Letter from S. H. Knepley.

ADDISON, N. Y., June 16, 1914.
I am now staying with my brother Robert; he is farming and dairying two and one-half miles in the country. He sells milk from eight cows. The crops are very late this Spring on account of late rains. Some farmers are at this time planting potatoes; it is cold here this morning. I don't care for farm life and I may land in Centre Hall the last of the summer. Remember me to the boys.
Yours truly,
S. H. KNEPLEY.

The Fourth at Colyer.

The Fourth of July will be observed at Colyer in the good, glorious manner of the years gone by. The headquarters will be at Misses Store, where ice cream, cake, fruits, and soft drinks will be served. There will also be a fine and elaborate display of fireworks. Everybody is invited to come and spend the evening at Colyer, enjoy the refreshments, and participate in the celebration in a general way.

Judge Brumm issued an order that will put three hundred boxes clubs out of commission, and at the same time places an officer of a club behind the bars for three months, after paying a fine of $500.

Former Sheriff W. A. Isler is very seriously ill. His condition is such that there is no hope of his recovery.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

What People Are Doing in Harris Township's Principal Place, as Reported by the Reporter's Faithful Correspondent.

Miss Ruth Royer of Colyer is visiting at David Bohn's this week. We had rain Friday afternoon and Sunday night and Monday.

Hay making and picking cherries are the principal employments now. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan of State College spent Sunday at Boalsburg. The services in the different churches were well attended.

Harry Isler and Will Patterson had some concreting done. Mrs. J. A. Rupp is spending part of this week with her sister, Mrs. George Shuey, at Shiloh.

Samuel Glenn and daughter, Miss Margaret, of the Branch spent Tuesday at Boalsburg. Guyer Durst and Cyrus Wagner spent Sunday at the home of Philip Durst near Centre Hall.

Misses Amanda Mothersbaugh and Katharine Spangler of Lemont spent Tuesday at Boalsburg. Mrs. Mary Sheasley of Flemington visited Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller the latter part of last week.

Sunday, the longest day, was a delightful one, closing with a shower in the evening. Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stover attended the reunion of the Reformed church at Centre Hall last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mothersbaugh spent the time from Saturday until Monday with relatives at Millheim. John Wert and family from near Tusseyville attended the Children's Day services at Boalsburg on Sunday.

Crady Beck and family of Lock Haven were visitors at the home of S. J. Wagner Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Mary Taylor of Reedsville spent some time with relatives at Boalsburg, State College and Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Camp and son John Andrew of Milroy were guests of L. Mothersbaugh on Saturday. Children's Day will be observed in the Reformed church on Sunday morning at the usual hour for service, 10:15.

This place was well represented at the auction sale of lots at State College on Saturday where they had quite an exciting time. George Fisher was to see his brother Will at Sunbury who had his arm broken while cranking his automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Meyer attended the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. Diana Haffley at Aaronburg on Wednesday.

George Tibbens of Bellefonte who is driving a team for the Atlantic Oil Refining Co., was through here on Tuesday.

Latest arrivals were a little girl at the Edward Lucas home at Boalsburg, and a boy at the Wm. Ferree home at Oak Hall.

Mrs. Annie Miller of Pine Grove Mills was housekeeper at the N. W. Meyer home while Mrs. Meyer was helping to care for her mother during her illness.

Mrs. Angeline Bottorf and daughter, Miss Ella, of Lemont, and her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Bottorf, of Houersville were guests of Mrs. E. A. Fisher on Saturday.

Miss Beesle Young was bitten by a dog Monday of last week. There were two bites just above her shoe top. She is able to get about although there is considerable swelling. She is receiving medical attention.

The trustees of the Boalsburg cemetery had a hydrant attached to the water pipe at the Reformed church for the convenience of all who desire to use any water while working in the cemetery, or for placing flowers on the graves.

H. N. Lonberger with his daughter Hilda and son John are visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lonberger in Virginia. Mrs. Lonberger with several children enjoyed part of the time with relatives and associates at Boalsburg.

Miss Ella Rhone fell down the cellar steps at Miss Sallie Keller's home Tuesday of last week and broke her right shoulder, and Miss Dorothy Lonberger while playing with a number of other little girls in Mothersbaugh's meadow, a few days previous, fell and hit the footlog and broke her left arm between the wrist and elbow.

