THE CENTRE REPORTER. ISSUED WEEKLY.

S. W. Sfliff, . . . Editor and Proprietor

Entered at the Post Office in Centre Hall as econd Class mail matter.

CENTRE HALL. . . . PENN'A.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1913

TERMS.—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are one dollar per year in advance. ADVERTISING RATES-Display advertise ment of ten or more inches, for three or more in artions, ten cents per inch for each issue. Dis sertions, ten cents per inch for each issue. Dis-blay advertising occupying less space than ten-inches and for less than three insertions, from: fifteen to twenty-five cents per inch for each; issue, according to composition. Minimum charge, seventy-five cents.

Local notices accompanying display advertis-ing five cents per line for each insertion; other wise, eight cents per line, minimum charge, twenty-five cents.

Legal notices, twenty cents per line for three nsertions, and ten cents per line for each ad-litional insertion.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS

Reformed --- Tussey ville, morning ; Centre Hall, evening Presbyterian-For August 24th, Centre Hall morning ; Spring Mills, afternoon, United Evangelical-Egg Hill, morning ; Tu seyville, afternoon ; Centre Hall, evening.

Lutheran-Georges Valley, morning, Harvest Home Service ; Union, afternoon ; Centre Hall, evening.

Market Reports.

Wheat, red$	85
	55
Corn, shelled, 56 lbs	55
Rye	65
Oats	35
Barley	50
Hay, Timothy, first grade$11 00 to 12	00
Hay, mixed $9 00 to 11
Butter	25
	20 12

Marriage dicenses.

Mark W. Williams, Axe Mann Mable I. Stover, Bellefonte George E. Bebers, Bellefonte Grace F. Gettig, Z'on Ciallei A. Dick, Gregg Township Mary S. Vonada, Gregg Township Roy H. Kreider, Chicago Catharine Meyer, Spring Mills

LOUALS

Earl Grove, while picking apples at his home at the station, fell from a tree and sustained a number of bruises.

Mrs. Charles Donham and sons of and Centre Hall were represented by New York City are at the home of scholars ranging from the infant de-Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weber, parents of partment to those in advanced years. the former.

John H. Weibly, section boss on the P. R. R. at Linden Hall, is recovering all assembled as one great family in nicely from an injury received by being the large horticultural exhibit buildstuck with a railroad tie.

Grover Weaver made a trip to Al-harris township.

In Decker Valley, on the property Miss Livingston of Tyrone is visitformerly owned by Charles Ripks, and ing Mrs. Kidder, now vacant, there gathered a number Miss Anna Sweeney is spending of the Ripka families-the assemblage this week at O *k Hall. numbering one hundred and fifty-Miss Effie Rishel is spending part on Sunday. The visit there was of this week at State College. Miss E E. Stuart enjoyed a short visit to Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Zsigler of State College, spent Sunday at Boalsburg. these officers were elected : President, Miss Grove of Philadelphia is visitng Mrs. Charles Fisher at the Boals-

Vice Presidents, W. H. Ripks, Middleburg hotel. Grandfather John Stover and Mrs. Wm. Stover visited at Snow Shoe from Saturday till Monday.

Miss Cecil Harro of Heilwood enjyyed a few days with former companions at Boalsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Huston Shuey and son John of State College spent Sun. day afternoon at Boalsburg.

All the children of Charles Ripks Miss Bessie Young spent a week are living ; they are : W. H. Ripks, with relatives at Rebersburg, and Middleburg; John Z. Ripka, A. C. different parts of Clinton county. Ripks, Mrs Sue Crater, Spring Mills, Quite a number of young people R. D ; Mrs. J. H. Maiza, Samuel Ripfrom Boalsburg and vicinity attended ka, Millheim ; Mrs. Jonathan Tressler, the Baileyville picnic on Saturday. Linden Hall ; Mrs. Thomas Decker, Mrs. M A Woods and sister, Mrs. Alice Magoffin, returned last week from a visit of five weeks at Bradford.

Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Bryson and niece, Miss Helen Everett, are leaving Boalsburg this Thursday for their home at Derry.

Miss Alice E. Weber of Huntingdon, is enjoying some time with relatives and associates in different parts of Centre county.

Misses Nellie and Mery Holter of Pittsburg, were entertained for a few days by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh at the Hillside farm.

day for a visit to Honesdale, expecting to go from there to her home at Wilmington, Delawa'e.

Harry Stuart, Mr. Hannon, and Mrs Ralph of Sandy Ridge, and Miss Faust of Chalfonte were an automobile party who were guests of Mirs.

charge assembled in picule on Grange the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe spent a bleck homes.

at Potters Mills.

days at Lewisburg.

day at Axe Mann.

guests.

asked the other. day at Linden Hell, last week. "Well I dogn' the sugar and the second Moisture, Heat and Mildew In India.

