Miss Mary M. Farmer of Colyer announces her millinery opening for Saturday, April 11th. (adv.)

Hobert Osman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osman, west of Centre Hall, has been ill for a week or more.

Miss Gertrude Musser of Spring Mills was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Dingee, Centre Hall, from Saturday until Monday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Asher Stahl, in Altoona, on the last Sunday in March. Miss Jennie Stahl is helping to take care of the new arrival.

A slight miscalculation accounts for a report of the graduation exercises of the Spring Mills High School not appearing in this issue. A full account will appear next week.

Robert Meyer was among the Pennay employees at Altoona to come under the retrenchment axe. He is at the home of his parents, Prof. and Mrs. P. H. Meyer, in Centre Hall.

In making public the names of the candidates who are to run on the Ryan slate, great care was taken to name their church affiliations, but nothing has been said of where Michael worships.

Mrs. L. W. S. Person will be at the residence of Mrs. M. E. Strohm, Centre Hall, Pa., April 23rd to 27th, inclusive, with a complete line of the latest New York styles in ladies' and children's millinery. (2t)

J. F. Swann of Williamsport was in Centre county last week, having come here to attend the funeral of Mrs. M. P. Musser. He is engaged in an automobile repair shop, and although he suffered a severe attack of indigestion, he is looking fine.

Mrs. W. Vernon Godshall of Syracuse, N. Y., accompanied by her little son, arrived in Centre Hall Friday of last week, and for a few days were the guests of Miss Gertrude Spangler. From there they went to the home of Mrs. Godshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kline at Centre Mills.

George N. Fisher, accompanied by Adam Felty, of Boalsburg, made a trip to Centre Hall and across the valley to Potters Mills. Mr. Felty is one of Boalsburg's oldest young men, who wonders how it feels to be old. It is a long while since he passed through town, and the many changes on all sides were observed by him.

Upon receiving the news of his sister's serious illness, Harry Franz went to Altoona Saturday and a short time after his arrival death overtook her. He returned home Monday, and on Wednesday he and his two daughters, Misses Sarah and Verna, attended the funeral in Altoona. A detailed account of Mrs. Hartsock's death appears elsewhere in these columns.

New Berlin had two fires last week, both of incendiary origin. In the first flames three stables were destroyed, and a few days later an attempt was made to burn the Central hotel, but its destruction did not materialize on account of being discovered while in its incipient stage. A. M. Herman, owner of the hotel, has been charged with arson, and lodged in the Union county jail to await the next term of court.

The following item appeared in last week's Perry County Times, and relates to a former Penn's Valley pastor: On Friday evening members of the Methodist Episcopal church and friends went as a surprise party to the parsonage and tendered the Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Mollinay a reception. The affair was a token of the appreciation in which these people are held by the parishioners. A splendid donation, comprising almost every thing to be found in a well stocked larder, was a feature of the party. Addresses most complimentary to the Rev. Mr. Mollinay and wife were made by Judge W. N. Seibert, F. H. Bretz and Wm. C. Lebb, to which Rev. Mollinay feelingly responded.

Ritchey-Osman.

A pretty home wedding, on Wednesday morning, was the culmination of a love affair between Miss Esther Osman and Theodore Ritchey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Stoy Spangler, pastor of the Lutheran church. Miss Bessie Breen of Centre Hall, and Chester McCormick, a brother of the bride, were the bridesmaid and groomsmen, respectively. The Osman home was prettily decorated for the occasion, and added cheer to the event. After the wedding breakfast the young couple started on an extended wedding tour to Florida. They will begin housekeeping in Altoona, where the groom is one of the Pennay employees retained after the retrenchment order.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Osman, and it was at their home the wedding took place.

Musser-Loog.

Robert C. Musser of State College and Mable Margaret Loog of Spring Mills were united in marriage at Chambersburg on March 20th. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. A. Alpach.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Loog of Spring Mills, and is a popular young school teacher. The groom is a son of Robert D. Musser of Spring Mills, and is employed in the First National Bank, State College.

The young couple will be at home at State College after September 15th. The Reporter joins with the many friends of the bride and groom in wishing them everlasting happiness.

Altoona Robber Apprehended.

Saturday evening the chief of police of Salem, Ohio, placed under arrest Frank G. Wilson and Ira O. Wilson for robbing the Union bank in Altoona, Monday, March 23, at which time nearly $3000 was stolen. Wilson answers the description of the Altoona robber in every way, and has been identified as Frank Hohl, a paroled prisoner of the Eastern penitentiary. They both state that they were in Altoona some time ago but deny any knowledge of the robbery. They will be extradited from Ohio and placed in the Blair county jail to await trial.

William Wilson, who was picked up in Wheeling, W. Va., as a suspect and held in Altoona, was turned loose Monday morning.

Huntingdon County West "Dry".

Huntingdon county has put on the white robe since Tuesday night of last week, when no licenses were granted to the booze sellers. It is the outcome of the election of two "dry" judges last November—Beers and McCarthy. Lawyers of the county are pleased at the situation, because the liquor license question will be virtually eliminated from the contest for president judge next year.

Mr. Smith purchased the Bible farm a year ago, and came here to make a permanent home for himself and family. Mr. Markie, who came from State College, and Mr. Delaney, who vacated a farm at Nittany, are tenants with reputations that induced their respective landlords to secure them as farmers.
