Mr. and Mrs. William L. Musser of Altoona are sending out messages announcing the birth of a daughter, on Saturday morning. The mother and babe are at the Mercy hospital, and papa Musser is looking after the business affairs as usual, when not imparting the gloriously good news to his friends.

Michael Shaffer of near Rebersburg was in town on Friday. He is past ninety years of age, and in August suffered several severe hemorrhages of the nose that reduced him very much, but, now as for a number of years back, he is remarkably spry for one of his age. He keeps interested in the present day happenings and in touch with the political world.

The show that was in town last week closed Saturday evening with an enthusiastic audience that was especially interested in the prizes awarded according to votes cast by patrons. The recipients of these prizes were Miss Mary Whitman, a silver set; Miss Ida Sweetwood, a ring, and Bruce Knarr, the baby ring. Of course, the fortunate ones are grateful for the assistance rendered by their friends to win.