George Mothersbaugh lost the fourth horse since he commenced farming the T. D. Roal farm six years ago. The last animal, which died last week, was a valuable mare, and suffered an attack of acute indigestion. The mare gave birth to a colt about Easter time and since it is a fine animal, will in a small way compensate for his recent loss. Farming has proved anything but profitable to Mr. Mothersbaugh.

Boalsburg defeated State College in a fast game on the former's grounds by the score of 8-1. The feature of the game was the peerless twirling of "Stuffy" Stover, who retired twenty-two men by the strikeout route and allowed but three hits. He also eluded a circuit drive and a double. Rupp caught a fine game and lead in battling with a homer and two triples. Lytle also twirled a good game for State.

It has been ideal corn weather since Friday.

Aaronburg.

Ex-sheriff Condo from York, paid his annual visit to his aged mother. Miss Marlon Eisenhauer has been on the sick list for the past week.

Lola Stover and little daughter of Bellefonte were calling on her many friends a few days last week. Ern Stover and O. P. Adams were to Williamsport and Milton for an automobile for Mr. Adams.

John L. Stover, Albert Mingle and Frank Burd were to State College, where they took in the lot sale. Every person seems very glad for the good rain we had, and especially the farmers, whose cisterns were dry. Now for the new potatoes and peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ern Stover report having had a very nice time one day last week, going to Hubersburg and coming home by way of Bellefonte.

Through the kindness of Z. D. Thomas Miss Beckie Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bower were taken to State College on Saturday in Mr. Thomas' auto.

In the death of Mrs. Dianna Corman, wife of B. F. Haffley, which occurred June 20th, the St. Peter's Reformed church in Aaronburg, as well as the community in which she lived, sustained a great loss. After an illness of several months she passed away, her age being seventy years and some months. By her family and acquaintances Mrs. Haffley will be remembered as a kind wife, and a devoted mother. She was of a strong Christian character. Church funeral, June 24th. She leaves to mourn her death four children, Mrs. Nevin Meyer, Boalsburg; Mrs. Daniel Resm, Mrs. L. Oyd Barger, and William, all of Aaronburg. Her pastor, Rev. W. D. Donat, officiated. Five grandchildren also survive.

Spring Mills.

John Myers and family spent Saturday and Sunday at Axe Mann. Quite a number of people took advantage of the free excursion to State College on Saturday.

James Kennelly, one of Spring Mills' aged citizens, has been quite ill but is improving a little. Mrs. Charles Grenoble and daughter of Lewisburg are paying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Zabler, a visit.

J. F. Condo and family, and daughter, Mrs. Lester Bowers and children all of Howard, were Sunday visitors at the C. P. Long home.

Miss Belle McCormick is home from Lock Haven Normal School on her summer vacation; as is also Misses Sara Fisher, Gladys Meyer, Mary Barges and Ruth Smith from West Chester.

Three Cents To Thresh Wheat.

Centre county threshermen, besides waging war on the oppressive rulings of the state highway commissioner, under the law introduced last session by Senator Bookman, of Bucks county, have now organized to set a standard rate for threshing. They have agreed to charge 2 1/2 cents a bushel for threshing oats and barley, 3 cents a bushel for wheat and rye, and $1.25 a ton for baling hay or straw.

Considerable opposition to Bigelow's policy regarding threshing machines was voiced by several speakers. As explained by them, the present law imposes a license on threshing machines, and to this no objection is offered. To the law, however, Bigelow has added certain amendments or rules governing the operations of threshing machines, which owners class as not only objectionable, but which would force owners of machines to operate at a loss.

Farmers on the south side of the county are complaining because of scarcity of farm help right now when the hay is ripe and harvest approaching. The township roads are undergoing repairs and Forester Montgomery is setting out trees and doing other state work, and between the two many men are lost to the farmers when they need them most.

Georges Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lingle spent Sunday at the W. O. Ripka home. William Lingle and family of Tusseyville visited the home of W. P. Lingle on Sunday.

Frank Eoulet of Potters Mills was a Sunday visitor at the home of his uncle, James Foust. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ripka and two daughters, Helen and Jennie, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Steward Ripka at Pleasant Gap.

Potters Mills

Mr. Thomas has returned from New York. Mrs. Michael Smith is improving from a serious illness. Harry Faust has moved his household goods to this place and will occupy one of the Allison houses.

Mrs. Alice Bible returned from Altoona on Saturday after spending two weeks with her son. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander and two sons, Lowell and Hugh, of Belleville spent Sunday with friends.