Grossmith and Irving. Mr. Weeden Grossmith in "From Studio to Stage" tells how he very nearly spoiled his chances with Sir Henry Irving at the outset of his actng career. Mr. Grossmith in his studio days was in demand for his "imitations," and at the rehearsal of this play he was told that in his part of Jacques Strop he must "imitate" the gestures and so on of his master, Macaire.

I rushed at it, hit the table and gave them my regular, conventional back drawing room imitation of the great rope. man himself. Jogging my head and waving my hands in the air, I shouted, "Hi, hi-er-er-landlord-er-er-why the devil-er-er-don't you bring-erer-some-er-er-refreshment-er-for -myself and-er-er-er"- 1 never got any further. Fifty people on the stage collapsed, some with fear, others with laughter. Never had such a thing een known within the sacred walls of the Lyceum. The late Harry Loveday, the stage manager, turned pale with fright. The great chief glared at me temperature of 160 degrees in the sun. for a moment with eyes dilated and | will start mildew in the case by the then gave me a push, saying, "Stupid ald of the meisture within it - New fellow!" He practically pushed me off York Post. the stage.

Enduring It Calmly.

In "The Fourth Generation," /her volume of reminiscences of English social and literary life during the last century, Mrs. Janet Ross adds the name of Nassau W. Senior, the English econounist, to the already long list of persons who consider music "a horrid

Once at Bowood, Lord Lansdowne's

Moore began, but he was so much scratch, that he stopped to see who Scalor raised his head. "Oh, you

Insolence of Wealth.

A southern negro put up a sign on his place, "For Sail," He was ridi culed and changed it to "sell" and finally tried a third time, his sign read ing "sall." It had not been up an hour when an old colored man came along

"Does you mean dat dis place am

"Am you findin' fault wid dat sign?"

fur Sally? What yer gwine to giv' de was making the odious noise.

uoise that stops conversation."

Sad Memories.

Bysshe Shelley.

Puzzle of the Druidical Circle.

circle at Keswick. England? One anti- ly spirit .- Pall Mall Gazette. worried by the persistent scratch. quarian says forty-eight, but other mathematicians give different and varying estimates. A favorite number is dou't disturb me, I assure you," he said thirty-eight. Superstitious natives declare that the lofty circle is haunted by innocently. "Pray, go on; I rather fairies, who bring to naught the efforts of the profane to take a census of the megaliths. "They can't be counted." says the guide. "however long you Generosity.

"But, George." protested the lovely girl, "your salary is only $20 a week, and we can't live on that! "Darling," exclaimed George, "you don't suppose I'd be mean enough to ask you to throw up your $10 a week job, do you?"- Chicago Tribune.

ite cotch on to de No Debate Admissible.

try.'

A Surprise For Joaquin Miller.

The rainfall in India, which all takes When London society after the pubplace within four or five months, con lication of "Songs of the Sierras" betributes largely is giving to the cli gan to lionize Joaquin Miller he was mate its peculiar character. The ef. much puzzled at receiving three letfect of heavy and continuous rain in ters in quick succession from an adthe tropics is to produce a dampness mirer who signed himself "Dublin," In the air quite unknown in Europe without any initials. One of these conand which is very destructive to many tained an invitation to breakfast, articles of European manufacture, which he accepted, and then discover-The moisture and heat combined set ed that his host was the archbishop of up all kinds of fungoid growth and de Dublin. After his return to America cay in goods which are quite unaffect. Miller wrote: "At Dublin's breakfast ed by the climatic conditions of Eu- I met Robert Browning, Lady Augusta, Mildew stincks textile goods, a lot more ladies and a duke or two. leather, books and statiouery. Arms, After breakfast Dublin read poetry to cutlery and metal work require con me, with his five beautiful daughters stant supervision to preserve them grouped about him. When I went European furniture of wood is soon away he promised to send me his spoiled by swelling and shrinkage or books. He did so, I put them in my by borer worms. Perishable goods trunk and did not open them till I got soldered up in tin lined cases are not to America. Fancy my consternation safe if they have been packed in Eu as well as amazement and delight to rope in wet weather. The heat of the find that Dublin was Trench, the auship's hold in the Red sea or that of a thor of "Trench on Words.' Ah, why closed iron wagon on the Indiau rail- didn't he sign his name Trench, for I ways, when the iron may acquire a knew that book almost by heart?"

Jarred Into a Laugh.

