FORESTER'S VERSION OF HUNTING.

Thirteen Bucks Killed in Forester Ludwig's Ballwick—Wild Oats Enemy of Deer in Bear Meadows.

Deer in the Bear Meadows Division of the State Forest Reserves seemed to be rather plentiful and of very good size. As near as we can judge about fifteen deer were killed; these were divided among the various camps as follows:

Miller party in Shingletown Gap.	3
Altoona party in Shingletown Gap.	1
Riley party in Bear Meadows.	2
Raymond party in Bear Meadows.	1
Coatsville party in Bear Meadows.	1
Reitz party in Reitz Gap.	4
State College party in Laurel Run.	1
Party from "The Loop."	1
Unknown party.	1

A singular fact in this connection is that most of the deer killed were two and three prong bucks and were large and heavy in body. And further, most of them were found near the open valleys and cultivated lands; within a radius of five miles around Reitz Gap no less than nine bucks were killed. In previous years, the "Bear Meadows" proper seemed to contain the most deer, but these have evidently migrated and are now staying nearer the valleys. This is undoubtedly due to the large number of wildcats which infest the "Bear Meadows," thus driving out the deer. Steps will be taken to exterminate these pests and afford protection to the deer.

WALTER D. LUDWIG, Forester.

[Next week reports from Forester Meek, at Colburn, and Forester Montgomery, at Pottery Mills, will be given.—ED.]

Sweetwoods Get Second Deer.
The Sweetwood hunting party were located on the "Summit" in Poe Valley, and killed two deer. The first was killed by B. F. Kennelly and the second by D. W. Sweetwood.

The "Regulars" Get Four.
The "Regulars" hunting party of Pottery Mills, who camped near Pat Garity's, and consisting of the following: J. S. Reish, T. G. Decker, M. E. Coyle, J. L. Faust, Harry Wilkinson, Lloyd Smith, J. S. Auman, J. G. Bole, W. C. Gramley, S. W. Gramley, Frank McCoy, Lawrence Meeker, and Warren Slack, broke camp last Friday. Their record is a repetition of last years success, four deer, shot by Harry Wilkinson, J. L. Faust, Frank McCoy, and S. W. Gramley, one of the deer was a five prong buck weighing over 200 pounds. The party owes its success largely to the skillful guidance of several of its older members and especially may this be said of T. G. Decker and J. S. Auman. The latter, who is known about Pottery Mills as "Jake" is one of the most skilled hunters in that vicinity, and has shot during his hunting career more than fifty deer. A remarkable feature of this year's record is that the four deer were shot by the firing of only five shots.

LOCALS

Centre County Pomona Grange will meet at Centre Hall, Tuesday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson and son, John Lawrence, spent Sunday in Centre Hall at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Harry Dodson.

Stones are being hauled for the foundation walls of an ice house to be erected in connection with the proposed co-operative creamery.

Reporter Register.
Mrs. B. F. Bieber, and daughter Frances, West Milton.
John B. Reish, Bellefonte.
Mr. and Mrs. Jeff M. Heckman and Gladys Zerby, Spring Mills.
Korman Spicher, Philadelphia.
W. N. Igen, Centre Hall.
Trood D. Parker, Clearfield.
Geo. E. Meyer, Boalsburg.
Harry Mosser, William Musser, Penns Cave.
W. E. Reitz, Sunbury.

Fine Crop of Wheat.
One of the best crops of wheat, and probably the largest in number of bushels, in this locality was grown by John Delaney, tenant on the Albert Spayd farm, at Earlstown. The total yield was eleven hundred and sixty-two bushels, from forty-two acres, or an average of almost twenty-eight bushels per acre, machine measure. The field at harvest time was a beautiful sight, and mention of the methodical manner in which it was reaped was made in these columns at that time.

Rededication of Church.
St. John's Lutheran church, at Millheim, which has undergone extensive repairs, and has been re-furnished, will be rededicated with appropriate services on Sunday, 30th inst., at 10 a. m., and 7 p. m.

The Rev. Frederick L. Geesey, father of Rev. M. D. Geesey, pastor in charge, who is the pastor of the Mahlenberg charge, Spring Grove, York county, will preach at the morning services on the subject, "My duty to my Church."

