Speeding auto cars and motor cycles is complained against by citizens of Centre Hall, who are beginning to see to real danger of the high speed of cars through the streets. There are but few automobile owners in the borough who have not frequently exceeded the speed limit of twelve miles an hour, and it is not unusual to see a car going at a twenty-five mile clip, and motor cycles at a higher speed.

The Clinton Republican, dated Wednesday, June 3, contained the following account of the marriage of two young people of Penna Valley:

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Lock Haven yesterday when Miss Ruth Crouse of Aaronsburg, became the bride of Boyd Vonada of Spring Mills. The bride, who is the daughter of J. H. Crouse, formerly resided in this city and her friends will no doubt be pleased as well as surprised to hear of her marriage.

The happy married couple, accompanied by the father of the bride-to-be and her brother, Harry, autoed to this city yesterday morning and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, No. 438 South High street, uncle and aunt of the bride. Here the services of Rev. A. F. Weaver pastor of the United Evangelical church, were secured, who tied the nuptial knot.

At the setting of the sun on Saturday, one of the prettiest and most interesting memorial ceremonies closed at Boalsburg, and this after the thirty-eight mounds over the bodies of soldiers had been decorated, patriotic songs sung, and an inspiring address made.

Long before the hour for the services proper to begin, the town was thronged with people from all nearby points. The parade was formed on the diamond underneath the stars and stripes, and was headed by Boal band, then came the veterans carrying wreaths, next the Odd Fellows and Knights of Malta, both carrying banners, then the children with lovely bouquets. On reaching the cemetery several patriotic songs were sung by a chorus of some twenty voices, and prayer was offered by Rev. S. C. Stover, and a patriotic address was then delivered by the Rev. B. D. Wolf of Greensburg, secretary of the Westmoreland County Home for the Poor. The band then played a dirge while the graves were being decorated.