Audiences are put in good humor in all sorts of ways, writes Spencer Leigh Hughes, M. P., in "The Art of Public Speaking." On one occasion I was The curse of this life is that what, present when John Morley addressed ever is once knows can never be un. a very large and overcrowded meeting, known. You inhabit a spot which be- and when he rose there was much disfore you inhabited it is as indifferent turbance at the back, not because of to you as any other spot upon earth, hostility to the speaker, but because and when, persuaded by some neces- men's ribs were being crushed almost sity, you think to leave it you leave it to breaking point. At last the disnot. It clings to you and, with memo- turbance ceased, and, as often hapries of things, which in your experi- pens on such occasions, a dead sience of them gave no such promise, lence fell on the expectant crowd. Mr. revenges your desertion. Time flows Morley had just uttered the words on: places are changed; friends who "Mr. Chairman" when in a tone of anwere with us are no longer with us; guish and rage a voice could be heard yet what has been seems yet to be, but snapping out, "Who in blazes are you barren and stripped of life .- Percy shoving?" and the place rocked with laughter, while even the scholarly and distinguished man on the platform could not forbear to smile. Then the How many stones in the Druidical meeting settled down in a most friend-place, Tom Moore had been prevailed upon to sing, All the party drew near to the plano save Mr. Senior, who sat at a small table and began to write with a guill pen on Lord Lansdowne's very ribbed paper. He was compiling an article on statistics or something of Mrs. G. C. Hall departed on Monthe sort.

Emma Stuart, last week.

The ladies of the civic club will hold a "Good Time" social in Boal hall Saturday evening, August 30th. Admission 10 and 15 cents. Music and literary exercises will constitute part of the program Refreshments will be served. In an announcement of this last week a mistake was made in toona on Saturday, returning on Monday evening. This was one of frequent visits made to that city during the past few months.

Aaronsburg.

J. Emory Hoy was an arrival from Philadelphia on Monday, and for a short time will be here with Mrs. Hoy and daughter at the home of Mrs. Hoy's mother. He will also spend some time at State College, his former home.

John Smith, a drug clerk, from Philadelphia, and Miss Lillian Smith show. The Reporter extends its best of Bellefonte, paid their brothers wishes to the young couple. Thomas L and W. J. Smith, a few hours' visit on Tuesday. They were accompanied by their niece, Helen Smith.

Centre Hall during the past ten days. | away.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stover of Aaronsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Penn Hall were guests at the home of J.W. Whiteman over Sunday. The ladies are sisters of Mr Whiteman. Mrs. Solomon Derck and daughter, -Miss Sallie Derck, of Travertown, are also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman.

From the Bellwood Bulletin : Miss Marion Emerick of Smullton after speading some time with her brother at the seashore, returned home a few Scotia, and a re-ident of Philipsburg for a short visit. days ago and enroute stopped off in for fifty years, fell dead while walking Ballwood for a visit with her brother, in the mountains on Sunday. Ticket Agent F. M Emerick, and with Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Foutz and other friends.

The resuming of the work on the state road between Centre Hall and Spring Mills, under the supervision of J. Russel Gephart, is hailed with delight. No matter what the attitude Look Haven for a few days last week. of the individual is toward the bond issue, one thing is agreed upon and bridge between the mill and blackthat is good roads are wanted, and smith shop. the state must build them if we are ever to have them.

Frank Royer gave the Reporter last week. figures that will be interesting to weights of a veal calf killed by him for Perry McKinney, at Potters Mille. The calf was just five weeks old, weighed 208 pounds when slaughtered, and the following day the carcasa weighed 131 pounds. These figures are remarkable.

Marcellus Sankey will again become a resident of Potter township next spring, at which time he will move back to the Sankey homestead at Potters Mills. Edward Wiser will succeed Mr. Sankey as tenant on the Penn township farm he will vacate. Mr. Wiser began farming on the Buavely farm, east of Old Fort where Le now lives, and made a good record as a tenant,

----- Wega-Krumbine John Wega of Nant-y-Glo, and Miss

Ripka Family Assemble.

largely for the benefit of John Z. Rip-ka, who lives near by and is quite feeble. The large representation of the family inspired them to organize ;

A. C. Ripks, Spring Mills, R. D.

burg, and J. H. Maize, Millheim ;

Secretary, E. S. Ripka, Centre Hall

Assistant Secretary, J. B. Ripka,

Spring Mills, R. D.; Committee on

Family History, E. S. Ripks, Centre

Hall ; Mrs. Eue Crater, Spring Mills,

R. D.; Samuel Ripks, Millheim. The place for meeting next year will be de-

WW Gregg Farm Sold. MM

One of the Gregg farms was sold to John A. Heckman a few days sgo for $5000. Before moving onto the Dr.

