Mr. Ryan has made his bed during the campaign this year—as he did during the reorganization movement and the campaign for the nomination and election of Woodrow Wilson, as President of the United States—with the Guffey-Garman-Hall-Donnelly-Brennan crowd of traders and beneficiaries of the Penrose machine.
These men masquerading as Democrats are the leaders in promoting his candidate and he must be judged by the company he keeps.

That the local option movement has become a very strong force in politics is shown by the fact that candidates for the highest offices in the state have hastened to pledge themselves to favor a law giving the people of each county the privilege of voting upon the question of licensing the sale of alcoholic liquors. Several candidates for Governor have recognized the necessity of being right in this matter. It is very probable that the next executive at Harrisburg will use his influence in favor of and sign a local option bill. The question of prohibition of liquor traffic is involved, also, in the election of a United States Senator, as an amendment to the constitution for that purpose is to come before the Senate for action. This amendment is regarded by its supporters as the most important measure in connection with the suppression of the booze business, as the proposed constitutional amendment would make it effective throughout the United States.
It is heathenish and devilish to manufacture booze and place it where our boys and girls are tempted on every side. It is a disgrace to any country.

The Class Play.

"Farm Folks" was the title of a pretty little drama rendered by the 1914 class of the Centre Hall High School, in Grange Arcadia, Tuesday evening. The play was well received by the audience, and each of the participants performed his or her part in an admirable way. The leading parts were taken by the four members of the class, namely, Misses Jennie Stahl and Anna Rearick, Messrs. Fred Stover and Ralph Homan. The minor parts were well performed by Misses Carrie Sweetwood, Esther Parson, Mary Dinges, Grace Ishler, Messrs. James Lingle, Ralph Luse, Carl Auman.

Misses Bertha Strommeier and Beese Breon rendered a number of selections on the piano.

The receipts at the door amounted to $31.40.

tended the funeral of Mrs. Alfred Miss Mary Reamer reached her 88th birthday on Sunday. Her pastor Rev. J. I. Stonecypher paid her a visit. She has been ailing during the winter and is being cared for at the home of G. W. Garbriek. She enjoys having her friends call to see her.

Miss Mary is the second oldest person in Boalsburg.

The funeral of Mrs. Harriet Johnson, who died in Altoona on Friday evening, was held from the home of her father, John Woods, on Monday afternoon. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. J. I.
Stonecypher.

The services at the baccalaureate sermon were impressive throughout.
Rev. W. K. Harnish of the Presbyterian church preaching the sermon.
Rev. S. C. Stover and Rev. J. I.
Stonecypher conducted the devotional service. A number of singers from the choirs of the different churches sang two anthems, the congregation joined in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," and several appropriate selections were sung by the male quartette. The commencement exercises will be held on Friday evening.

Other towns are having clean-up days: The policy of the Centre Hall residents is never to let the town get dirty. Our idea of cleanliness is the best.

The "no treating" edict which the Union county court issued to the licensed houses in Lewisburg at the last license court resulted in an almost negligible quantity of drunks on the big occasion last Friday. Verily, things are not as they once were.

The announcement of W. E. Tobias of Clearfield for congress will be found in this issue. Speaking of his candidacy the Clearfield Republican makes this statement: Mr. Tobias is a Democrat of the progressive type, an ardent admirer of President Wilson and has been a Bryan follower for many years.
He has served as County Superintendent of Schools for nine years and very successfully. No man in the State has a cleaner record as a citizen and a public servant.

LOCALS.

Daniel Delaney, who spends much of his time with his three sons near Centre Hall, on Monday went to Bellefonte for a short stay.

Tax Collector John B. Fortney was in Centre Hall on Monday. He is preparing to collect the road tax, and has notices posted giving time and place when he will meet taxpayers.

Mrs. J. T. Potter, who has been ill for a long while suffering from partial paralysis, is able to set up a short time each day. Her speech is also improving, and occasionally an intelligible word is uttered by her.

A few weeks ago the writer had the pleasure of visiting Mr. and Mrs.
Charles E. Beury, in Tioga, a Philadelphia suburb. They are delightfully located, and their home is one of great interest owing to the many rare curios gathered in the two trips around the world by the couple. This traveling gave Mr. Beury a particularly broad grasp on the social, industrial and political needs of the present day, and was the means of causing pressure to be brought on him by leaders in the Washington party to become candidate for state representative from the twenty-third legislative district.
His first inclination, as expressed to the writer, was not to yield because of his lack of time. He is associated with William A. Glasgow, Jr., the law firm having a large practice. He is a graduate of Princeton University, 1903, and from Harvard Law School 1906. For a number of years he has been associated with social, religious and political movements connected with Philadelphia. His district is about equally divided between the Republican and Washington party adherents, but Mr. Beury's firm stand on the temperance question, and for all movements of an uplifting tendency will undoubtedly put him in the lead on the final contest. The particular interest that the reader will have in Mr. Beury is that his wife was a former Centre Hall girl, Ella, the second daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W.
E. Fischer, now of Shamokin. The Beury home is graced by a most womanly woman and motherly mother, and two of the dearest "kiddies," two girls, one can conceive.
