

FORMER RESIDENT DIES.

Telegram Announces Death of Mrs. J. A. Reesman in New Jersey—Burial at Centre Hall Wednesday.

Monday morning Mrs. B. H. Arney received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Sarah Jane Reesman, widow of the late J. A. Reesman, at the home of her grandson, W. Clay Reesman, at Thorofare, New Jersey, death having come Sunday morning as a result of neuralgia of the heart.

It was two years ago that Mr. and Mrs. Reesman left Centre Hall, after Mr. Reesman had disposed of his tinning business owing to falling health, and went to live with their grandson in New Jersey. Mr. Reesman's health, however, was such that his death occurred a few weeks after leaving Centre Hall. His body was brought to Centre Hall and buried, and yesterday (Wednesday) his wife was laid to rest beside him in the family burial plot. The corpse arrived in the morning train and was conveyed to the cemetery, where Rev. R. R. Jones held a simple service, funeral services having previously been held at her late home in New Jersey.

Sarah Jane Reesman was the daughter of Michael and Lydia (Gephart) Ziegler, and was born in Millheim March 14, 1845, being at the time of her death sixty-nine years, five months and two days of age. In her long term of residence in Centre Hall she was loved by all who knew her and her loss is keenly felt.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Reesman's union, but both are dead. Five grandchildren survive, as do the following brothers and sisters: Daniel Ziegler, Millheim; John Ziegler, Mrs. Lydia Smith, Tyrone; Mrs. Emma Van Pelt, Ithaca, New York; Mrs. B. H. Arney, Centre Hall, and James B. Ziegler.

Mrs. George W. Young, a former resident of Bellefonte, died at her home in Jersey Shore at three o'clock on Wednesday a term of last week, the result of a fall she sustained last Friday when she broke her hip.

Deceased's maiden name was Neff and she was born at Potters Mills on February 23rd, 1837, making her age seventy-seven years, five months and seventeen days. For a number of years after her marriage to Mr. Young they lived in Bellefonte but sixteen years ago moved to Jersey Shore where she has since lived. She was a member of the Methodist church and was highly respected by all who knew her.

She was the last surviving member of her father's family but surviving her are her husband and the following children: Andrew Young, of Bellefonte; Mrs. J. M. Harris, of Newark, N. J.; Mrs. D. Kirk Tate, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Margaret Carmendiner, of Clearfield; Mrs. Mary O'Day, of Northumberland, and Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling, of Centre Hall.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon and burial was made at Jersey Shore.

Linden Hall

A number of people from this place attended the Baileyville picnic on Saturday.

Some of the young people of this place and vicinity enjoyed a corn roast one evening last week.

Mrs. A. P. Wieland, Alex. Donald and Winifred Wieland, of Harrisburg, are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow and family made a trip to Millin county Friday in their new automobile.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Isabella Lee came up from Spring Mills on Saturday to spend the day with Mrs. James Osman.

Mrs. Henry Houser and daughter Anna returned last Monday from a ten days' visit among relatives at Pittsburgh.

Rev. Luther H. Waring and daughter Miss Martha of Washington, D. C., spent last week with their cousin, F. E. Wieland and family.

William Beckey and family were among those from this section who suited to Huntingdon on Saturday to attend the Grove reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Garbriek and daughters, Winona and Catherine, who have been visiting relatives here, returned to their home at Bedford on Monday.

Brush Valley.

Ellas Wert is not improving. Daniel Weaver is on the sick list. The loose stones should be removed from the public road.

The festival was well attended at Madisonburg on Saturday evening.

P. G. Beck, who had been working in Nittany for several weeks, returned home to help his father.

Miss Grace Heckman and Miss Lena Bressler and brother Myles spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Heckman.

Clyde Duck has purchased another threshing outfit from Chas. Duck; this makes two machines for Mr. Duck. Mr. Duck has been in the threshing business for ten years and seems to make things move to suit the people.

Mrs. David Rossmann and Miss May Markle of Pleasant Gap spent Wednesday at the home of the former's son, John C. Rossmann.

E. S. Picnic in Georges Valley.

The Lutheran Sunday-school of Georges Valley will hold a basket picnic in Ezra Harter's grove, Saturday, August 29th. The Millheim band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion, and a baseball game is scheduled. There will also be other sports and a general good time is anticipated. A good attendance is urged by the committee in charge.

LOCALS

The borough schools open a week from next Monday.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zearfoss and family of Columbia, and Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Musser and family of Millinburg.

Mrs. Frederick Kurtz, after spending six weeks with her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Murray, left on Wednesday for Lewisburg where she will spend several days before returning to her home near Philadelphia.

Mrs. G. O. Benner left Wednesday morning for Martha, the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Mills, on whose farm the Williams reunion will be held, Saturday. This is one of the largest gatherings of kin in central Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Benner will attend.

