TO THE ELECTORS OF THE 34TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA:

DEAR SIRS:

May's Weather.

The first half of May is about over and the weather man during that period handed out lots of sunshine and rain. The average temperature for the first twelve days was 76 degrees. In the same period over two and one-half inches of rain fell. Vegetation has made wonderful growth under nature's best two elements, and the average farmer is wishing that his oats and corn could have had a treat of the weather.

Sample Ballot.

In this issue appears a fac simile of the official Democratic ballot that will be handed Democrats before entering the booth next Tuesday. As a guide for Democrats who want to vote for the best men on the ticket, an "x" is placed opposite the names of candidates who represent the party in principle. Look this ticket over carefully.

Tobias, a Bi-partisan Candidate.

William E. Tobias, of Clearfield, candidate for congress in this district, would have Centre county Democrats believe that he is neither a reorganizer nor an old guard, but simply, "Tobias." He is a bi-partisan, however, and no mistake of it. On May 13, in Bradford, this man Tobias appeared on the platform with Ryan and his manager Bonniwell, the latter a Philadelphia judge who wrote a letter of thanks to Penrose for his election to the bench.

What is the use in nominating Ryan for governor when he admits he cannot be elected. He has made this admission to more than one person, and it is the one expression he has made since seeking votes that the greater part of the Democrats believe.

Senator Penrose will be in Bellefonte today (Thursday). One of his most valued friends in Centre county is Meek of the Democratic Watchman. They are piping through the same horn today, just like they have been doing for ten or more years.

Speaking about Mr. Berry's ingratitude toward Guffey and Hall, the Watchman might have added that there was regret on the part of the Jims long ago that they aided Mr. Berry in his fight for the treasurership. The Jims were sick and tired of Mr. Berry as soon as he got after the capitol grafters. And, by the way, it was Mr. McCormick who stepped forward and furnished Mr. Berry with funds to prosecute the grafters. At that time the Jims' money was not available, and they would have rejoiced very much if there would have been no McCormick, so that Treasurer Berry would have been discredited.

Branch, and the number, follow: Bellefonte, 72; Lemont, 118; Linden Hall, 7; Centre Hall, 33; Rising Springs, 37; Coburn, 70; Gien Iron, 4; Millmont, 3.

Bryan to Speak for Reorganizers.

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan on Wednesday evening spoke in Wilkes-Barre in behalf of Mr. Palmer, Mr. McCormick and other reorganization candidates for state offices.

Secretary Bryan some days ago expressed a desire to Congressman Palmer to speak in behalf of the men whose strong support of Wilson at Baltimore unquestionably made possible his nomination and subsequent election. The same forces which worked against good government then are active now in Pennsylvania and it is to aid the cause and resist their attacks that Mr. Bryan wanted to lend his voice.

Colonel Taylor.

Col. H. S. Taylor is a candidate for Congressman-at-large. This is the same Col. Taylor who wrote letters to Democrats in Centre county and solicited their support for E. B. Taylor (brother Bert), a Republican, then a candidate for assembly against the late J. C. Meyer.

This is the same Col. Taylor who opposed Francis Spear for Recorder, and A. B. Lee for Sheriff.

This is the same Col. Taylor who a year ago did everything honorable and otherwise to defeat W. D. Zerby, then a candidate for state committeeman, and for no other purpose than to get the Democratic party in Pennsylvania back under the influence of Penrose, who now claims that many Democrats will vote for him next fall.

This is the same Col. Taylor who is shouting for Ryan for governor, and is one of the Democrats (?) Penrose is depending on for support at the general election next fall.

This is the same Col. Taylor the Huntingdon Monitor (Democratic in politics) says is a misfit for the job; that he is aiding Penrose; that he is selling under false colors and secured signers to his petition in Huntingdon county under such conditions.

REBERSBURG

Robert Parks and family of Sunbury are visitors in this valley at present.

Mrs. Swabb and children of Lock Haven are visitors in this vicinity at present.

On Sunday the stork visited the home of Prof. Samuel Bierly and left twin babies, one of which died the same day.

James P. Frank is at present making preparations to put a new roof on his dwelling house; he will also have the building repainted.

O yes, the writer forgot to mention in last week's items that the stork visited the home of Samuel Gephart and left a wee little boy.

Charles Bierly, an old veteran of this place, has been seriously ill the past week, but at this writing his condition has somewhat improved.

On Sunday while Mrs. Thomas Royer was attending Mothers Day service she suddenly became ill. At this writing she has partly recovered.

Our farmers are greatly detained this spring in putting out their spring crops on account of the almost daily rains; and there is still some oats to be sown.

DEATHS.

Manassa H. Guise died at his home at Penn Hall, Friday of last week, death having been due to hardening of the arteries. His age was seventy-nine years, eleven months, and eight days. Interment was made in the Heckman cemetery Tuesday forenoon, Rev. D. M. Geesey of the Lutheran church officiating.

The deceased was a son of John Guise and was born in Sugar Valley near Boonville. When he was seven years old he was put into the Huston home east of Centre Hall, and was there reared.

