

LOCALS

Mercury stood at the freezing point on Monday night.

Two and one-half inches of rain fell since Wednesday of last week.

The annual reunion of the Centre Hall Reformed church will be held on June 18, on Grange Park.

Miss Laura Mitterling visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geary, in Altoona, from Friday until Monday.

Millin county authorities are making wholesale arrests of persons who make it a habit to peddle rum.

Repairs of all kinds on hand; and if we do not have just what you need, we will get it for you—Weber, Centre Hall.

Paul Bradford has given up his work at the Centre Hall station and is now employed by F. V. Goodhart, the furniture man.

The Conrad Lingle property above Colyer is offered for sale by the administrator, N. B. Spangler, Esq. See advertisement and posters.

The young people connected with Progress Grange will meet in Grange Arcadia Tuesday evening for instruction by Miss Helen Bartholomew.

Miss Elizabeth Booser has closed her school year at Salix, Cambria county, and on Monday afternoon returned to her home in Centre Hall.

Rev. R. R. Jones, Rev. F. H. Foss, F. P. Geary and Lyman Smith represented Centre Hall in the Sunday meetings at State College on Monday.

Charles L. Hollick, an engineer on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, on Monday, was struck by a passenger train at Vail and was instantly killed.

D. W. Geiss of Bellefonte loaded a car with potatoes at the Centre Hall station on Monday. He will also ship from Coburn. The prevailing price is sixty cents.

James C. Bitner, who for a number of years was located at Haslings, Nebraska, is now located in Monroe, Wisconsin. Mr. Bitner is a brother of Dr. H. F. Bitner.

Miss Emaline Stephens of State College spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. T. L. Smith, in Centre Hall. She was accompanied home by Foster Charles of Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Meyer, who have been in Columbia, South Carolina, with their daughter, Mrs. J. W. McCormick, since the holidays are expected home this week.

James From is beginning the erection of a barn 35x50 feet, and an addition to his house 12x23 feet in dimensions. Aaron Thomas will have the work in charge.

George W. Tressler, who devotes much time to fruit growing on his farm below Penns Cave, last fall stored some apples in a concrete pit and finds that an ideal way to keep them. At the present time he has Northern Spies that are solid and retain their flavor.

The Centre County Medical Association met at the Bush House on Wednesday evening. The principal speaker was Dr. Clark of Philadelphia, who gave an illustrated lecture on desiccated surgery. Dr. J. V. Foster represented the profession in Centre Hall at this banquet.

Prof. O. H. Bakeless, head of the department of Psychology and Teacher Training in Bloomsburg State Normal School, will be the speaker at the Centre Hall High School Commencement exercises, Wednesday evening of next week. Detrich's orchestra will furnish the music.

While James Reish's condition is improved to some extent, he is yet suffering greatly. His trouble began with a slight abrasion of the skin on the thumb, and later an abscess formed in his side. Last week Dr. H. S. Braucht and Dr. C. S. Musser performed an operation that greatly relieved him.

Beginning Monday and continuing for a period of two months, the local rural carriers will be required to classify all mail, delivered and collected, and count and weigh the number of pieces in each class. Besides a separate record must be kept of the amount of postage on each class delivered and collected.

On Wednesday morning S. H. Knepley left Centre Hall on an extended visit to New York state, his objective point being Waverly, where he has relatives living. Mr. Knepley is a blacksmith, and followed that occupation until incapacitated by age. He is a civil war veteran, and so such saw hard service.

Phillip Bezer, the Bellefonte butcher, bought fifteen head of fat cattle in Penns Valley, and Wednesday they were taken across the mountain. The cattle were purchased from Jacob Sharer, Philip Durst, Clyde Detrow and John Sensely. One bull in the lot weighed 1460 pounds. The steers sold for $7.80 per cwt.

The High School drama, Farm Folks, to be given next Tuesday evening in Grange Arcadia, is a very good play and well worth seeing. The cast has been well selected and all have been practicing faithfully for several weeks. The proceeds will be well spent to help the High School library. Tickets are now on sale at Murray & Bitner's drug store.

The Union, George Valley and Centre Hall Lutheran congregations were surprised to see Rev. Henry of the Susquehanna University in the pulpit on Sunday. They had not been advised that the pastor would be absent, nor had any church officials knowledge that a substitute would appear. It is generally understood that the minister was on a private mission somewhere beyond Altoona.

Miss Ann Pennington, a Potter township charge, died at the home of Mrs. Mahala Nevel of Fruittown, near Tusseyville, Sunday, April 11, and was buried Wednesday following, interment being made in the cemetery connected with the Zion Evangelical church. Rev. A. S. Miller was the officiating minister. She was fifty-seven years of age and is survived by one sister, Miss Kate Pennington, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kripe in Centre Hall, and one brother, Frank Pennington, of Potter township.

THE RED CROSS RANGE for BEST BAKING

THE delight of the housewife is bread and cakes baked as they should be. Not any stove will bring results, but you will be sure of the best bread, biscuits, and cakes if placed in the oven of a Red Cross Range.

The Red Cross with warming cabinet

A new line of these stoves has just been received and you owe it to yourself to see them before buying elsewhere. Even if you have another make in mind satisfy yourself that the Red Cross is not a better stove by giving it a careful inspection.
