

DEATHS.

Word was received here on Monday evening announcing the death of Milton Snyder at his home in Greensburg, his death having occurred at a little after six o'clock on that day after an illness of about three weeks, with typhoid fever. The funeral services will be held at his late home this (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Bromer, pastor of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member. The remains will be shipped to Centre Hall Friday morning, and interment will be made here from the afternoon train east. Rev. R. R. Jones will be the minister in charge.

Mr. Snyder was a native of Centre Hall, and was born here September 3rd, 1869, making his age a few days over forty-four years. He was a son of Mrs. Mary Snyder. He lived in Greensburg about ten years, following the carpenter trade. There survive him a wife, nee Miss Durst, daughter of Philip Durst, and three daughters: Miss Bertha, Romie, and Isabel. The mother also survives as do these brothers and sisters: David, Oak Hall; Samuel and James, Freeport, Illinois; Mrs. Earl Lutz, Centre Hall; and Mrs. Harry Davidson, Milroy.

One of the oldest residents of Centre county passed away when George Armstrong Jacobs died at his home in Howard on Monday evening. His exact age is not known, but those who have known him for more than sixty years, are certain that he is at least ninety-two years of age. Death was due to his great age. Interment will be made at Boalsburg this (Thursday) forenoon, Rev. J. I. Stonecypher to officiate.

After his marriage to Miss Anna Fox, now deceased, the couple began housekeeping at Huntington where they lived for many years. His second wife, who survives, before marriage was Mrs. McAlvane. There survive by the first wife these children: Mrs. Ella Resides, Bellefonte; Mrs. Wesley covers, Altoona; Luther, Lena, Illinois; John, Boalsburg. The deceased children are Mrs. Mary Reel, who died in Boalsburg, and Dr. W. A. Jacobs, who died in Centre Hall.

Miss Marcella Stover, daughter of Charles and Sadie Elizabeth Lutz Stover, died at the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday of last week of heart failure, following a protracted illness with tuberculosis. She was born on September 29th, 1899, hence was thirteen years, eleven months and one day old. Interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

Beatrice, aged seven years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stover of near Wolf's Store died on Tuesday evening of diabetes after a week's illness. No time had been set for the funeral at the writing of this notice.

LOCALS.

Bricker—Grange Park. Centre Hall will have a population of several thousand next week.

James Lingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle of near Centre Hall left week end to Philadelphia for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCool and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brugart on Sunday went to Hartleton and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Nese.

Misses Nina Slick, Laura Mitterling and Hazel Emery, on Sunday, drove to State College where they spent the day at the home of Mrs. Ida Shirk.

George C. Hosterman, formerly of Boalsburg, is now located in Luzerne county, and holds a position in the Industrial School for Boys at Kie-Lyn.

J. H. Lambert has moved from Centre Hall to State College, having vacated his home here on Monday. Ralph Dinges has leased the property, and will occupy it in a week or two.

Small pox broke out in eight or ten families in the Lewistown district. Dr. C. F. Hunt, a State medical inspector is on the grounds and will make an effort to eradicate the disease.

Mrs. Laura Lee and Miss Rebecca Derstine will go to State College to take charge of a fraternity house. Mrs. Kate Saunders and daughter Miss Elizabeth will also locate in the same place and conduct a fraternity.

Samuel F. Hosterman, son of John Hosterman of Penn Hall, was operated on for appendicitis at an Altoona hospital, the latter part of last week. Mr. Hosterman just attained his majority, and was in Altoona on his vacation, being a telegrapher on the Pennsylvanian at Elizabethtown. His condition Wednesday was reported to be rather serious.

H. H. Bricker, the grocery man, will be at his old stand on Grange Park during the Encampment and Fair, with a full line of groceries, candies, soft drinks, and the celebrated ice cream manufactured at State College. He will have a new building in which to do business, but it will be exactly on the old site. You are invited to call to see him.

MY PLEDGE

To the Democratic Electors of Centre County.

If chosen "State Committeeman" by a majority of the Democratic electors of Centre county, at the primary election to be held next Tuesday, September 16th, 1913, in that capacity I will always support the Democratic National, STATE and COUNTY organizations.

I would regard my selection as a direct commission from a majority of my party to support and uphold what is known as the Reorganization movement in the Democratic party of Pennsylvania.

Upon this pledge I solicit the influence and support of every Democratic voter in Centre County, who is in full accord with these principles.

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Immel spent Sunday in Union county.

Quite a number of people attended the fair at Bellefonte.

Moses Stover sold the hotel to Perry Krise of Potter's Mills.

Edward Decker will move to State College where he has found employment.

William Rossman of Willow Grove is paying his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rossman, a visit. Hon. William M. Allison went to Philadelphia on Tuesday to attend the Millers' Association which meets in that city this week.

Mrs. C. A. Krapf returned from a trip to Illinois and other points of interest, and is very much benefited and delighted with the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myers spent a few days at Boalsburg and brought Master John Andrew along home with them, after having spent the summer at that place.

John Hosterman was called to Altoona on Sunday, where his son Samuel is in the hospital for a serious operation. Mrs. Hosterman also went to see her son, on Monday.

