Fry-Kaup.
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Kaup, at Boalsburg, at high noon yesterday (Wednesday), their second daughter, Miss Esther Kaup, became the wife of James Fry of Clearfield. About seventy-five invited guests witnessed the pretty nuptials which was performed by Rev. J. I. Stoneypher of the Lutheran church, employing the ring ceremony.
Details of the wedding will be published next week.

The Weather for August.
The average maximum temperature for August was close to the ninety-degree mark. The rainfall for the month was light, only one inch and a half falling during the thirty-one days. The heaviest precipitation occurred last week—Thursday and Friday—at which time the rain gauge registered a fall of eighty-six hundredths of an inch. The ground had been so dry as a result of the protracted drought that plowing was very little benefited.

Four Siles To Go Up.
The value of the silo to the farmer, from an economic standpoint, is becoming more fully realized. In a little community east of Centre Hall four large silos are to be constructed, according to the Centre Oak correspondent. The farmers taking this step are, J. K. Bittner, W. D. Barigos, H. B. Fratkanberger, and Israel Spayd.

Two automobile loads from this place spent Friday in Lock Haven.

If you can say "I am for Pennsylvania," call at the Reporter office for a button with that inscription on it. Well, of course, we are all for Pennsylvania, especially the boys for whom the buttons are intended.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

What People Are Doing in Harris Township's Principal Burg, as Reported by the Reporter's Faithful Correspondent.

The picnic on Thursday was a most delightful one. The day was all that could be desired, and the grove where it was held is one of the most inviting places in this locality. On the tables was found everything that was good to eat. The band furnished ice cream and other luxuries. After dinner R. B. Harrison gave an address of welcome and Clement Dale of Bellefonte responded. Other speakers were D. F. Fortney of Bellefonte and Rev. C. T. Aikens of Susquehanna University. E. W. Sweeney read letters from Judge B. F. Keller, Charleston, Virginia, and Rev. G. W. Leisher of Cleveland, Ohio, who were formerly from Boalsburg. Then followed music by the band and a male quartette, closing the program by all uniting in singing "America."
After this a game of baseball was played in an adjoining field. Those who did not feel interested in the ball game remained in the grove and had a social time.
Among the number who enjoyed the day with us were some of our old companions of bygone days, from different parts of the state, who were all heartily welcomed by the committee in charge and by the people of Boalsburg and vicinity in general.
The occasion was one long to be remembered.

Mrs. Mary Taylor of Milroy was here for the picnic.
Miss Helen Coney has gone to Williamsport to a business college.
Services will be held in the Reformed church Sunday at 10:15.
Miss Esther Brown is home from Harrisburg for a vacation.
Miss Alida Rothrock was home from Bloomsburg for a two weeks vacation.
Miss Ruth Rupp from the Altoona hospital is home for a three weeks vacation.
Mrs. William Kuhn and daughter Miss Ruth, are visitors from Williamsport.
B. F. Haffley of Aaronsburg spent a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. W. Meyer.
The ladies civic club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. Brown Friday evening, September 4th.
Fred Ishler departed on Wednesday for Altoona where he will be a student of the High School.
Mrs. Ella Jackson with her two boys were visitors from Huntingdon.
Robert Wieland and Miss Ethel Gingerich are attending the High School at State College.
Edward R. Weber and sister, Miss Alice, of Huntingdon enjoyed a ten days visit with Centre county friends.
Mrs. Margaret Riley enjoyed an auto ride to Millburg with some of the Weber family at State College.
Mrs. Charles Dunham with her sons John and Robert, of Staten Island, N. Y., spent a day with relatives at Boalsburg.
Mrs. R. B. Harrison and daughter, Miss Rhoda, and Miss Leona Wieland enjoyed a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brooks spent Sunday with relatives in Ferguson township.
Misses Rhoda Harrison and Leona Wieland will leave their millinery opening Wednesday and Thursday, September 9th and 10th.
Mr. and Mrs. James Poorman attended the funeral of the latter's sister, Mrs. Mary Wilson, at Linden Hall on Saturday.
Our new postmaster, Jacob Meyer, took charge of the postoffice on the 1st. Miss Gussie Murray will be his assistant for some time.
James Fry of Philadelphia and Miss Esther Kaup of Boalsburg were united in marriage by Rev. J. I. Stoneypher at the home of the bride, at noon September 2nd. Congratulations are extended.
Mrs. Annie Kreamer and son Condo, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wagner and their friend Mr. Lauver, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McIntire and Mrs. W. E. Gettig and son William Henry were visitors from Altoona last week.

