

Backache Is a Warning

Nature always gives fair warning whenever anything is going wrong inside the body.

Kidney trouble is a dangerous thing, because the kidneys are the blood filters, and weak kidneys soon upset the healthiest system.

Doan's Kidney Pills is a most reliable kidney remedy. Doan's are used successfully all over the civilized world and are publicly recommended by thousands of grateful people.

A Virginia Case. Mrs. Virginia F. Spitzer, Lexington, Va., says: "Kidney trouble clung to me for twenty-eight years and I was a nervous wreck."

Possible Chance.

A young man who last month received his diploma has been looking around successively for a position, employment and a job.

"Do you suppose there is any opening here for a college graduate?" "Well, dere will be," was the reply.

"If de boss don't raise me salary to 'tree dollars a week by terrormor night."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Ought to Feel Tired. Bobbie—Don't you feel tired, Mr. Bibble?

Guest—No, Bobbie. Why do you ask? Bobbie—Cause pa said he met you last night and you were carrying an awful load.

The gentleman with the cloven hoof may trot with the gentleman who has a cloven breath.

The young man who has been jilted thinks that all the trouble in the world wears petticoats.

RIGID HONESTY IN ENGLAND

According to American Traveler, All People in That Country Are Considered Trustworthy.

London specifically and England generally are undoubtedly the most rigidly, thoughtlessly, automatically honest city and country I have ever discovered.

The other day I wanted an opera glass with which to pay more particular attention to some healthy young women the Londoners firmly believe are stage beauties.

In New York they not only chain the opera glasses, but they do everything but put bells and a whistle on them.

When you go traveling in England you first buy a ticket. Then you get into the carriage of the class for which you have purchased that ticket.

In the meantime it is assumed that you did not go into a first-class carriage, having bought a third-class ticket.

Two weeks ago the London papers made a sensation—so far as they are journalistically able to make a sensation out of anything—out of the fact that some one had persistently traveled on a time-expired commuter's ticket.

No action was taken until he had been caught at it three times, because the assumption was that he had made a mistake and would be frightfully put out when he discovered that he had picked up last month's ticket when he left home.

When he was finally summoned he said that he didn't do it—that it was a case of mistaken identity—and every one seemed happy to accept that explanation.

In the restaurants you help yourself to rolls and pastry and pay on your own tally. Motorbus conductors always give you the right change.

Country gentlemen imbed broken glass in the mortar on top of the walls that surround their estates. Then they leave the garden doors unlocked, secure that no one will attempt to enter.

On the Cape. Breathless Would-Be Passenger—Station-Master—You can go by any past five train leave?

Station-Master—Five-thirty. Passenger—Well, the post office clock is 27 minutes past, the post office clock is 25 minutes past, and your clock is 32 minutes past.

Station-Master—You can go by any clock you like, but you can't go by the train—it's gone.—Pearson's Weekly.

Making It Complete. Mr. Fred Kerr, the actor, was playing at Ranelagh, and at the Lake hole drove eight successive balls straight into the water.

The Difference. A man whose income is $500 a year or over is entitled to be called a gentleman in England. A man who earns that much is entitled to be called a gentleman in America.

DISAPPEARED. Coffee Ails Vanish Before Postum. It seems almost too good to be true, the way headache, nervousness, insomnia, and many other obscure troubles vanish when coffee is dismissed and Postum used as the regular table beverage.

The Reason is clear. Coffee contains a poisonous drug—caffeine—which causes the trouble, but Postum contains only the food elements in choice hard wheat with a little molasses.

A Phila. man grew enthusiastic and wrote as follows: "Until 18 months ago I used coffee regularly every day and suffered from headache, bitter taste in my mouth, and indigestion; was gloomy and irritable, had variable or absent appetite, loss of flesh, depressed in spirits, etc."

"I attribute these things to coffee, because since I quit it and have drunk Postum I feel better than I had for 20 years, am less susceptible to cold, have gained 20 lbs. and the symptoms have disappeared—vanished before Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pks.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—Is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

WOULD MAKE A POLITICIAN

Invitation and Answer. Mr. F. C. Phillips in his book, "My Varied Life," tells how the late Sir George Honeyman, an infamous writer, sent down from the bench to a friend of his, a leading Q. C., a little note.

"The late Adlai E. Stevenson," said a Republican leader of Bloomington, "hadn't, after all much use for politics. He once explained to me why this was."

"He said that party politicians believed their side to be always right, and the other side to be always wrong. Whatever the other side advocated, it was possible and infernal; whatever their own side advocated was holy."

"He said the partisan couldn't understand that you might arrive at the right thing by more ways than one—and thus the partisan was like the urchin whose teacher said:

"Willie, what does six plus four make?"

"Eleven."

"No. Try again."

"Twelve."

"No."

"Thirteen."

"No, no, no. You're just guessing. But why couldn't you have guessed that six plus four makes ten?"

"Because it don't make ten," said Willie. "Five and five makes ten—I remember that."

Unreasonable. George Bernard Shaw is one of the few vegetarians who have remained true to the faith, and in a recent letter to a woman, reproaching her for her fight against the cigarette when she still ate meat, Mr. Shaw said:

"The lack of logic prevails everywhere! We call the tiger a ferocious and ravaging beast, but what would you ladies be called if, for example, the lamb chop had a voice?"

INEXPENSIVE SULPHUR BATHS AT HOME

People travel long distances and spend large sums of money to secure the benefits of sulphur springs and baths because for generations sulphur has been known to be one of nature's most valuable curatives unequalled as a blood purifier.

By dissolving 2 to 4 tablespoonfuls of Hancock's Sulphur Compound in a hot bath you get the same effect and your system absorbs the sulphur through the pores of the skin.

For prickly heat and summer skin troubles of infants and children use a teaspoonful of the Sulphur Compound in a bowl of warm water. This makes a refreshing bath and quickly alleviates the pain. Sold by all dealers 50c. a bottle. Hancock Liquid Sulphur Co., Baltimore, Md.—Adv.

Good Eating.

"Metchnikoff, the Metchnikoff of sour milk fame, is soon to celebrate in Paris," said a Paris correspondent on furlough in New York, "his seventieth birthday."

"Since his sixtieth birthday, when he began his sour-milk regime, Metchnikoff has not aged. On the contrary, he has become rejuvenated."

"To the committee that has in charge the splendid honors of his birthday celebration, Metchnikoff gave some advice on the benefits of frugal eating—the benefits of taking no alcohol, very little meat, and an abundance of well cooked green vegetables. And he ended his lecture with this crystal of wisdom:

"Good eating makes more pessimists than bad luck."

BABY HAD SCALP TROUBLE

Carthage, Texas.—"My little girl had some kind of breaking out on her head that came in white blisters and when the blisters burst they formed something like scales. If I washed her head and combed the scales off they would come again in just a few days. The trouble looked something like dandruff but was hard and scaly and when the scales would come off all of the hair came also and would leave the head raw."

"I had tried salves which only softened the scales so I decided to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed her head with warm water and Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment and let it remain over night. I used only one box of Cuticura Soap and one bar of Cuticura Soap and her head was well." (Signed) Mrs. Luella Biggs, Jan. 28, 1914.