Lieb farm, east of Centre Hall, Mr.

Heckman for a number of years lived on the farm he puchase. The farm contains 190 acres, thirty of which are timbered. There is a good scope of pasture land on the farm and

Mr. Heckman will undoubtedly follow his former method of farming, which was largely growing cattle and hogs. The farm was owned by the Misses Julia and Sue Gregg of Milesburg, and the sale was made through their sgent, James L P. Gregg of U, E. S. S. Picnic,

The Sunday-schools connected with the several churches comprising the Centre Hall United Evangelica!

Park Thursday of last week. Esch of the five schools located at Lemont,

Linden Hall, Tussayville, Egg Hill

A real picnic spirit was entered into throughout the entire day. At noon

ing and ate substantials and dainties prepared for the occasion.

termined by the officers.

Milroy.

Tyrone.

Mary E. Krumbine of Vintondate, were married today (Thursday), as Woods, near Boalsburg. per announcements sent out by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Krumbine. The couple will see New uncle, George Wesver. York City and Savannah, Georgia, on their wedding trip, the bride having sisters in both cities. Mr. Wego is a good money earner. He is a miner, and aunt. and also conducts a moving picture

Rev. Reilly Married.

Rev. James McKendree Reilly, pastor of the Methodist church at Kansas, the State that is now suffer. State College, and Miss Eleanor Wifing from drought, is represented in man, daughter of Rev. and Mre. E. H. Penns Valley by Simon Spangler, Witman of Danville, were married at now living retired in Newton. Mr. the bride's home Thursday evening of Spangler was a former resident of last week. The ceremony was per-Haines township, and went west formed by the father of the bride, and Rebersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Kemp many years ago. He visited about her uncle, Frank Witman, gave her and daughter, autoed from Lock

Spring Mills Locture Course,

The dates on which the five attractions of the Spring Mills lecture course will appear are these: October 3. November 29, December 11, January 15, and February 12.

Deaths of Centre Countians.

Mrs. Rebecca Louese Shorter, in Bellefonte, aged sixty-two years. Patrick Close, a native of Nova William H. Shultz, at Milesburg, Park during picnic week. aged seventy-three years. He was a member of Company H. Twelfth Illinois, is paying her parents, Mr. and Regiment.

Linden Hall The supervisors are making a new

The Marshall family held a reunion on Sunday. at the D. M. Campbell homestead

Dr. and Mrs. James Smith of Albutchers and farmers. The tell toons were Sunday visitors at the J. M. Ross home.

Robert McClellan and family attended the Baileyville picnic on Saturday.

Mrs. Porter and daughter Jessie of Altoons spent last week at the J. M. Ross home.

J. H. Weibly, who was hurt by a failing railroad tie some time ago, is able to resume his work on the railroad.

Mr. J. L. Tressler and daughter, and Mrs. Will McClintic, attended the Ripka reunion held at the old Ripka phans' School, 1864-1889, will be held homestead in Georges Valley.

Andrew Zettle has been confined to Monday.

Walter Orwig and Harvey Reinchspellin'." bach of Altoona, spent Sunday here.

place to Sally fur?

and queried:

like it."

"You doan', ch? Has you got seben Mrs. Roland Sunday was a Sunday hundred dollahs to pay cash down fur guest of her parents, Mr. and Mis. dis place?" "No, sah.

Miss Mary Guisewite of Feidler is "Den you pass on an' shet up! Maybeing entertained at the home of her be I doan' spell just de same as you do, but I's got prospecks of handlin seben hundred dollahs, while you got Miss E'enora Whitmore of Salem. boaf knees out to de weddah. Go 'long. Snyder county, was a guest of Mr.

ole man; yo' too fly on jogerfy." and Mrs. W. H. Philips, and uncle Weather Reduced to Prose. Mr. and Mrs. John Detweiler and The weather was once a picturesque son of Centre Hall, spent Saturday at and poetic thing. It came up in the the James Boush and Warren Winklenight with a boom and a bang through the trees. It was a sort of mystic king that asked no questions, but just Last Thursday Rev. Geesey had a swung a scepter. It was grand i wedding at the home of A. S. Stover. "red sky at night, the sailor's deligh Esq. The contracting parties were, red sky in the morning, sailors take Perry McKinney and Mrs. Carrie warning." it was a wholesome les-Harter. They will make their bome son to proud man that he aiways had a master, and it made us more rev-Mrs. Emma Brungard and accomerent toward nature and the Creator. plished daughters, Mable and Celia, of There was such a difference in receiving our weather direct from heaven and receiving it by wire direct from Washington .- New York Mail. Haven to the home of Mrs. R. Emma Hess, where they were welcome Sounded Funny. An individual of considerable importance, by name Tootle, once attended a reception, accompanied by his wife Mrs. Margaret Donachy spent a few The announcement was made, "Mr Tootle!" Mrs. Jacob Lee, who was quite ill "And Mrs. Tootle," was suggested take by parcel post?"

