BENEDIUTS BEAT THE SINGLE?

Four Runs Enough to Win the Victory in the Seven Inning Twillight Game,

Geary, the barber, furnished the amusement, D. A. Boozer furnished a good base hit, and several of the other benedicts furnished the four rups that defeated the Single Men in a twilight game on Grange Park Tues. day evening. It wasn't supposed that the old timers could touch the spit ball or see through the schemes that make up present day baseball, tut they pulled one over on the boys when they downed them 4 to 3 Of course, the married men's team was not composed entirely of old sters, three or four having joined the ranks of the benedicts within the past few years, but there was enough of the good solid hitting to smack of old times. Boozer can still connect for a good drive when it is needed but finds that his nether limbs refuse to move as rapidly as they did twenty-five years ayo, and that's why Stump for the Singles got a two-bagger instead of nothing when he hit one in Boczer's territory in centre.

The singles opened with a run in the first and the Married Men evened it up in the second. In the third and fourth the benedicts scored the remainder of their runs and held the Single Men to a 4 to 1 score until the last two innings of play, when they scored twice.

This is how they were placed on the field: Married Men-A. Stabl, c; M. Bradford, p; P. Bradford, 1st b; E Bailey, 2nd b; C. Bradford, 3rd b; J Knarr, sa; F. Geary, If; D. A. Boczer, of; E. Luiz, rf.
