Christmas advs. Read them.
Candies—every pound fresh, clean, wholesome—Kramer's.
The W. C. T. U. will meet in their hall on Saturday afternoon.
The court is hearing civil cases this week, and Saturday will be license court.

D. R. Sweetwood of Symerton, Illinois, is in the east and is visiting among friends and relatives here.

Mrs. W. H. Meyer, last week, was at York to attend the funeral of William Zearfos, who died in Philadelphia and was buried at York.

Alfred Crawford is teaching school near Bellefonte, the regular teacher being ill. This is his first experience, but there is little doubt but that he will meet with success.

R. R. Rickert, who for a number of years was employed by W. F. Rockey, the produce dealer, and who some months ago moved to Sewickly, Allegheny county, is now located at Mill Hall, where he is employed in the Milk condensing factory.

Wallace Horner shipped his household goods from Boalsburg to McKeesport, where he and Mrs. Horner will make their future home. Since last spring he had been employed by Elmer E. Houz, the Boalsburg butcher, and it is in the same business he will engage at McKeesport.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Arney this week went to Niagara Falls where they will remain until spring, with their son, A. Miles Arney. On their return home at that time they will move from the Arney homestead, acquired by Mr. Arney's father in 1895 to the home Perry W. Breen will vacate.

Edward Kerlin, who recently left Altoona to accept a place with a firm dealing in wall paper in Wheeling, West Virginia, was at the home of his brother, A. E. Kerlin, in Centre Hall, during the beginning of this week. He is seriously thinking of moving to Cumberland, Maryland, and engaging in business.

William H. Kuhn came up from Jersey Shore the beginning of last week, and until this week was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Smith. From here he went to Philadelphia where he will make his home with his youngest daughter, Mrs. L. Ray Morgan. It is almost two years since he was in Centre Hall.

The pastors of Centre Hall contemplate observing the week of Prayer by union services in the various churches. This week begins with Sunday, January 4th. A program is in preparation which it is hoped will be found even more interesting and profitable than that of last year which it will be remembered created unusual interest.

Mrs. Rebecca Flory, who has been unable to move about except with the use of an invalid chair during the past few years, spends her time in making various kinds of fancy articles and at this time is offering them for sale. Those who make purchases from her will be helping along one who is doing for herself all she possibly can.

The bazaar to be held by the ladies' aid society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. T. L. Moore will be open to the public on the afternoon and evening of Saturday. An attractive feature will be the presence of Martha Washington, who will be glad to welcome any and all who are desirous of inspecting the handwork offered for sale.

Mrs. John Carper at Linden Hall came nearly doing serious damage by accidentally dumping a number of dynamite caps into the stove together with a bit of rubbish. As it was the stove was blown to pieces, and particles of the flying fragments hit Mrs. Carper, but the wounds were not serious. Prompt action saved the house from destruction by fire.

"Backward, turn backward, oh Time in your flight; give us a girl whose skirts are not tight. Give us a girl whose charms, though a few, are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo. Give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the streets as a vau-deville stage. Give us a girl not too sharply in view. Dress her in skirts that the sun can't shine through."

Marriage Licenses.
William Laws, Rush Twp.
Mayzel Miller, Philipsburg
William W. Wolford, Johnstown
Elizabeth M. Vail, Philipsburg

Basket Sale.
The special Christmas sale of Bellefonte Baskets at China Hall, Bellefonte, Pa., commencing December 13th. All baskets will be sold at attractive prices. This is an opportunity to purchase your Christmas presents.

Death of a Little Girl.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitehill, at Houserville, was saddened when on Monday death took from it the third daughter, Esther, aged twelve years, who had been ill from typhoid fever and pleurisy for a period of five weeks. Interment will be made today at Boalsburg. Rev. Harnish to be the officiating minister. The little girl was very bright in her school work, and loved by all her acquaintances. There survives her parents, four sisters and two brothers.

D. Earl Fleming Recognized.
D. Earl Fleming, one of a number of young men who add credit to Centre Hall, has been justly recognized by the American Audit Company of New York City with which company he has been connected for a number of years, and has been made resident manager of a branch office of the company just established at Reading. This is one of fourteen offices established in various sections of the United States. Mr. Fleming is a young man of ability, and always at his post, although he did take enough time to himself last summer to go abroad on a six weeks' trip.

Guilty of Manslaughter.
John Moseroch was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury which heard his case last week. The jury was as follows: J. P. Shook, farmer; Miles; Charles Luz, farmer; Benner; Charles Batchler, agent; Rush; James Stahl, saddler, Centre Hall; H. A. Crain, manufacturer, Philipsburg; John Hook, laborer, Harris; W. F. Gosas, farmer, Taylor; David Slegie, carpenter, State College; Miles M. Hall, farmer, Union; Al. M. Rishel, Benner; David Welsh, Howard Borough; Jonathan Tressler, College.

It was at a wedding celebration that the defendant shot and killed Annie Duk, aged nine years, and wounded her brother, aged eight years. The affair occurred at Cato station.

Steininger-Smith.
From Harrisburg Patriot.
J. Albert Steininger, manager of the United cigar store at Reading, took a trip to the Capital City on December 1st and while here was quietly married at the Zion Lutheran church, by Rev. Herman, to Miss Florence Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of 129 Sylvan Terrace. The bride's former home was at Lamar, Clinton county. She was a graduate of the Porter Township High School, class of 1912. Mr. Steininger is a native of Lewisburg, also a graduate of Lewisburg business college. He has been associated with the United company for four years. They will reside at 23 South 11th Street in apartments.

From a Washington, D. C., Subscriber.
Dr. J. Franklin Meyer, associate physician, in the Bureau of Standards, Department of Commerce, in a personal letter to the editor, writes among other things this:

I have just returned from a two weeks trip through the southern states visiting the railroad and public service commissions in all the southern states except Florida. Naturally I had a very hurried trip, visiting ten state commissions at the state capitals, and a few other cities.

The south seems to me to be a country of wonderful possibilities, and much chance for development. Methods of cotton, rice and sugar cane farming seem strange and slovenly to a Pennsylvania Dutchman.

Had the pleasure spending a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCormick in Columbia, S. C.; they very kindly took me for a ride in their car, showing me the vicinity of the city of Columbia.

With best wishes for you and your old "Schmutz Blatt", I am
Very cordially yours,
J. FRANKLIN MEYER.

Reduction Sale

...Kessler's Department Store...

TO OUR FRIENDS:

We herewith beg to inform you that owing to the backward season we are stocked up with a large amount of merchandise which we are compelled to reduce. In order to accomplish this we are going to give our friends a very liberal reduction on everything in our store. And this is in the heart of the season, just when you need the goods the most. It is not necessary for us to mention any particular articles as this reduction applies to all our merchandise.

In addition we wish to mention that we are NOT going to leave Millheim. We have been here with you for over twenty-four years and have always found it good enough for us. In all that time we have always been giving you good merchandise and treating you honestly. We certainly appreciate your trade and are trying to show that appreciation by holding this Big Reduction Sale.

Our stock must be turned into money at once. Call immediately and be convinced.
