

LOCAL.

The trouble with grass widows is that they are never as green as they sound.

There will be a special meeting of the Y. P. B. in their hall in the Reporter block this (Thursday) evening.

Miss Mollie Hoffer is quite ill, and has been confined to bed for a week or more. She and her sister, Mrs. Catharine Dale, live together in Centre Hall.

Rev. R. R. Jones, pastor of the Reformed church, is attending the sessions of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church in the United States, at Sunbury. He will return home Friday. Dr. H. F. Bitner accompanied him as delegate.

N. Bigler Shaffer of near Spring Bank, was in town on Tuesday, and called at this office. He stated that his father, the venerable Michael Shaffer, is able to take extended walks on some days, but on others he is obliged to remain in the house.

The State board of health appointed these medical inspectors for fourth class school districts on the south side of Centre county: Dr. J. V. Foster, Centre Hall, for Potter and Harris townships; Dr. J. A. Hardenberg for Millheim borough; Dr. S. G. Coons, Stormstown, for Patton township, State College borough and College township.

Mrs. Jane B. Heilman, wife of Rev. Dr. Philip A. Heilman, a former pastor of St. John's English Lutheran church, of Lock Haven, died in an ambulance on the way from the Baltimore Union station to her home in that city, from nervous prostration and bronchitis. Dr. Heilman is now pastor of the St. Paul's English Lutheran church in the latter city.

A deer with a broken fore leg was captured in the Stone Creek district, in the Seven Mountains, and taken to Lewistown in an auto, with the hope that a veterinary surgeon might save its life. The animal was so thoroughly exhausted that it permitted itself to be stroked and petted, but it was so reduced from starvation and pain that it died shortly after reaching the surgeons quarters.

In Millin county, up at McVeytown, a stock grower keeps a lantern lighted in his hog pen so that each of a litter of eighteen pigs can get its own nipple without disturbing the other pigs in the pen. At Centre Hall, or just outside of it, "Mike" Condo keeps a phonograph running in his hen house with the hope that the hens will sing a new lay when the 40 cent eggs are laid.

The latter part of last week, Mrs. Catharine Dale had the misfortune to fall down a stairway in her home in Centre Hall. She was not seriously injured, but the results might have been so, for she was carrying a lighted lamp and flames from it set fire to the carpet. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Mitterling, who occupy a portion of the house, went to the rescue, outened the fire, and aided Mrs. Dale in setting things in proper order.

Nittany Valley farmers are beginning to appreciate that the farms about Centre Hall are productive and capable of building up bank accounts. The last farmer to take advantage of the favorable conditions here is Michael Delaney, who will succeed his brother, Thomas Delaney, as tenant on the Baird farm, south of town. Other Nittany Valley farmers to locate here either as owners or tenants, during the past few years are W. H. Baird, Thomas and John Delaney, Charles T. Crust, W. E. Tate, G. W. Rolston.

State College Trustees.

Governor Tener has announced the appointments of Milton W. Lowry, Soranton, and Thomas W. Barlow, Philadelphia, as trustees of State College.

Reformed Synod.

The 167th annual session of East Pennsylvania Synod of the Reformed church is in session at Shamokin, the first session having been held on Tuesday. There are one hundred and eighty pastors in attendance.

Officers to serve until next synod meets were elected as follows: The Rev. Dr. C. B. Schneider, pastor of St. John's church, Shamokin, president; the Rev. George H. Miller, pastor of the first church, Nesquehoning, corresponding secretary; the Rev. George W. Spotts, first church, Tremont, clerk; R. Monroe Hoffman, Reading, treasurer. The new officers were installed by the Rev. Dr. S. R. Breidenbaugh, Oak Lane, the retiring president.

Altar services for the newly elected officers and a holy communion service were held by the Rev. Dr. C. B. Schneider, Shamokin; the Rev. W. Stuart Cremer, of the first church, Lancaster, and the Rev. S. E. Stoffel, of Emanuel church, Hazleton.

REBERSBURG

Some of the farmers about here have finished husking corn, while others have whole fields to husk. The crop is a medium one.

Mrs. (Rev.) Burkley of Reading is at present visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Cyrus Krider of Salona and daughter, Nina, of Jersey Shore were visitors in town for several days the past week.

Miss Lavon Ferree came up from the Lock Haven Normal to spend Sunday at the home of her parents.

LOCALS.

Clyde Stover moved from Millheim into the Colyer house. He is the engineer at the Weber flaring Mills.

It is easier to give the stamp of approval than to stamp a thing out.

The coal bins are being filled, and it's a real shame to do it on these beautiful fall days.

Small game appears to be scarce hereabouts. No reports of success have found their way to this office. The trespass notices no doubt are partially responsible for this condition.

W. S. Maillette, manager of the Bell telephone exchange of the Bellefonte district, and Mr. Kelly, of Williamsport, a service inspector, were in Centre Hall on Wednesday and favored this office with their presence. Both are very much devoted to the Bell company, and are giving their best efforts to make the Bell telephone indispensable in the business place and home.

Harris Township.

The Civic Club of Boalsburg promise an evening of fun at their masquerade Halloween party in Boal Hall. They expect some very notable people to be present, Enoch and Maria Pickleweight and family have promised to come, and many other equally good characters will be there. The ladies will serve Halloween refreshments. The doors will be open at eight and the grand march and introduction of characters will take place at half past eight. Admissions will be fifteen and twenty-five cents.

Owing to the inclement weather on Saturday the good roads jollification was held in the Boal Hall instead of the meadow as had been announced. The tables were laden with good things. No "empty dinner pails" were in sight. Guests from Bellefonte, Lemont, State College, Centre Hall and Linden Hall were present, numbering in all about one hundred and sixty. The addresses by the different speakers and music by the Boalsburg band were highly appreciated.

OUR NEW FALL CLOTHES

Exceed Our Highest Expectations

When we selected our Fall Suits and Overcoats we expected they were going to be finer than any we had ever before shown, but when we unpacked and examined them we were amazed at the perfect tailoring, handsome patterns, and high qualities in every instance.

YOU ARE GOING TO GET BETTER CLOTHES FOR YOUR MONEY THIS SEASON THAN EVER BEFORE, IF YOU BUY HERE

Our line affords you a choice that does not compel you to confine your selection to only a few styles and patterns. It is a comprehensive outlay embodying scores of the season's most desirable patterns in fancy cassimeres and worsteds in addition to the plain black and blues.

Men of today recognize the fact that perfect fitting clothing, hand-tailored throughout and ready-to-wear, can be purchased at one-third less than the local tailor's prices.

Every one of our garments is cut in the correct fashion, tailored by hand, and the equal of the higher priced custom-made garments in every way.

QUALITY PEOPLE LIKE our QUALITY CLOTHES

We are sticklers for Quality and guarantee our clothes to retain their shape and give absolute satisfaction.

It is interesting to note the extremely reasonable prices we charge for these high class clothes. Come and See.

We just received another large shipment of Ladies' and Misses' Coats and Furs. This lot is one of the finest assortments of Ladies' Garments that ever reached Millheim.

You will find the style you want at the price you want to pay here.
