STATE SENATOR.

We are authorized to announce that W. M. Cronister of Huston township will be a candidate for the office of State Senator subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the Primary election to be held May 19th.

Clearfield, Pa., April 10, 1914.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE 34TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

DEAR SIRS: I am a candidate for the office of State Senator in the Senatorial District composed of Clearfield and Centre Counties, and respectfully solicit your support at both the Primary and General Elections.

If elected I will endeavor to faithfully and conscientiously represent the best interests of the whole people of my District.

I have never been a candidate for a State or County office. Most of my life has been spent serving my home people as best I could in offices of trust, principally along educational lines, etc., to which no compensation was attached.

It will be impossible for me to see personally many of the voters of my District, hence I solicit your support by mail.

Thanking you for any assistance which you may give me, I am,
Respectfully Yours,
W. H. PATTERSON.

LOCALS.

Unclaimed letters in Centre Hall postoffice May 1: Mr. Frank W. Benner, Mr. Julian Fleming, Mr. W. F. Smith, Mr. L. H. Smith.

There is one automobile in Centre Hall for every thirty inhabitants. The 1910 census of population gave us 500, and the 1914 enumeration of automobiles says 17.

Miss Phoebe W. Potter and Raymond Walker will have telephones installed in their residences. They are located on the Pine Stump line, running west from Centre Hall on the Brush Valley road.

Mr. T. F. Farner of Philadelphia attended the funeral of her father, Thomas Palmer, at Potters Mills, Monday. She will spend several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Farner at Colyer before returning home.

The drys in Snyder county are preparing to carry their case to the higher court, and hope to have Judge Johnson's opinion reversed. The drys think that this will be done because of the faulty advertising of the liquor licenses.

Mrs. D. W. Reynolds returned from St. Louis, Missouri, on Saturday, after a stay in that city for a period of three months. She was formerly postmistress at Reedsville, and it was upon being relieved of that office that she went west to regain her health, and succeeded in doing so.

A "New Kirt" car was sold by C. S. Brungart, agent for Centre county, beginning of this week, to Shook Brothers, Ralph and Gross, at Spring Mills. The car is of the latest type, and is equipped with an electric starter, and all the most modern fixtures known to the automobile industry.

Monday afternoon the writer had the pleasure of riding across the Seven Mountains to Lewistown with Dr. J. V. Foster, who drives a Ford runabout. The trip was made, going and coming, on high gear and without a stop except at Reedsville, where friends were interviewed. The road across the mountain is in fair condition, but needs dragging to make automobiling a real pleasure. The time to Reedsville was one hour, and the Doctor thought his machine was just jogging along.

The Decisive Day

The State College Times, Republican in politics, has this to say of Mr. Palmer, Democratic candidate for United States Senate, and Mr. McCormick, Democratic candidate for Governor:

Tuesday, May 19, will be the decisive day in the history of Pennsylvania politics for at the primaries the question of the perpetuation of the boss rule system which has been a curse on the fair escutcheon of the old commonwealth will be forever settled. The people will then decide whether the system is to be continued or forever consigned to the bottomless pit of oblivion.

Under the new primary law each citizen is a sovereign and none can steal his sceptre. Votes cannot, under ordinary conditions, be delivered in gangs, districts, wards, boroughs or counties. Each voter stands alone uncontrolled by anything but his conscience and unbosomed by anything but his own free will. Is there intelligence, conscience and violation in the citizenship of this grand old commonwealth to forever end the dictatorship of the bosses? That is the great question, and the only one, that is at issue in this primary election.

And now let each voter ask himself or herself this question: "What can be said for Penrose?" The Public Ledger, in commenting on this question says: "His tariff views are sound. Yes, and that is all. Not another thing. Even his best friends and most slavish henchmen will not say a word beyond that. Why? Because the moment you get beyond Penrose's tariff record everything in his political record is damaging. When even a candidate's advocates have to pitch their plea to a tone of apology it is high time for the people to look for a leader who has some asset."

Let each voter ask another question: "What can be said for A. Mitchell Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, or Vance C. McCormick, the party candidate for governor?" Palmer's tariff views are just as sound as those advanced by Penrose. But that is not all. There is not an act or a relationship in the career of either Palmer or McCormick that their enemies can gloat over or for which their friends must submit an apology. In character both are clean; in education both are finished products of our country's best schools; in business both are successful; in public life both have been and are trusted leaders; in spirit and disposition they are men of the very highest ethical principals; in politics both are progressive Democrats whose one ambition is to serve the people as a whole. A vote cast for Palmer and McCormick at the coming primaries will go far toward breaking the gang rule which now prevails in this state and will be a vote for the government of the people and for the people as a whole and not for the few.

McCORMICK
for GOVERNOR

A Democrat of principle, courage and conviction who considers his party the main works and not a mere Penrose annex.

A Democrat who will be a Democratic governor independent of any power or influence except the will of the people.

A man who has no motive in seeking the governorship save an honorable ambition to usefully serve the State.

He is the man who put the party back on the political map of the state.

He was the centre rush in the great contest that rescued the Democracy from the bi-partisan traders—the Guffeys, Halls, Garmans, Donnellys and Ryans. And his nomination will block the movement to deliver your party back to Penrose.

A man of strength, vigor, courage, wisdom, experience and discretion, in whose hands the great interests and the fair fame of Pennsylvania will be safe. You will help to bring this great blessing to the State if you vote to