The schools at Spring Mills and all over Gregg township opened on Monday with a fair attendance. The High School here is taught by W. R. Jones of Centre Hall; Grammar, William Hane; Intermediate, A. Duck; Primary, Gertrude Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houser and Mrs. Daniel Kennely started to attend bush meeting near Tusseyville last Sunday and when near the Red Mill the back seat of the spring wagon tilted, throwing Mrs. Houser and Mrs. Kennely out. The latter was pretty badly bruised, and it was necessary to call Dr. Braucht. Mrs. Houser was not injured at all.

Centre Mills.

The Foster farm owned by Harry Miller was sold to Adam Reish of Z'oon. He will occupy the farm next spring.

Mrs. John Kline spent on Saturday until Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Godshall, in Centre Hall.

Saturday night and Sunday heavy thunder showers passed over this section. Lightning did no other damage than strike a tree near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Breon recently returned from the far west where they spent a month. They tell of wonderful sights and experiences. On their return home they past through a large area of country that was literally burned up from the excessive heat and lack of moisture. Not a green blade of grass was to be seen, and corn was thoroughly dried. Farmers in that section sold their cattle because of lack of feed.

ALFALFA FOR HOGS.

Kansas Experiment Proves the Great Value of Alfalfa and Corn as a Balanced Ration—Hog Growers Note the Result of This Interesting Feeding Experiment.

This experiment was conducted at the Kansas Agricultural college:

The pigs shown in the accompanying chart were litter mates. The larger pig was fed on a ration of corn and alfalfa hay; the smaller on corn alone. Several litters of weaning pigs were equally divided into two lots. The pigs were carefully chosen as to weight and thriftiness, so that each lot represented a fair average of the total number of pigs used in the experiment.

The experiment was carried on for a period of eight months. At the end of this time the pigs fed on corn and alfalfa hay were in excellent condition.

tion for market and averaged 250 pounds, dressed, while the pigs fed on corn alone were thin and scrawny and averaged but 60 pounds each. In the latter case, one pig died of what the veterinarian declared to be starvation, notwithstanding the fact that this lot of pigs had all the corn they could eat.

Must Have Protein.

The 60-pound pigs lacked protein, that element required in growing animals, to develop bone and muscle, blood, nerve and tissue—that which builds the frame—the very thing that the pigs do not get when fed upon corn alone.

Corn is deficient in protein and has an abundance of starch and sugar. Neither alfalfa nor corn when fed alone will give the best results, but a combination of the two make a perfectly balanced ration. A balanced ration is a combination of feeds containing elements necessary for the proper physical development of the animal. Protein, the most essential element in animal feed, builds the frame of the body while corn is essentially valuable for the production of fat.

The bones of the "corn-alfalfa" lot of pigs were double the size of the lot fed on corn alone and stood a breaking strain of 1,370 pounds as against 520 pounds for the lot fed on a single ration of corn.

HAY CAPS FOR ALFALFA.

Alfalfa should be raked and either put in the barn or if it is not sufficiently dry, put into hay cocks. It is a matter of economy to have two or three hundred hay caps (made of six-cent cloth one yard square) to use in case of bad weather. You may think this is a considerable bother, but poor alfalfa is poor stuff, and when we remember that good alfalfa brings us in actual results nearly as great returns as wheat bran, we can better realize the importance of taking care of it. If any of us had 500 "hay cocks of bran" in the field, we would take care of them, but with alfalfa we think of it as "just hay."

These cloths may have wooden pegs or some sort of weights attached to each corner to hold them in place; the pegs can be pushed into the hay to hold the corners fast. Hay caps will soon pay for themselves in finer quality of hay guaranteed by their use.

Miss Kathryn Keller of Ingram is visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Cora Brugart, in Centre Hall.

William Myers of Spring Mills is running the water wagon and Ray Stover of Aaronsburg the steam roller on the street in Centre Hall.

If you want a first class dish of ice cream, call on H. H. Bricker, the groceryman, on Grange Park during the Encampment and Fair.

George L. Horner will make sale of his personal property some time this fall and will move from his Nittany Mountain farm. Dates, etc., will appear later.

The street talk is that John D. Moore purchased one of the Gregg farms, but his son, T. L. Moore, says the rumor is untrue, or at least ahead of action. It was also reported that D. L. Barges had purchased the town property of James S. Reish, but this Mr. Barges also denies.

On his way from Centre Hall to his home at Jarrettsville, Maryland, William W. Reitz took seriously ill while in a restaurant in Baltimore. He became so reduced from a hemorrhage of the nose that it became necessary to take him to a sanitarium in an ambulance, and for several days he was unable to sit up in bed.

Gasoline Evaporates Rapidly.

One pint of gasoline left in an uncovered basin in a room at a normal or average temperature will entirely evaporate within twenty-four hours. As gasoline vapor is denser than the surrounding air, unless disturbed by active air currents, its presence in the room may be detected for many hours. One pint of gasoline will make 200 cubic feet of explosive mixture, and this mixture is seven times more powerful than gunpowder.—Popular Mechanics.
