

ALFALFA.

Horses neigh for it,
Mules bray for it,
Chickens call for it,
Cows bawl for it,
Pigs thrive on it,
Bees hive on it,
Turkeys gobble for it,
Ducks wabble for it,
They all eat it,
You can't beat it.

Deaths Throughout County.

John Krager of Romola, aged almost eighty-three years.
Garrett Shank in Baltimore, a former resident of Liberty township.
William E. Shope in Altoona, aged almost seventy-four years. He was a veteran of the civil war.
Harry Fike at his home at Roopsburg, aged fifty-two years.
Miss Ida May Houtz, aged sixteen years, at Benore.

LOCALS.

"There's a land that is fairer than this," but it isn't Mexico.
Miss Helen Williams was a guest at the Arney home for a few days.
Mrs. J. C. Harper of Bellefonte was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Emerick.

An unclaimed letter in the Centre Hall postoffice is directed to Miss Mildred Long.

Mrs. R. H. Reeves of Paulsboro, New Jersey, is at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, in Centre Hall.

Harry W. Harper will make sale of a large lot of household goods on Saturday afternoon, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. A. W. Dale of Boalsburg for several days was a guest of her brother, Prof. P. H. Meyer, in Centre Hall.

Read the Reporter advertisements. You will not get the fullest value of the newspaper unless the advertising columns are carefully read.

There is an if in LIFE and you want to see that it does not stand out too prominent in your social, educational, political or financial affairs.

Mrs. Milton Snyder came from Greensburg, the latter part of last week, and with her children will make her home with her father, Philip Durst, at least until spring.

The personal property of the late Roland B. Treaster will be sold by the administrator, John F. Treaster, Thursday, December 18th. See posters and sale register.

Miss Ferna Hoover of Altoona was in town for a day at the Thanksgiving season. She is at the Mercy hospital, where she has been for over a year, taking a course in nursing.

Miss Grace Smith and Mrs. W. F. Bradford, on Friday, went to Williamsport, and for a few days were entertained at the home of the former's brother, James Smith.

John F. Treaster publishes letters of administration, c. t. a., on the estate of his father, Roland B. Treaster, late of Potter township, deceased, in this issue of the Reporter.

The output of lime at the Whiterock quarries has been increased by the addition of several kilns. As soon as the road connecting the present works with their quarries east of Pleasant Gap is completed, the output will be further increased.

Miss Anna Stover, a nurse in the City Hospital, Altoona, for about two years, is at the home of her sister, Mrs. William McClenshan, in Centre Hall. She has a two weeks vacation and will divide the time between her friends and relatives in Penns Valley.

The weather interfered with the Thanksgiving supper in Grange Arcadia, or rather interfered with the usual good patronage. Those who did go to the hall, however, spent money liberally, and this made the treasurer's bag bulge to some extent.

Miss Sarah Neff and her room-mate, Miss Marcia Lovett of Phoenixville, were at the home of the former's parents, Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Neff, near Centre Hall. The young ladies are both members of the sophomore class at Penn State, and are making high averages in their classes.

S. E. Sharer, for several years tenant on the Geiss farm near Linden Hall, advertises his farm stock and implements for sale on March 16. Mr. Sharer will sell his entire outfit, having purchased an interest in the equipments on the D. K. Keller farm, east of Centre Hall, on which farm he will become the tenant in the spring.

Messrs. Wilfred L. Musser, J. J. Weaver, and E. W. Belthaser all of Altoona came to Bellefonte on Sunday morning over the Bald Eagle railroad and Centre Hall by auto, spending the day with the former's sister, Mrs. Ralph D. Dinges. The young men are all employed in the offices of the Pennsylvania railroad company in Altoona, and have been there for some years. Mr. Musser is a native of Gregg township, Mr. Weaver is a good representative of Ferguson township, and Mr. Belthaser is a typical Berks county man. They are a mighty fine combination, and young men whom the Penns can well afford to advance in their several lines of work.

DOES YOUR STOVE NEED REPAIRS?

It will not be long until the chilly blasts will make the stove the means of comfort. Is your stove ready to make fire in, or does it need repairs. See to it now, before the rush season will mean delay.
