

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6 1914

W. C. T. U. Picnic.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their annual picnic Saturday afternoon in Grange Park.

The members of the Y. P. B. and L. T. L. and honorary members are cordially invited to attend.

There will be the regular meeting at 2:30, followed by an election of officers. All members are privileged to invite a guest. Supper at 5:30. If the weather should be unfavorable, the picnic will be held in the W. C. T. U. room.

Stork Brings Big Baby.

A ten-pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Springer in Millheim last Saturday. It is the second daughter in the family. Mrs. Springer was Pearl Runkle before her marriage.

Progress Grange to Hold Festival.

Progress Grange will hold a festival Saturday evening, August 15th, in their hall. Proceeds will be for the benefit of the hall fund. Everybody is invited to attend.

LOCALS

Mrs. Pierre Fishburn and daughters Lola and Mary of Sunbury are guests of Mrs. Fishburn's sister, Mrs. S. J. Rowe.

Rev. W. H. Schuyler and daughter, Miss Eloise, are expected to reach home tomorrow (Friday) from Binghamton, N. Y.

Darlington Brown of Milroy spent a few days the latter part of last week at the home of his grandparents, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Krise.

Mrs. Edward Brown and children spent last week at Axe Mann at the home of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Susan Keller, who had been quite ill.

Ralph and Paul Horner, sons of Calvin Horner, of Altoona are spending a few weeks' vacation at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Kathryn Horner.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Strohm of Scranton arrived in Centre Hall Saturday afternoon and for a few weeks will remain at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Margaret Strohm.

Interest in the war news was shown by the large number of Sunday papers sold in town. The papers were brought from Bellefonte by Clymer McClenshan, who runs a motorcycle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and son Howard of Germantown, after spending ten days at the home of Mr. Smith's aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) A. G. Lieb in Centre Hall, returned home Saturday.

W. F. Riesel and Earl B. Bartges of Farmers Mills were callers at this office Monday evening. Mr. Riesel reports that the army worm did not steer clear of their locality and that much oats and corn was destroyed by this pest.

Chas. D. Bartholomew was exceptionally well pleased with the report last week that his pen of five white leghorns had laid twenty-nine eggs in that week in the North American's egg-laying contest.

Bruce D. Rowe came up from Philadelphia Tuesday morning and for a short time will be at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rowe. Mr. Rowe holds a good position in the City of Brotherly Love and his visits home are infrequent.

Miss Susan Rieck, second daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Rieck of Williamsburg, is spending a short time with her former school friends in Centre Hall. Miss Rieck is a school teacher and this year she has been elected to teach school at Alexandria.

An article that appeared in last week's issue stated that Thomas Kahler of Millheim, a section boss on the L. & T. railroad, was under a two weeks' suspension for starting his day's work one day last week without first receiving orders, and which resulted in a special train, running over the road that morning, killing a cow and knocking a handcar off the track. An official of the road informed the Reporter that the blame was not to be laid upon Mr. Kahler, and that he was one of the most faithful section bosses on this branch.

W. F. Riesel of Farmers Mills is a member of the Pennsylvania Berkshire Breeder's Association, and next Wednesday he will attend the first consignment sale held by that organization at Whitmarsh, Montgomery county. Mr. Riesel has two bred sows entered, and this means that they are of first quality, as only this class is eligible. The association holds two sales a year—a mid-summer sale and a mid-winter sale—and its purpose is to put the members of the association in closer touch with the general farmers, stockman, and the killer and consumer of hogs in the state.
