NEWS OF 1889.

Notes Taken From Files of The Centre Reporter of Thirty-four Years Ago.

April 8th—Ore was found upon Wm. Emerick's land, near this town, after digging in several spots last week, and sufficient has been developed to show that it exists in paying quantities. Parties interested in the iron business were here on Monday with a view to negotiate for the ore upon Mr. Emerick's lands, and if terms can be agreed upon to erect the necessary machinery for washing the same by steam.

S. M. Swartz intends quitting the mercantile business.
Prof. H. F. Bitner advertises the opening of the spring term of a select school in Centre Hall. Tuition $4 to $8 per term.

April 15th—On last Thursday Mrs. Henry Swab had the misfortune to fall down a distance of eleven feet upon a threshing floor, sustaining very serious injuries. She was found a short time after in an unconscious condition.

Prof. Bitner's school opened with a larger number of students than any previous session.

An extended account of the death of Dr. P. D. Neff while attending Mrs. Bumgardner in confinement, appears in this issue. The incidents connected with his death were the most remarkable in the annals of medicine, since the scene in the bed chamber of the Bumgardner house was the most heart rending and pathetic ever witnessed. Dr. Neff expired at the bedside of his patient from heart trouble induced by the condition of his patient, whose child was already cold in death, and who herself was speedily passing away. Dr. Neff was aged sixty-three years. Mrs. Bumgardner, who lived at Centre Hill, was twenty-six.

Joseph Shirk of Potter township died at the age of seventy-four years. He was buried at Sprucetown.

The Oakley Graphic, published at Oakley, Kansas, under date of July 3 contains an account of the death of Mrs. Charles B. Rishel, wife of Charles B. Rishel, at Monument, Kan. Mr. Rishel is known to many Reporter readers, having left Spring Mills in 1878 for Orangeville, Ill. In 1879 he was married to Laurell Swalls and to them twelve children were born, ten of whom survive. Mr. Rishel, who is the oldest of thirteen children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rishel, late of Gregg township, deceased, is one of the leading citizens and pioneers of that section of the west.

Are Pennsylvania Penrose Protective Union Manufacturers above the law? Why have they not filed an account of their expenses for the Penrose primary campaign? Still seeking special privileges.

It is an old game of politicians to start rumors that their strongest opponents will withdraw. Palmer seems to have nailed the latest rumor rather promptly and effectively. He talks, acts and looks like a real winner.

NOT THE SHOCK EXPECTED

Seemingly, Debutante Would Have Been Willing If It Had Been Otherwise.

After the Spanish melen, while awaiting the cold consomme, a young Japanese diplomat took the fan from the white hand of a debutante, and opened it—from the right to left delicately.

"You noticed how I opened it?" he said. "From right to left?"
"Yes," she returned indifferently. "But everybody opens fans from right to left."
"And do you know why? No? Then I'll tell you—I'll warn you—so that you yourself may never, by any chance, open a fan from left to right."
He stepped his amber-colored chablis and resumed:
"Fans originated in Japan, and from time immemorial the Japanese fan-makers, whose morality is not like western morality, have constructed fans in such a manner that, opened from right to left, they reveal innocent and lovely things—flowers and temples and tea gardens—while, opened from left to right, they reveal scenes of an indecency and obscenity passing belief."
"Of course, all Japanese fans are not of a double entendre such as this, but many are, and hence Japan has taught the world to open its fans in only one way—the safe way."
The young lady opened her fan, very cautiously, the unsafe way. Then she said:
"Behaw, my fan is all right."
And then gave a little disappointed shrug of her white shoulders.—Chicago Record-Herald.

DIDN'T APPEAL TO SENATOR

Western Statesman Had Wrong Impression as to Recipient of Proposed Wedding Present.

Soon after the convening of a new session of congress the announcement was made of the approaching marriage of Anson G. McCook, who was then secretary of the senate. A subscription was immediately started among the senators for the purchase of a wedding present. Two or three prominent senators volunteered to collect the money. Senator X, one of the richest men in the senate at that time, was one of these.

Seeing a new western senator who had not yet been approached on the subject, Senator X went to him and said:
"Senator Slocum, I want you to give me $25."
"What for?" demanded the new member.
"For McCook's wedding present," explained Senator X.
"I'll see you about it tomorrow," answered Slocum, with a scowl.
"All right," said Senator X, as he walked away, "but don't forget it."
Senator Slocum watched him until he was out of hearing, and then, turning to his colleague remarked, with warmth:
"Well, I've heard of cheeky things in my life, but that man beats all! What do you think? He just asked me to give him $25 to buy a wedding present for his cook!"

Novel Way of Advertising.
The advertising manager of a leading French business firm has evolved an ingenious plan for evading the prohibitive taxes imposed by the law of July 12, 1912, on unsightly billboards; disfiguring the countryside. For the long, ugly advertisement boards flanking the railway, which formerly were a blot on the garden city of Paris and its suburbs, a Juvisy firm has now substituted a large bed of flowers in a field adjoining the Orleans line, the design representing a yellow cow, which is the trademark of the article in which the firm trades. Thereby it not only circumvents the law, but also provides a more effective advertisement than that offered by the former billboards. The plan has proved so satisfactory, that it is expected that railways in the neighborhood of large French towns will be beautified by similar floral parterres, designed to advertise articles of commerce.

What the Philadelphia Press, a Republican newspaper, says of the Democratic candidate for governor:
"It can be said truly, too, that the Democrats are fortunate in the person at the head of their ticket, Mr. Vance McCormick. For integrity of character, elevation of purpose, patriotic devotion to public duty, as duty is seen and felt, cannot be denied their measure of effectiveness in any party in any state."