Fred Brocius, conductor on the local east bound freight, in closing a door on a freight car Tuesday morning, at Oak Hall, had the end of one finger severed and another finger badly mashed. The damaged digits were attended to by Dr. H. H. Longwell, upon reaching Centre Hall.

J. Emory Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Kinney of Philadelphia arrived in Centre Hall Saturday and until Monday were guests of Mrs. W. B. Mingle. Mrs. Hoy and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, joined Mr. Hoy and their friends in a trip which will take them to the Great Lakes for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Bitner and children of Pittsburgh were arrivals in Centre Hall Sunday evening, and for two weeks will remain at the home of Mr. Bitner's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Bitner. Mr. Bitner is city editor on the Pittsburgh Press, a position he has capably filled for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman and the latter's father, Mr. Gibbs, and Robert McCormick, of Thorofare, New Jersey, accompanied the body of Mrs. Sarah Reesman to Centre Hall, Wednesday. Two brothers—Daniel Ziegler of Millheim and John Ziegler of Tyrone—were also present at the funeral.

Adam Neese of Hartleton, on Saturday, accompanied Mrs. C. S. Brungart to Centre Hall in the latter's Kritt car. Since moving from Penns Valley, Mr. Neese removed the growth from his upper lip, and this change caused a lot of his friends to guess who the distinguished looking gentleman was. He reports conditions in his ballwick very good.

D. K. Geiss came up from Philadelphia Friday to the home of his son, D. W. Geiss, at Bellefonte. Wednesday father and son made a trip to Centre Hall where the senior Geiss was entertained for the day at the Huyett home. Although well up in years Mr. Geiss is still vigorous and enjoys engaging in conversation on any topic of the day.

The tent problem is a perplexing one to the Encampment Association this year. Seventeen new tents arrived Monday from Chicago, but even with this addition it is feared that all applications cannot be filled. The State Forestry Department is not certain whether they can supply tents this year, but the Encampment Association will make a desperate effort to avoid disappointments.

A post card from Mrs. Charles Beury, nee Ella Fischer, from Niagara Falls, states that good roads and delightful weather are joining in making their auto tour a pleasant one. With Mr. and Mrs. Beury are Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Fischer, at Hammondport, New York. Mr. Beury put aside the auto for the more modern travelling machine—the aeroplane—but the flight was a short one. Mr. Beury wishing merely to obey that impulse to soar in the air.

Course ticket holders during the 1913-1914 season will receive notice this week that by the payment of one dollar to the secretary, S. W. Smith, on or before August 27th, they will be permitted to retain the same seat during the 1914-1915 season. The selections for the coming course are unusually strong. The committee will endeavor to increase the number of course ticket holders, and will make a special effort to induce those in the rural districts to become interested

The BEATRICE is the typical modern separator supplied with a centrifugal washing device to clean the bowl in two minutes. (See illustration above). A separator, no matter what kind, requires washing twice a day. The BEATRICE, with its patent device makes washing the easiest thing imaginable and means much time saved on the farm in this one kind of daily work. Come in and see the beauty of construction in this machine; how silently it runs, and why it gets every drop of cream out of your milk.

Here is the Syracuse Riding Plow

Needs no description. Its great use among the farmers in Penns Valley speaks for its popularity. More farmers are using it every year. Get in line for one this year and prepare for better crops by doing better plowing. The Syracuse brings results.

The New Idea Manure Spreader

We received a short time ago a carload of these famous spreaders. The New Idea is more than a spreader, it is a pulverizer, putting the manure in best shape for distributing on the ground. It is simple and easy running, strongly built, and should have a place on every farm.

Burch's Clod Crusher

An elegant tool for crushing hard, lumpy earth and leaving the soil in narrow ridges, but fine and mellow. This implement acts upon the seed bed not unlike the spade on earth that is being packed by the railroad builder under the tie. It is an ideal implement.

Woven Wire Fencing—Carload of all kinds

We have the wide and narrow woven wire fence, all of the best makes, also plenty of barbed and smooth wire.

Must Suit You

Satisfaction Guaranteed—no catches nor technicalities in our guarantee. Your engine must satisfy you or you don't keep it. "Your good will means our success." That's the principal that built our business.

LAUSON FROST KING Gasoline Engines

have the new Lawson Gear-Driven Magneto, which eliminates all batteries. Built into the engine—won't wear out. Throws a big, hot spark that never weakens. Starts Easily—The Frost King starts on the magnet without turning over. Requires no cranking. Positively frost proof. Low fuel consumption—high efficiency. Case-hardened and ground wearing parts practically eliminates wear and breakage. We're back of this engine with our own reputation; we wouldn't handle it if there were anything questionable about it. If we can't start it—can't start you. Drop in and see how easily it starts and how smoothly it runs. Catalog free.
