DEATHS.

Thomas Scott Bailey, one of the best known residents of State College, died Wednesday morning of last week at his home in that place following a long illness from Bright's disease, aged sixty-two years.

Scott Bailey was a son of John and Nancy Bailey and a brother of the late County Commissioner John G. Bailey. He was well known throughout Centre county and esteemed by a host of friends. For more than twenty-five years he conducted a blacksmith shop and carriage shop in State College. He leaves his widow, formerly Miss Mary E. Glenn, to whom he was married Dec. 24, 1876, and these children: Warren of Trenton, N. J.; Mrs. Arthur Miller of State College; Annie, Mary and Foster at home. These brother and sisters also survive: Armstrong of Cruise City, Oregon; Samuel H. of Boalsburg; G. W. of Downs, Kansas; Warren of Springfield, Illinois; Mrs. Mary Hewitt of Kansas City, and Mrs. Esther Gregory of Ned's Mills. Mr. Bailey was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and an ardent Republican.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Samuel Martin. Interment was made in the Branch cemetery.

Alma, wife of John W. Miller of Pine Grove Mills, died Wednesday of last week at 11 o'clock, after an illness of four days from bowel trouble, aged fifty-five years, nine months and seventeen days. She was a daughter of the late Adam Rishel, and an esteemed Christian woman, being a member of the Reformed church. She leaves her husband, one daughter, Mrs. John Rudy of Tyrone, and one son, Alexander, at home. Three brothers and one sister also survive, namely: Oscar and Jasper Dale of Oak Hill; William Dale of Lemont, and Mrs. Harry Zorby of State College.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at nine o'clock at Boalsburg, conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover. Burial was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

Anna Ripka Clouting, daughter of W. H. Ripka and wife, Sarah Wertz, deceased, Middleburg, died in Shupe's hospital Harrisburg, Friday evening, May 23, 1914, at 10:25.

She was born at Lewistown Junction, July 5, 1878, therefore aged thirty-five years, ten months and seventeen days. Her brother Charles and her mother preceded her to the future world. Those surviving are: the father, brothers W. W. of Harrisburg; Walter A. of Beavertown; and sisters, Mrs. Albert Gelnet, Pfouts Valley; Mrs. W. P. Shelly of Sunbury, and one daughter, May Clouting.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from the late residence of her father. Interment in Glendale Cemetery, Middleburg. Rev. H. A. Stauffer officiated.

Mrs. Harriet Royer, relict of John Royer, died at her home in Millheim, Thursday of last week, from cancer of the stomach, a disease from which she had suffered for several years. Mrs. Royer was well advanced in years, her exact age being seventy-four years, nine months and five days. Funeral services were held from her late home on Monday morning, and interment was made in the Fairview cemetery, Rev. W. B. Brown, of the Evangelical church, officiating. The following children survive: Edward Royer, landlord of the Old Fort hotel; Charles and Lottie Royer, Millheim; William Royer, Altoona.

At her home in the rear of 907 Sixteenth avenue, Altoona, Mrs. Emma P. Wilson died Sunday evening at 8:30, after a long illness of kidney trouble. She was born at McAlevy's Fort, Huntingdon county, in 1850, and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Lee Darstein, Wilmer E., John H., all of Altoona, and Lloyd E., of Sunbury. A sister also survives, Mrs. Blair A. Gates, and three brothers, W. Howard Barr, Cyrus P. Barr, of Gatesburg, and Homer O. Barr, of Boalsburg. Deceased was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Surprise Party for Mrs. Potter.

Thursday evening of last week a surprise party was given for Mrs. John M. Potter, below Old Fort, on the Brockerhoff farm tenanted by Henry Lingle. About eleven o'clock refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shater, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hettinger, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Runkle and son, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Potter and daughter, Mrs. Frank Decker and son, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Potter and family, Mrs. W. H. Homan, Mr. and Mrs. John Runkle, Mrs. Charles Slack, Mrs. John Rudy, Elizabeth Bible, Mary Frankenberger, Pearl McKinney, Elsie Rudy, Margaret Rudy, Ida Hettinger, Nettie Lingle, Edward, Ralph and Ernest Homan, Wallace Runkle, Fred, John and Russel Slack, Mr. Keller, Jacob, Jenette and Sidney Homan, John Lingle, Jacob, Ray and Franklin Sharer, Edward Bryan, Bloomer Weaver.

CENTRE HALL DEFEATED.

