One night last week the stork was seen flying over our valley southward and soon afterwards we were informed that he stopped at the Allen Guisewite home and left a wee baby. One day last week Wesley Hacken-berg sold his auto to Irvin Shreckengast of Tylersville. Mr. Hackenberg says that he would rather walk than ride in such a balky machine. Mr. Shreckengast came here and after making several unsuccessful attempts at starting finally got the critter moving in the right direction, and no doubt felt much relieved when he reached home sometime that night. Last Fijday morning at 4 o'clock the death messenger called at the home of Edwin Frank and took Minnie, his wife. She was ill only a abort time. She was the mother of seven children, two of whom preceded her to the grave. Mr. Frank has the deepest sympathy of all the citizens in We hope and pray that there will be some teuder hearted woman in our midst who will stretco out a helping hand and take the seven-day-old babe and care for it. The funeral services were held on Monday forenoon and the remains were laid to rest in the Evangelical cemetery at this place. Her age was thirty-six years.
