LOCALS

Veterinary Surgeon George Kaup of Boalsburg was a caller at this office last week. Dr. Kaup is on the road much of the time and on his trips covers a large portion of the country.

Persons who are acquainted with the farm state that former Prethony Arthur Kimpfort owns a very fine home in Chester county, and that the purchase was made at a bargain.

The good roads meeting in Bellefonte was attended by L. L. Smith, C. E. Flink, W. C. Bozser, Equine Carson, James Moyer, C. F. Thomas, and several others from the south side.

The last week of October will witness a convention of three thousand Methodist men in the city of Indianapolis. One purpose of this meeting is to refute the silly slander that men are not church goers. It promises to be a memorable convention.

William Bradford, tenant on the Col. Taylor farm which was recently sold to Mr. Hoy, will make sale of his large stock of horses and cattle some time next spring. In the meantime he is keeping an eye on several Chester county farms, and if his present plans carry out, he will locate in that county and continue farming.

Prof. and Mrs. P. H. Meyer, last week, returned from a ten days' trip through Dauphin, Lebanon, Lancaster and York counties, making the trip in their Ford runabout. Two days were spent at the York fair, and some time was also spent with relatives in Campbeltown, Palmyra and Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hettlinger of Altoona were in Centre Hall last week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fye. They came to Penna Valley to see Mrs. Hettlinger's mother, Mrs. Bron, who is in very delicate health at the home of another daughter, Mrs. H. B. Frankenberger, east of Centre Hall.

Some of the local baseball fans at Millheim barqueted Paul Musser, the baseball pitcher, a native of that town. The spread was laid at the National hotel, and the plates were claimed by R. S. Stover, Dr. John Harckenbergh, John F. and Grover Musser, W. E. Keen, S. Ward Granley, H. F. McManaway, Guy Springer and Simon Springer and, of course, Mr. Musser.

Hon. Jerome T. Allman of Perry county, who is well known in Centre county among the members of the order of Patrons of Husbandry, is in a very feeble condition, suffering from a diseased bone in one of his lower limbs. Within the last year Mr. Allman fell and broke one of his legs near the hip, and from that time the disease began its work. Amputation is supposed to be the only remedy, but Mr. Allman is not able to undergo such an operation.

Coal—Weber.

Vote for but One.

The non-partizan ballot for the November election will contain the names of four candidates, two of whom will be elected. The voter is privileged to vote but for one candidate on this ballot.

A Young Hunter Killed.

Roy Gardner, aged twenty, a plumber of Huntingdon, while hunting, was shot and killed some time on Thursday of last week by an unknown hunter. His body was found with the side of his face torn away, the wound evidently made by a gun at close range.

Hunter Accidentally Shoots Son.

John Gallagher, Jr., aged fifteen years, of New Washington, is in the Clearfield hospital suffering from wounds in his face and arms, the result of a gunning accident while out hunting on Wednesday of last week with his father. The boy was sitting on a stump resting when a pheasant flew up. His father shot at the bird, which swooped toward the ground. A second shot was fired and to the horror of the father the leaden bullets struck the boy in the arms and face as he tried to avoid the shot. He lost the sight of one of his eyes.

Misrepresenting a Act.

The question of the $50,000,000 loan for roads is a question of how the funds for road purposes shall be raised. The question whether or not the state should relieve local communities of the expense of road building is not involved. The state has taken over these roads, and must build them. The only question for the people to decide is whether the funds shall be raised by bonding the state or whether a more economic and business like method—pay as you go—should be adopted.

Some of the advocates of the bonding method in Centre county are grossly misrepresenting the question at issue. They are doing so for a purpose.

Sunday to be at Johnstown.

Rev. William Sunday the ex-baseball player and noted evangelist, on Sunday, November 2nd, will begin a six weeks' evangelistic campaign in Johnstown. A large tabernacle is being built in which to hold the services, and fifty churches have formed the Conemaugh Valley Evangelistic Association in order to boost the meetings. They have applied for an act of incorporation, and are selling stock at $1.00 per share, and at the first meeting of the association's committee forty-seven churches reported that $12,292 worth of stock had been subscribed to defray the expenses of the campaign. Cottage prayer meetings are being held all over the city.

The Primary Ballot Law.

