The Thank offering services rendered by the missionary workers in the Lutheran church at Tusseyville, on Saturday evening, were largely attended. The former enthusiastic missionary spirit is being maintained by this congregation, and their liberal giving is not decreasing. The music, recitations and exercises were all a credit to those who had a part in them, as was also the address by the pastor. The contributions on this occasion amounted to almost $80, indicating that the purse strings are touched by the enthusiasm of the mission workers throughout the year.