Millheim Triumphs Over Local Club, 8 to 6, on Memorial Day—Bradford Hits "Homer" and is Later Hurt in Slide to Third.

Millheim carried off the honors in the baseball game on Grange Park on Memorial Day when they defeated the home team by the score of 8 runs to 6. The game was bitterly fought from the start and Millheim won only after exerting themselves to the very limit throughout the entire game.

Errors spell defeat for Centre Hall; eight times was a misplay made, and at least half of the indiscretions were responsible for runs. Dropped fly balls, which should have been caught with ease, resulted in more tallies for the visitors than did their stick work. Millheim scored eight runs on five hits, while Centre Hall could make their eight hits produce only six runs. It was the "eight" in the local club's error column that counted for victory for Millheim.

The visitors opened the game with a spurt, scoring two runs on short notice. Centre Hall came back in this inning and tied their rivals. Allison, first up, reached first on a dropped third strike; Paul Bradford was disposed of, but "Babe" Bradford proved a harder proposition. On the first ball pitched, Bradford put his weight behind his swing and met the ball waist high. It was a titanic flick. There was no doubt as to its size; home spectators had seen the same sort of drive in past seasons from this same player. Between left and centre fielders it sped, high over their heads with bullet velocity. The ball struck the ground beyond the road and Bradford had planted his spikes in the home plate before the ball was returned to the infield. There was a wild demonstration from the fans over the hit.

The two clubs alternated in taking the lead after the first inning, but Millheim made the game secure by scoring two runs in the seventh inning, making the score 8 to 6, which remained unchanged to the end.

Bradford pitched a good game for the local team, but was forced to retire from the game in the seventh inning when a head-first charge in an attempt to steal third caused him to fall on his right shoulder in such a manner as to cause an almost serious injury. Allison finished the game.

Musser, one of the best little ball players Millheim can boast of, did the twirling for the common enemy and his record of ten strike outs speaks for his effectiveness. Miller, an old Rebersburg star, was behind the bat and besides catching a good game, helped in the run getting by polling out a home run over Auman's head which "Curly" barely touched. Auman later made a grand catch of a hard line drive, the force of which threw him on his face, but he held on to the ball.

The Millheim club traveled in the large transportation car of Victor Walker, who acted as one of the umpires of the game. Victor Auman was the other arbiter.

Tusseyville

Hark! the wedding bells will soon ring.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horner, Monday.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Henry Meyer is improving.

Misses Ada Meiss and Willa Weaver were delegates from the Evangelical church to the convention last week.

Mrs. Thomas Swartz, gave a good report Sunday morning of the convention last week.

Mrs. Sallie Horner, who has been on the sick list the past year, is not improving.

Mrs. John Slack and Miss Ruth Rossman, attended the convention. Miss Ruth gave a good report of the cradle roll for the year.

Mrs. Thomas Swartz, a delegate from the Lutheran church, went to Bellefonte last Tuesday to attend the Sunday-school convention. She came home Thursday.

Misses Elizabeth Bitner, Mary Neff, Mary Shutterbeck of Tusseyville, and Bertha Miller of Colyer, are students at the Spring Mills high school; the term closes this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Bieber were visitors at the home of C. W. Swartz last week. They left for their home in Milton on Thursday, accompanied by Miss Bernice Swartz.

The Union Sunday-school held their annual Memorial service last Saturday. An address was made by Rev. R. R. Jones. The flag was carried.

CENTRE OAK

Weather fine and the farmers are all busy.

Y. P. C. A. will meet with R. C. Grove on Sunday evening.

W. F. Rishel sold a dandy colt to J. C. Muttler, Beech Creek.

The John Hagan carpenter crew is going to State College; they are just more than crowded with work.

James Hockman of Philadelphia is spending a few weeks with his uncle and aunt, B. Gardner Grove.

Mrs. W. F. Rishel and children spent Decoration day afternoon at Matlisonburg.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Duck of Madisonburg spent Sunday at the H. D. Hagen home at Farmers Mills.

B. F. Frankenberger and grandson Orvis of Millheim spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Frankenberger. The elder Frankenberger laid the foundation for a lime stack.

Decoration services at the Union cemetery, Farmers Mills, were largely attended by the citizens of the community. After the exercises at the cemetery all returned to the church where Prof. W. R. Jones delivered a very appropriate address in which he brought back to the minds of the remaining soldiers many facts of the days which they spent in saving our country, and also reminded the children as well as the older people of their duty and the battles they must need overcome to win eternal life.
