

DEATHS.

Mrs. Esther Waltz died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Mallory, in Milton on Wednesday of last week and on Saturday interment was made. She was aged eighty-three years.

Mrs. Waltz was born at Farmers Mills, and her maiden name was Lohr. She was the last survivor of the family. She was twice married, her first husband having been Henry Fry of Potter township. There survive to this union two daughters, the one named above, and Mrs. Sue Kustaborder of New Orleans.

About a year ago while at the home of a niece Mrs. Joseph Lutz of Centre Hall, Mrs. Waltz had the misfortune to fall, and since that time had been confined to bed.

Beside the daughter at whose home the death occurred the only relatives at the funeral were Mrs. Joseph Lutz and Mrs. Samuel Homan, the latter of Williamsport.

After suffering for a period of several weeks from dropsy, Miss Lottie Harshbarger died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Harshbarger, in Georges Valley, Thursday of last week. She was aged thirty-eight years, ten months, and three days. Interment was made at Sprucetown on Monday forenoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. W. Pries.

There survive the deceased the mother, two sisters and five brothers, namely: Mrs. Calvin Coble, Oak Hall; Mrs. Milton Kline, Centre Hall; H. K. and James, Potters Mills; John, Linden Hall; David, Youngstown, Ohio; Elmer, at home.

Howard Fetterolf died at the home of his mother Wednesday afternoon of last week, aged thirty-six years, five days. He was the son of Mrs. Catharine Fetterolf and was born in Millin county. He was confined to bed but a few days. Interment was made Saturday morning, Rev. F. W. Barry officiating.

There survive the deceased his mother, and these brothers and sisters: William, James and Frank, Centre Hall; Mrs. Newton Emerick, Altoona; Mrs. Clarence Weaver, Penn. sylvania Furnace.

He was aged thirty-six years and five days.

As the result of a shock from an operation in the Bellefonte hospital for the removal of a tumorous growth and appendicitis, Mrs. William S. Tate of Pine Grove Mills died on Monday evening, the operation having been performed on Wednesday previous. She was aged almost sixty-two years.

Before marriage she was engaged as a school teacher and was very successful as such.

She is survived by her husband and a brother, A. G. Archev, Pine Grove Mills; and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Snyder, Pine Hall; Mrs. William Marks, Pine Grove Mills.

James Boal died at Boalsburg Tuesday morning, at 8:30 o'clock, of dropsy. He was a son of Judge George Boal, and lived all his lifetime in Harris and College townships. He was aged seventy years. He was the last of the Boal family.

Mr. Boal was a mute, and for a number of years was cared for by his nephew, Theodore Davis Boal, and was given all the comforts one could desire.

Interment was made Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. W. H. and Mrs. Fry of Pine Grove Mills are mourning the loss of two grandchildren, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. William Goss of Tyrone. The children died of membranous croup, the girl Mildred Elsie aged five years, on Sunday evening, and the boy, Samuel Frederick, aged six months, on Monday evening.

Kapli Sentenced. Kapli, the thug who robbed John H. Roush in Millheim Narrows and was found guilty by a jury, was called before the court on Saturday forenoon for sentence. The penalty was two and one-half years in the penitentiary. The sentence might seem light for so grave an offense, but the court gave the Poland the extreme sentence possible under the law. The offense, so far as the court knew, was the first committed by Kapli, and the law provides that on the first conviction the penalty cannot be over the term given in this case.

Sheriff A. B. Lee took the prisoner to the pen at Pittsburg on Monday.

Peter Hockman Badly Injured.

Peter Hockman of Hublersburg while picking apples, last Saturday, fell from a tree and was seriously injured. It is feared his spine is injured to such an extent that he cannot recover. He fell a distance of between fifteen and twenty feet, and the fall was due to a limb breaking. Mr. Hockman is the father of Mrs. B. Gardner Grove, Mrs. Witmer Grove, and Mrs. William Moyer, Spring Mills.

Marriage Licenses. Geo. F. Smith, Howard. Anna L. Kane, Howard. John Z. Bowers, Phillipsburg. Anna May Black, Phillipsburg. Alexander Berry, Cleveland, O. Edna Mason, Troy.

LOCALS. Officials of the state game commission believe that close to 150,000 hunters will be licensed by the time the first of November rolls around and deer hunters commence to prepare for sport.

If Winter and Spring spraying would be more generally done by the apple orchard owners, in this section, the value of the apple crop would be very much increased. One spraying in several local orchards has shown wonderful benefits.

Considerable indignation has been created in State College by the sending of anonymous letters of a scurrilous nature to persons connected with State College and to the college authorities. Some of the most objectionable letters have been submitted to the United States postal authorities and interesting developments are expected.
