

DEATHS.

William A. Tobias, a well known citizen of Centre county, died in Altoona, Thursday of last week, aged eighty-one years, two months and two days. His death occurred at the home of his niece, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, nee Miss Mame Miller. Interment was made in Aaronburg on Monday, the funeral having been held from the home of Dr. Hardsberg where a sister, Mrs. Auman, makes her home. The religious ceremonies were conducted by Rev. W. D. Donat of the Reformed church, and at the grave the rites of the I. O. O. F. were read, that organization having been largely represented.

Mr. Tobias was born in Bloomsburg, Columbia county, and was a son of Rev. D. S. Tobias, who in 1851 located in Rebersburg. He began life as a school teacher, in Haines township. He was connected with the Berwick Gazette in a general way, and at the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in Company D, 54th Regiment, P. V. I., formed at Bloomsburg. He was discharged from the army on a certificate of disability in 1862, and on returning to Centre county again took up school teaching. In 1875 he was elected County Recorder of Deeds, and three years later was re-elected. On retiring from office he located in Millheim, and lived there until a few years ago, when he made his home with the niece named in this account. Mr. Tobias was never married. There survive him two sisters, Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. Amelia Auman, Millheim, and one brother, Lewis, Rockford, Illinois.

Mrs. Julia Musser, one of the oldest ladies in Ferguson township, died on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Smith, in Pine Grove Mills, where she had made her home for some years. Her age was eighty-nine years. Mrs. Musser was born in Montgomery county, but lived near Pine Grove Mills for many years. Her husband, who died long ago, was George Musser. There survive three children, namely, Melancton, Freeport, Illinois; William, Jacksonville, Florida; and M. S. James Smith, Pine Grove Mills.

Interment was made at Pine Grove Mills on Wednesday.

Hon. J. A. Peschey, member of the legislature from Millin county, died on Monday. He was elected two years ago on the Washington ticket, and was a candidate for re-election. He will be recalled in Centre county as a lecturer before the Farmers' Institutes.

He came to this country in 1869, completed his preparation for the ministry in the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, and in the fall of 1890 became pastor of the churches of Martinsburg and Duncanville, Blair county, and still holds this position.

The Bradford sale.

One of the largest sales of farm stock and implements held in this valley was held on Tuesday at Old Fort by William Bradford. The total sales for the day were $4513.36. A brood mare sold at $325, a single horse for $280 and a team for $480, making a total of $1085 for four horses. Six cows sold for over $100 each, the highest price being $119. Twelve cows, eight of which had calves by their side, sold for $1090, and the eight calves were bid up to $165. One of these calves, four weeks old, sold for $36. The high priced animals were Holsteins.

The attendance was quite large, and the bidding spirited. Mr. Bradford will locate in Chester county next week, and will again engage in farming.

Four inches of snow.

Wednesday morning found the ground covered with three inches of snow, and every twig was loaded to its full capacity to bear. Before the fall was over, not less than four inches of the beautiful covered the old snow banks, and made the earth again look clean and bright.
