TROOPS RUSHED TO EAGLE PASS

They Will Protect the International Bridge.

AN AMERICAN EXODUS.

Mexican Federals Closing In On Sabinars—The Seceding Northern Mexican States Form the Confederate States.

San Antonio, Tex.—Two squadrons of the Third Cavalry and Battery C of the Third Field Artillery were rushed in three special trains to Eagle Pass.

Washington.—Brigadier General Bliss, commanding the forces patrolling the Texas border, saw fit to increase the guard at Eagle Pass, to prevent the possible destruction of the international bridges there by Carranzistas. It has been said that the Carranzistas were about ready to leave Ciudad Porfirio Diaz across the Rio Grande from Eagle Pass, and it was feared that being desperate, and having nothing to lose by such an act, they might attempt to destroy the bridges before their departure.

As General Bliss has entire control over the border situation he ordered these additional troops without consulting the War Department here.

Elkins, W. Va.—At least seven people were injured, one fatally and one seriously, when an aeroplane driven by Irving Conley bore down upon them in a big crowd which lined the fence at the Elkins fair grounds. The machine came down from a distance of 50 feet, landing squarely on the fence with terrific force. The aviator was thrown headlong into the crowd.

COMMERCIAL

Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

Bradstreet's says: "Distributing trade has held the centre of the stage this week, and in this line dry goods, clothing and wearing apparel generally have been most active, both at wholesale and retail. Trade tendencies in general, however, are on the advance, and though there are enough exceptions to prevent uniformly, business affairs show further improvement."

"This manifestation may very properly be correlated to the fact that stocks everywhere are light, that rains in the Southwest have superinduced a better feeling there, that colder weather over a wide area in the foreground of the week furnished a reminder that heavy goods were needed besides affording a stimulus to retail trade, and that the crop movement has enlarged with farm produce prices especially remunerative, this latter feature being reflected in somewhat improved collections."

"Most reports indicate that trade is better than it was at this time last year. Moreover, money appears to be a little easier.

"Business failures for the week were 287, which compares with 259 last year."
