DEATHS.

Dr. William B. Stiver, a prominent Freeport, Illinois, physician and native of Potter township, died on Saturday morning while on his way from his home to his office. He was observed by a friend to stagger, and soon after assistance came he died without uttering a word. He had not been in good health for some time, but his family thought his condition just at that time to be normal.

Dr. Stiver was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stiver, and was born near Potters Mills, Potter township. In 1872 he went to Lena, Illinois, and after two years took up the study of medicine in Freeport, and finished his preparation for the profession upon graduating from Rush Medical College, Chicago. He began to practice in Orangeville, Illinois, and in 1876 located at Rock Grove, from there be went to Lens, and after ten years he settled in Chicago, remaining until 1896. Later he returned to Freeport, where he remained until his death.

Dr. Stiver was married to Miss Rebecca McNitt, who with a daughter survives. Hop. P. O. Stiver and Dr. R. J. Stiver of Freeport, and Mrs. J. E. Ward of Bellefonte are surviving brothers and sisters.

In This is the fifth death among the Stiver brothers and sisters in less than four years. S. L. Stiver. the eldest, died three years ago last November at Bunker Hill, Ill.; Mrs. W. B. Krape of Aaronsburg, died a year ago last December; Dr. Thomas J. Stiver ex-pired last August, and Dr. David Stiver passed away last November.

Irs L. Burwell, a most highly re-spected citizen of Ferguson township, died Monday morning at three o'clock at his home immediately east of Pine Grove Mills. His death was due to heart failure. His serious illness dated back ten days when pneumonis took hold of him and later heart trouble developed. His condition was somewhat improved Sunday and his friends with whom he chatted on that day felt sure of his recovery. An attack at his heart early Monday morning was so serious as to result in his death.

Mr. Burwell was a native of West Virginia and for a number of years followed the carpenter trade. He moved to near Pine Grove Mills thirteen years ago and of recent years was engaged in farming. He was a member of the Presbyteriau church and was active in all its branches, especially in the Sunday-school, where he was a teacher. At the time of his death he was fifty years of age. He is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters, all of whom are at home except one daughter who lives at 'Tyrone. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon and interment was made at Pine Grove Mills.

REBERSBURG

Mrs. George Haines is on the sick listat present. Harry Royer was the first one in Rebersburg to buy an suto, this spring.

It is a Ford. Mrs James Corman has just returned from a week's visit to her relatives at Loganton. John Rupp, who is employed at State College, was an over Sunday visitor in our town.

Frank Wate has at last found employment at his trade, carpentering with G. P. Garret. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolf of Aaronaburg spent last Sunday in town with relatives. Our landlord would like to know where his cousin got to. Well, Clarence, we presume he is gone where the "wood-bine twineth." Lee Weber returned home from the horse sale held in Millheim with an iron gray horse which be bought there and of which he is very proud. The first thunder storm passed over this section of this valley on Sunday afternoon accompanied by a high wind and a heavy rain. The Bierty brothers, hucksters, dissolved partnership, and now each one will engage in the business for himself. Competition is the life of trade. J. H. Zeigler is at present kept quite busy spraying fruit trees for the destruction of the San Jose scale. Fruit growers are convinced of the fact that the scale has taken a firm hold and that spraying is a necessity. The grain fields in this vicinity look fine and if nothing unforscen happens we can look for a heavy harvest, There will be but very little fruit in the line of peaches, cherries and plums sixty-three years.