The Rev. T. C. Billheimer, D. D., professor emeritus, Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, will have charge of the finances and preach the dedicatory sermon in the evening. Dr. Billheimer has traveled through Europe, Egypt, and the Holy Lands, and is full of life, wit and humor.

On Monday evening Dr. Billheimer will give an illustrated lecture on "The Story of Esther." Services will be continued throughout the week, with preparatory and confirmation services on Thursday evening, and communion on Friday evening.

LOCALS.

On Tuesday morning B. D. Briston went to Pittsburg to attend to business matters.

Christmas services will be held in the Lutheran church, Spring Mills, on Christmas eve.

Mrs. Newton Emerick and children are at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Fetterolf, in Centre Hall.

Dandelion blossoms were numerous on the lawns and in the fields, last week. They looked decidedly pretty, peeping through the light covering of snow on Monday morning.

Mrs. B. F. Bieber and little daughter Frances of West Milton visited among friends at Spring Mills, Tusseyville and Centre Hall, last week. While she was among friends, Rev. Bieber was having the time of his life with the Georges Valley hunting party in the Seven Mountains. The party was successful in killing a deer, but the honor falls to a local hunter.

Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Jones, and their daughter, Gladys left Wednesday morning for Harrisburg, where their son, Prof. William R. Jones, Spring Mills, and Miss Christine M. Shumaker, will be united in marriage, on Thanksgiving Day. The young couple will make their home at Spring Mills, where Mr. Jones is principal of the Gregg township High school.

Messrs. John Fretz and Allen Potter of Collegeville, near Philadelphia, are at the home of J. W. Mitterling, in Centre Hall. Mr. Fretz is proprietor of the Perkiomen Bridge Hotel where Mr. Mitterling holds his cattle sales, and Mr. Potter is a salesman of automobile tires. They came to the valley to hunt small game, having been so well pleased with their success last year.

Mrs. Mabel Morrison of Bellefonte, accompanied by her brother, Trood D. Parker of Clearfield, were in Centre Hall on Tuesday, and called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Harper. Mr. Parker found his way to this office for a short time, he having at one time been an all-around boy in a print shop. He is now doing clerical work for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and counts the Pennay company very good employers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff M. Heckman and grand-daughter Gladys Zerby of Spring Mills were callers at this office on Monday, having come to Centre Hall on business. The little girl, so far as she is concerned, has become a permanent fixture in the Heckman home, and has been there continuously since last April. The youngster must be credited with knowing what a good home is, and this without reflecting on her parents.

Korman Spicher of Philadelphia, who came up to old Centre to hunt with the Colyer hunters, was a caller on Tuesday morning at this office. Mr. Spicher is a mail carrier, and delivers over the Nicetown district. The Christmas rush of mail matter is not worrying him, as all packages over two pounds are delivered by automobiles by special carriers for that class of mail. Mr. Spicher returned home Tuesday afternoon, and will take enough venison with him to scent the air about his home.

Tusseyville

David Stoner spent Sunday with friends at Millheim.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Horner, near Linden Hall.

Domer Royer of Milroy is visiting at the home of David Stoner.
The reception given by the Y. P. B. of Tusseyville, on Friday evening, was well attended.

Sheriff A. B. Lee of Bellefonte spent several days last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Foster Frazier.
John Frazier, after spending a week at the home of his uncle, Foster Frazier, has again returned to Williamsport.
All you hear at present is "how many rabbits did you get?" but nevertheless the boys are doing right well.

Corn husking is over around here for this year, the season being closed by Hugh Runkle; the next thing on the program is butchering and big dinners.

Rev. W. A. McClellan of Rockwood, Somerset county, is visiting at the home of his aged mother at this place.
William Rickert, who has been employed at the David Stoner home, has gone to Mill Hall where he has secured employment for the winter.

The writer is sorry to say that Mrs. Sarah Horner, who has been ill for some time, is not improving.
Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl of Linden Hall spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fiersy.

Mrs. Phillip Bradford, daughter Grace and son Carl of Lemont visited at the home of George Lee last week.
Revival services are being held in the United Evangelical church by Rev. Foss; all are invited to attend.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Foster Frazier were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyer of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, and son Edgar, and Mrs. William Lee of Colyer; Howard Frazier of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. James Goodhart and children, also Jane Foust of Centre Hall; John Frazier, Williamsport; Sarah and Grace Horner, Tusseyville.