Weighing the Baby.

"It weighs fourteen pounds," announc-

Definition of Drunkenness.

"I go on drinking till I think I'm drunk, Then I drink more till I believe I am sober. Then I am sure

Very Often the Case.

"All the average man wants is fair

"Yes, but the trouble is he also wants to act as umpire." added the simple

Good Excuse.

Housekeeper-Why do you charge so Iceman-Well, man, the water was

That action is best which procuresthe greatest happiness for the greatest high where we cut it .- Boston Tranthat I am drunk."-London Mail.

play," remarked the wise guy.

mug.-Philadelphia Record.

much for your lee?

last week, is recovering. sotto voce in corrective tones "And Mrs. Tootle, too," res John Myers and family spent Sun like the blast of a horn through the room, to the evident amusement of Eugene Gramley accompanied Rev. the large assembly .- London Answers

J. Max Laniz and sons to Curwensville "How many stamps will this baby

Quite a number of people are making arrangements to camp on Grange Mrs. Bianche Mulfinger of Chicsgo, Spring Millis.

Mrs C. C. Bartges, a visit.

bis mother, brother Bruce and sister Mrs. J. W. Keller visited friends in Orphs, sutoed to Williamsport one day last week.

> Mr. and Mrs. Berjamin Hackenberg attended Sugar Valley campmeeting

R-porter Register Mrs. P. E. Murray, Chicago, Ill. Mrs. A. C. Risley, New Bloomfield Anna C. Snyder, Williamsport Mrs. W. W. Dunkleberger, Williamsport Thomas Hynes, Boalsburg Mrs. and Miss Sallie Derck, Trevorton John Erhart, Aurora, Illnois C. D. Moore, State College

The sixth annual reunion of the Society of the MaAllisterville Soldiers' O .- script. at Burnham Park, near Lewistown, on Thursday, August 28th, when a literary and musical progam will be on account of sickness since rendered, in addition to the usual social features of reunions.

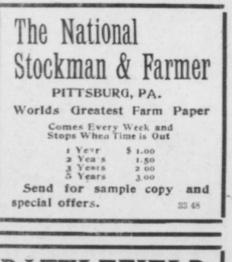

Gibbs-I never argue with my wife, Dibbs-Same here, I always plead guilty and take a light sentence. Boston Transcript.

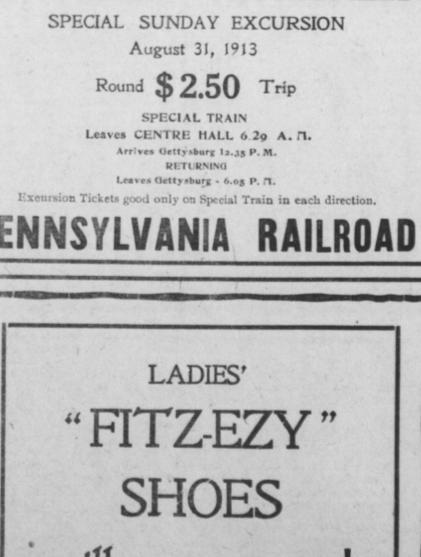

Untimely Jesting.

"Motoring is all well enough." said Jorrocks as Brinley's car sank into the mud up above the hubs, "but there is such a thing as running it into the ground."

"Don't waste your wit out here in the cold, Jorrocks," reforted Brinley. "Go hire a haul. We need it."-Harper's Weekly.

GETTYSBURG

BA'I'I will cure corns!

SOLD ONLY AT YEAGER'S SHOE STORE

PELLEFONTE

Centre Reporter, $1.00 a year.

numbers .- Francis Hutcheson.

ed the clerk. "The number of stamps required depends on where you want it to go.' "I don't want it to go anywhere. Windom Gramley accompanied by thank you. I just wanted to ascertain its weight."- Kausas City Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gramley and The following definition of being drunk has been given by a laborer in a Melbourne police court, writes our Sydney correspondent:

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shook are spending two weeks in Williamsport and New York state. Mr. Shook is employed at the Continental Condensary Plant, and is taking his vacation.