Like was the custom in those days, Mr. Guise learned a trade, selecting that of a carpenter. After mastering it, he made three trips to the west, engaging in work at a number of places. Returning to Penn Hall he concluded to remain there, and after his marriage to Miss Matilda Leitzell, he erected a dwelling house at Penn Hall, the same now being occupied by Wallace Musser. At the opening of the war, he and Mrs. Guise moved into the Penn Hall hotel property, and during the conflict with the south they engaged in the hotel business. At the close of the war they moved to the home where the death occurred, living there continuously since.

Mr. Guise followed his trade until age incapacitated him. He was a member of the Lutheran church, and was always rated a desirable citizen in the community.

Mrs. Guise and two children, Clara, now Mrs. H. E. Rosman, of Spring Mills, and Mary, now Mrs. John G. Dauberman, of Centre Hall, survive. A son died in infancy.

Mrs. Jasper Brungart died at Rebersburg Tuesday night at eight o'clock of cancer, from which she had been a sufferer for a number of years. Her age was sixty-four years. Funeral services will be held at her late residence Friday morning by Rev. A. G. Stuffer of the Reformed church of which the deceased was a member, and interment will be made in the Union cemetery at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Brungart before her marriage to Jasper Brungart thirty-three years ago was Mary Long, and was born in Union county. No children were born to this union, and besides her husband these survive only one half-sister, living in Iowa.

A year ago Mrs. Brungart was operated upon for cancer by Dr. Ball of Lock Haven, but found no relief. Her condition grew constantly worse until death overtook her.

The body of Edward Ishler was shipped from New York state to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler, at State College, from where he was buried on Saturday. Mr. Ishler died from Bright's disease, and was aged about twenty-seven years. A wife and two children, also two brothers and two sisters survive.

Mrs. Perry F. Barner died at State College of pneumonia, aged twenty-two years, nine months and nine days. Her maiden name was Grace Alberts Kuhn, and she was born at Pleasant Gap. She leaves a baby aged one month, and a daughter aged three years. Her husband, parents and five brothers also survive.

Mrs. Lydia Immel, widow of Andrew Immel, died at her home in Gregg township, death being due to paralysis, aged seventy-six years, one month and five days. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Mountain church by Rev. J. M. Price of Spring Mills. Interment was made in the Mountain cemetery.

Isaac M. Thomas, a Civil War veteran, died at his home in Bellefonte, aged seventy-eight years. He was united in marriage with Miss Martha Reed, whom he leaves with the following children: Mrs. Lydia R. Gibson, Philadelphia; William A., Tyone; Isaac M., Jr., Joseph D., Chester Arthur and Lulu, all at home.

William Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Guiser, died on Monday of pneumonia. Interment will be made this (Thursday) forenoon at Wolf's Chapel, near which place the parents live. The funeral will be conducted by Rev. D. M. Geesey.

Mary Bernice, daughter of A. W. Wilmer of near Huston Park, aged fifteen months, was laid to rest in the Myers cemetery.

BOOZE PEDDLERS SENTENCED.

Seven offenders behind bars—Dispensers of Jamaica Ginger May Find Trouble.

That the court will back the efforts of the district attorney H. W. Aiken, in his endeavor to rid Mifflin county of booze peddlers was demonstrated during last week, when seven persons, Philip Pierce, Fred F. Brown, E. C. Nather, Chilton Dunn, C. H. Saverdool, William Sales and Samuel Eby, were sentenced to a minimum of three and a maximum of twelve months in jail, with $500 fine and costs. The authorities say there is a joker in the sentence, and unless the fine and costs are paid the maximum sentence must be served, as the insolvency law is not effective.

Constables in making quarterly returns called in attention of the court to the indeterminate sales of Jamaica ginger, containing 98 per cent alcohol, while the sale of beer, with only 6 per cent, was forbidden. It is alleged that the profits of some merchants in this line exceed that of their legitimate trade.

Mr. Herman was the only occupant of the car, and was thrown in such a manner that he was not injured. Several men who chanced to be nearby assisted in righting the machine, which was not injured to any great extent.

McCORMICK IS THE MAN

The Only Man Who Can Lead the Democracy to Victory and Place it in Power in Pennsylvania.

And, Mr. Voter, it is up to you to put him in that position.

It will be your fault if you don't go to the primary next Tuesday and vote for the man who can win in November. Don't depend upon others—do your share by going to the polls and voting. The Gang never sleeps—their men are at work all the time—they will have their votes out.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania has cleaned house, they have repudiated the bi-partisan traders, the men who have brought such disgrace on the organization. Beat them this time and the fight will be over against the men who have been selling out your party for their own selfish personal benefit.

The Democratic party needs McCormick's leadership in the contest this year. The whole State recognizes his unusual qualities, his honesty, his tenacity of purpose, his high ideals, his character and the courage and determination with which he backs up his conviction.

The Democrats will do a great work for the State, for the Nation and for their party if they