The Reporter has been asked to give the law under the late party enrollment act, as to whether or not a voter can receive or vote a ballot other than the one under the party he is enrolled. The law is very specific on this point, and forbids the election board, under a heavy penalty, to give the voter any ballot other than the one he is enrolled under. The law further says:

"No voter enrolled as a member of any one particular party shall be allowed to receive or vote the ballot of any other political party at a primary election; any voter wilfully voting or attempting to vote in violation of this provision is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to imprisonment for one year and a fine of a thousand dollars."

The writer has not looked into this matter, but there is common talk that this feature of the primary law has been violated. If there really have been violations, an investigation should be made.

LOCALS.

George E. Furey and family of Martinville, Illinois, have moved to the Furey home near Bellefonte.

Miss Elizabeth Saunders came down from State College to see her chums in Centre Hall, remaining here for several days.

Friday, November 7th, will be Pennsylvania Day at State College. Governor Tener and a number of senators and representatives will be at the institution and inspect it on that day.

Lee Brooks will move from his father's farm, along Nittany Mountain, near Linden Hall, to the Woods farm at Penna Cave Station, east of Old Fort. The latter farm is now tenanted by Edward Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Rishel will complete their visit among friends in Penna Valley this week, and on Saturday they will return to their home in Hope, Arkansas. They refer to their visit as a decidedly pleasant one, and regret that it is so nearly ended.

DEATHS.

Adam Krumrine, one of Potter township's well known citizens, passed away at his home at Tusseyville on Tuesday after an illness extending over a period of several weeks. Interment will be made at Tusseyville, and the services will be conducted by Rev. R. B. Jones and Rev. F. W. Barry on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Krumrine was the son of Frederick Krumrine, the last survivor of the family, and was born in Penn township. He was married in 1854 to Miss Sarah Jane Weaver, and the couple began housekeeping at Penn Hall. He was a farmer by occupation, and lived in various sections, but the greater part of his active life was spent in Potter township, in the vicinity of Tusseyville. He was a kind hearted, liberal minded man, a Democrat in politics, and was elected to various local offices which were acceptably filled.

There survives him his wife, and two daughters; Mrs. Charles W. Swartz, Tusseyville, and Mrs. James R. Irwin, Bellefonte, R. D.

Mrs. Mary A. Breen died on Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry B. Frankenberger, east of Centre Hall, where she had been temporarily staying. The funeral services will be held from the Frankenberger home on Friday forenoon, and will be conducted by Rev. F. W. Barry. Interment at Spring Mills.

The deceased maiden name was Long, and she was the widow of the late John F. Breen, who died in Gregg township, where the family had lived for many years. There survive her seven children, namely: Robert T. Horschhead, N. Y.; Willis P., Mill Hall; John F., Altoona; Mrs. H. M. Hettlinger, Altoona; Mrs. H. B. Frankenberger, Centre Hall; Mrs. Oscar C. Homan, Spring Mills; Mrs. G. E. Fye, Centre Hall.

There survive her also these brothers and sisters: John D. Long, Spring Mills; Jonathan Long, in the West; Mrs. Lizzie Greeninger, Mill Hall; Mrs. Polly Baker, Hope, Kansas.

Mrs. Breen was a member of the Lutheran church for many years, and was faithful as such. Her age was seventy-three years.

Mrs. Mina McClintic Crouse, wife of Halloway Crouse, died on Sunday night at her home in Aaronsburg, aged forty-three years. Interment will be made this (Thursday) forenoon.

Mrs. Crouse's death was very sudden and was due to congestion of the lungs. She and her husband and a brother from Lock Haven retired Sunday evening about eleven o'clock, at which time Mrs. Crouse seemed to be in her usual health. A half hour later she became ill, and within an hour death came.

The deceased is survived by her husband, and two children—Ruth and Harry, both at home, also her aged mother who is living in Lock Haven, and two sisters and four brothers.

Mrs. S. Martha Teede, mother of Mrs. Samuel Moore, died at the latter's home in Westmont, New Jersey, on Sunday. When Mrs. Moore lived in Centre Hall, her mother visited her, and she will be recalled by those who were acquainted with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivin Musser of Aaronsburg are mourning the death of their four-month-old child. Interment will be made today (Thursday) at Aaronsburg.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winkleblech of Aaronsburg died on Tuesday.

Suicide of Business Man.

David Hoban Furst, forty-two years old, a business man from Lock Haven, committed suicide at Philadelphia on Sunday by jumping from the fifth floor of a hospital, where he was being treated for nervous trouble. A male nurse who was his constant companion awoke just in time to see the patient leaping from the window. His body was found in the areaway, seventy-five feet below.
