THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1914.

Be on Hand May 19th,

The primary on Tuesday May 19th will be by far the most important primary election ever held in Pennsylvania. For the first time in the bistory of the Commonwealth candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affaire, a United States Senator and Justices of the Supreme and Superior Courts, are to be chosen at a State-wide primary.

A sinister movement is on foot to sell out the Democratic party to the infamous Penrose machine. This the plotters mean to accomplish by nominating on the Democratic ticket a candidate for Governor who they know could not possibly be elected, if nominated, because he could not command the vote of a single independent, progressive man.

Every Democrat who fails to vote at the primary helps to accomplish this conspiracy against the honor and welfare of the State of Pennsylvanis.

The first duty of citizenship is to James West Fell from Barn Roof, While assisting to reroof a shed on the Wert farm above Tusseyville, last Friday, James Wert fell a distance of fourteen feet, and while no bones were broken he was so badly shaken up that he has since been coufin ed to bed at the home of his son, Claude Wert, where the accident happened.

District S. S. Convention. District No. 11 will meet in convention at Tusseyville, Friday, May 15th. There will be two sessions, afternoon and evening.

FRIDAY, THE 15TH DAY OF MAY, 1914 at one o'clock P. M.,

Russell Grove had the misfortune to step on a nail that almost went through his foot, but is getting along nicely. He is able now to wear a shoe part of the time.

Lots of rainy weather in this section, making it a little late for the spring crops. Paul Swab was the first man to sow oats in this section; he has a little over five acres of oats sowed. Paul is certainly ahead of us all.