Will Be at Encampment & Fair.
We will be fully prepared to look after your comfort during the Grange Encampment and Fair at Centre Hall, in the event of cool weather or rain, with a full line of raincoats, sweaters, umbrellas, parasols, children's coats, etc. You will find us at Hartline's stand. Look for the sign.
HERR'S DEPARTMENT STORE, Millheim.

Colyer.
Hurrah! It is soon picnic time. The farmers are about ready to do their seeding.
Arthur Holderman was through here with his threshing machine.
Miss Mary Neff, opened her school on Monday morning at this place.
Mrs. G. R. Meiss last week returned home from Altoona where she spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. George Yarnell.
Letters not called for in Centre Hall postoffice September 1: Samuel Barutis, T. B. Wardner—G. M. Boal, postmaster.

REBERSBURG

Mrs. Levi Watson of Bellefonte is at present visiting under the parental roof at this place.

Mr. Wagner and family of Harrisburg are sojourning at the home of William Blair.
Our public schools opened last Tuesday with Prof. C. L. Gramley as principal.
Some of our farmers are sowing wheat this week while others have acres to plow yet.
Mr. and Mrs. David Meyer of Centre Hall spent a few days last week visiting relatives at this place.
Mrs. Benjamin Smith of Philadelphia is visiting relatives and old acquaintances in town.
Forest Ocker of Millburg will in the near future move to this place and occupy part of Charles Bierly's house.
Mrs. George Miller is taking care of Mrs. Thomas Garret who received two paralytic strokes the past week.
Prof. Strack, who was principal of our schools last year, was an over-sunday visitor in our town and spent most of his time with his best girl.
That Smultron melon of which the correspondent made mention of several weeks ago has not been divided yet. We hope Rebersburg will get a small slice too.
One day last week the stork visited the home of Prof. Auman and left a wee little baby boy to his daughter, Miriam, who is married to Harry Confer of Millheim.
The Sunday-school picnic which was to have been held in a woods-south-east of this place last Saturday, was, on account of the rain, postponed until a later date.
The condition of Charles Bierly, of whose illness mention was made in last week's paper, is not very promising. He is growing weaker every day.
We are sorry to learn that our medicine man, Dr. H. G. Krape, is closing out his stock of medicine. The Dr. will hereafter give all his time to selling as well as tuning musical instruments at which he is an expert. He also offers two suites at a bargain.

Centre Mills.
William Auman and family spent a week's vacation at Centre Mills. William Auman spent several days with his mother, Mrs. Emerick. He was kicked by a horse and had several ribs cracked.
Mr. and Mrs. Weaver and son, and Mrs. Weaver's sisters were visitors at the home of Adam Reish.
Miss Minnie Kline is at Philadelphia attending campmeeting.
Prof. and Mrs. Godshall started for Syracuse, N. Y., where Mr. Godshall expects to teach.
Miss Edna Bailey of Syracuse, N. Y., came to the home of her grandparents to spend several weeks, then she will return to Syracuse to attend school. She had been at Philadelphia attending campmeeting for two weeks.

COURT PROCLAMATION.
Whereas the Honorable Ellis L. Orvis, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the Forty-ninth Judicial District, consisting of the county of Centre, having issued his precept bearing date the 6th day of August, 1914, to me directed for holding a Court of Common Pleas, Orphans Court, Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the FOURTH MONDAY OF SEPTEMBER, being the 28th day of September, 1914, and to continue two weeks.

Notice is hereby given to the Clerks, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, and Constables of said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 28th, with their records, inquiries, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertain to be done and those who are bound in recognizances, to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in jail of Centre county, be then and there to appear in person, or by their attorneys, given under my hand at Bellefonte, the 24th day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1914, and the one hundred and thirty-eighth year of the independence of the United States of America.
