster, a mail clerk, and brought him to his home at this place.

Rev. Dr. Curtis, president of the Allegheny College, preached a most excellent sermon on Sunday morning in the Reformed church. His subject was "The Uplifting of Womanhood".

Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shook autoed to Millinburg on Sunday.

Mrs. Beatty, who has been quite ill, has gone to the home of her daughter at Avis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hennick spent Saturday in Union county, returning on Sunday with A. J. Shook.

Mrs. A. P. Krape and daughter, Mrs. H. E. Reish, of Centre Hall spent Wednesday with friends here.

Mr. John Sower and family of Dewart is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ream for a two weeks visit.

Mr. and Miss McNitt of Reedsville, Rev. and Mrs. Steele of near Philadelphia, took dinner with G. C. Kipp on Thursday.

REBERSBURG

Mrs. Passmore of Harrisburg is at present a guest at the J. B. Kreamer home.

Miss Ethel Harter left this week for Philadelphia where she will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Breen left this week for Nebraska, where they will visit their son George.

William Friese, of Wisconsin, is at present visiting in town at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Fehl.

Curtis Bigly and family of Dents Run are spending a month's vacation in this valley among relatives.

Mrs. Benjamin Smith, after spending a week in town with her sister, Mrs. James Zigler, left for her home in Philadelphia.

Rev. and Mrs. Stauffer left on Monday in their auto for Dauphin county, where they will spend a month's vacation visiting relatives.

C. C. Long and Wm. Haines left on Saturday for Ohio, where they will buy a car load of cattle and have the same brought to this place and sell them at public sale.

Henry Gilbert, after spending a month with his aged parents at this place, left on Friday for his place of employment at Washington, D. C., where he is employed in the Department of Justice.

Stops Falling Hair

Hall's Hair Renewer certainly stops falling hair. No doubt about it whatever. You will surely be satisfied.

Putting the Sickroom in Shape.

Disfurnish the sickroom of every essential. Leave nothing that can be knocked off or over or that clatters or rattles. Remove rugs from the bare floor, but keep a small one handy for the patient's feet. Cover a carpet with a smooth sheet of something washable. In case of contagion take away draperies and pictures. Have the bedstead light and firm standing, not too low, single or of three quarter size. Set it so there is free passage all round it, but not so light glares into sick eyes. Place the head at least six inches from the wall and set beside it a small solid table. A couch or single bed, a spacious dresser, a bigger table and at most three chairs are complete equipment. Give up the dresser to the patient's clothes, bedclothes, towels, table covers and so forth. Have three changes of clothes, a dressing gown a light shawl, slippers, many clean handkerchiefs. A dressing room attached is a godsend—next to it a bathroom easily reached. Lacking either, a washstand fully furnished is necessary also an alcohol or oil stove for hot water.—Harper's Household Handbook.

Selecting Men.

"Seeing" men is an art. It amounts almost to second sight. Often in a business "line" some man makes his way mysteriously and rapidly to the top or near to it. He does not seem to have greater trading ability than many others, nor has he been favored by a larger capital or a more magnetic personality. But he rises. His faculty of "seeing" men has been the magical force.

It is no trick at all to discover the man who has triumphantly made a record, who is already a personality in this trade of that. Unfortunately such a man is unaffably costly. What he has done, moreover, is no positive guarantee as to his future exploits. Men of great reputation as lieutenants many times prove great disappointments when they shift. The chief who "sees" picks a man whose reputation is yet to be made and thereby sets the profits himself.—Harper's Weekly.

Roused the Judge.

When Judge Gaynor was on the bench in New York he had a case where the attorney for the defense was exhausting the patience of every one in asking absurd questions of a witness whose mentality was of extremely low order. He kept this up for half an hour to no purpose at all and at last explained:

"Now, of course, you don't know that the defendant here is a manufacturer?"

"Please don't address your questions to what this witness does not know," interposed Judge Gaynor. "It opens such a wide range of possibility. It is patent that if you persist in finding out what he does not know we will never finish this case. Please therefore try to find out something that he does know."

Learned by Experience.

A wolf and a fox and a lion, having banded themselves together, snared a goat and a stag and a hare. And the lion said to the wolf, "Divide these among us." The wolf said, "The goat is for thee, the stag is for me, and the hare is for the fox," and when the lion heard these words he became wrath and leaped upon the wolf and choked him. Then he said to the fox, "Do thou divide the spoil." And the fox said to him, "The goat is for thy breakfast, the hare for thy lunch and the stag for thy supper." And the lion said to him, "Whence hast thou learned to make such an equitable division?" The fox replied, "From the wolf which Ieth before thee. O my lord and king."—From the Orient.

Familiar Talk.

A traveler who believed himself to be sole survivor of a shipwreck upon a cannibal island hid for three days in terror of his life. Driven out by hunger, he discovered a thin wisp of smoke rising from a clump of bushes inland and crawled carefully to study the type of savages about it. Just as he reached the clump he heard a voice say, "Why in blazes did you play that card?" He dropped on his knees and, devoutly raising his hands, cried: "Thank heaven they are Christians!"—Everybody's.

His Decision Stood.

"Who's chairman of the ways and means committee?" asked the boy who answers the telephone at the general bureau of information. "My wife," answered the walking encyclopedia absently. And when he came to himself he decided not to change it.—Buffalo Express.

Would Not Be Noticed.

Applicant—Yes, madam, I wish to secure board, but I must inform you that I am a vegetarian, madam. Mrs. Slim-diet—Oh, that will be all right. You will not be expected to eat the meat. None of the others ever do.—New York Weekly.

The Hot Wind From the Desert.

"Khamzin" is the hot wind from the desert which blows out of the Sahara upon Egypt. The word means fifty, from the idea that it lasts for fifty days. The khamzin is terribly hot and dry and sometimes brings pertience with it.

For a Starter.

"What would you advise me to do?" inquired the uncertain man. "Well, to start with, I'd advise you to quit wasting your time asking people's advice."—Washington Star.

To be able to have the things we want, that is riches; but to be able to do without, that is power.—Macdonald.
