

FRIENDS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Buttons and Pledge Cards may be had at the Reports Office.

Last week a statement was made in these columns that a movement was put on foot by Mr. McCormick, Democratic candidate for governor, to organize the boys in the state, pledging them for better government in Pennsylvania. "True Blue" buttons, and a supply of pledge cards and leaflets describing the new league for good government known as the "Friends of Pennsylvania," have been sent to this office where boys may secure them. The pledge card contains the following:

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP in the FRIENDS OF PENNSYLVANIA

Enrolled Member

Sign this card and keep it where you will often see it. Additional cards and badges may be obtained from DEMOCRATIC STATE COMM. Harrisburg, Pa.

PURPOSE.

"To maintain Pennsylvania's good name and to be an earnest enemy of every man, political organization, institution or custom that would mar Pennsylvania's political purity or moral integrity."

PLEDGE.

"I believe in Pennsylvania, my State. I glory in the ideals upon which she was founded, in the noble part she has borne in the country's history, and in the character of her people today.

"As a solemn obligation of loyalty, I pledge myself to defend the good name of my State and to endeavor myself to be such a free, fearless and patriotic citizen as will reflect honor upon her name.

"For the sake of Pennsylvania I promise to use my sincerest and most intelligent efforts to learn the facts concerning political conditions and candidates for public office; and to oppose with all my might any party or man that is unworthy of the best traditions and ideals of Pennsylvania.

"To this end, I solemnly covenant to put my patriotism above partisanship and above all personal considerations that I may be a true citizen of the Keystone state; and I shall seek to enlist others in this same pledge allegiance."

The Lecture Course.

The Centre Hall lecture course committee held a meeting Tuesday evening, and among other things decided to advance the price of single admissions to all numbers, and this schedule of prices was adopted: Admission to musicals, thirty-five cents; five cents additional for reserved seats; admission to lectures, twenty-five cents; five cents additional for reserved seats. Course tickets remain the same, $1.00 for the five numbers.

The musicals this year are of such a high grade and entered so largely in the cost of the course, that the committee felt justified that these two numbers should bear a larger proportion of the expense than heretofore.

There are a number of good seats to be had for those who wish to secure course tickets, the price of which remains the same as heretofore—$1.00

DEATHS.

Mrs. Catharine C. Shook, widow of the late J. C. Shook, died at her home in Spring Mills Monday afternoon at about one o'clock, following a week's illness with Bright's disease. Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning in the Penns Creek Lutheran church at Penn Hall, and will be conducted by Rev. D. M. Geesey, of Aaronsburg and Rev. Sheeder of Clarion, the latter a former pastor. Interment will take place in Heckman's cemetery at Penn Hall.

Mrs. Shook was the youngest of the children to the first wife of Daniel Luse, deceased, and the only surviving member of that union is Daniel F. Luse of Centre Hall. She is also survived by three half-brothers, namely, Malcolm A. Luse, Norfolk, Virginia; P. H. Luse, Centre Hall; and L. M. Luse, Coburn.

In her marriage to J. C. Shook no children were born, but they took in their home and raised as their own, three children. Mr. Shook died ten years ago and since that time Mrs. Shook had charge of the small dairy business which they had conducted for some time. At the time of her death she was sixty years, three months and twenty-five days old.

"Aunt Kate", as she was lovingly known by everybody in Spring Mills lived a beautiful Christian life and her benevolent deeds and acts of charity will keep for her a place in the hearts of those who knew her.

Boalsburg and community was profoundly shocked Tuesday evening when it learned that one of its most industrious and upright young men—Daniel Mothersbaugh—had died at eight o'clock, following a short illness of two weeks' duration with rheumatic fever. He together with his brother, Charles Mothersbaugh, were engaged in farming the Mothersbaugh homestead, and a short time ago was thrown from a horse, and while not seriously injured, it is presumed that the accident was the underlying cause of the illness which terminated in his death.

Mr. Mothersbaugh was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Mothersbaugh and was about twenty-nine years of age. He was married less than a year ago to Miss Mary Koch, who survives him together with his parents and the following brothers and sister, namely, Charles, on the homestead; William and George, near Boalsburg; Keller, of Williamsport; and Mrs. Reuben Stuart, of Pittsburgh.

The time for funeral services had not been set up to the time of going to press. They will, however, be held in the Reformed church and interment will be made at Boalsburg, Rev. S. C. Stover officiating.

Andrew Jackson Stover, for many years a resident of Haines township, died at the home of his son, Warren F. Stover, near Spring Mills, on Sunday morning. His age was sixty-eight years, seven months and four days. He had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for a year or more. Mr. Stover was twice married. The first wife was Annie Stover, and the second her sister, Eve Stover. Five children survive: Amos A., Aaronsburg; Warren F., Spring Mills; William F., Wolf's Store; Mrs. Katie Hess, Scotland, S. D.; and Martin, Coburn, the latter a son of the second wife. Mrs. Julia Kremer, Aaronsburg, is a surviving sister, and George M., and Benjamin, Aaronsburg; Jacob, James and Jefferson, Berlin Springs, Michigan, are brothers.

Interment was made at Wolf's Chapel, Wednesday, Rev. Donat officiating.

Oliver S. Shaw died at his home in State College Saturday afternoon from intestinal indigestion and complications, aged fifty-nine years. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church at State College Wednesday morning and interment took place at Pine Grove Mills. Services at the grave were in charge of the I. O. O. F. and M. W. of A.

Mr. Shaw was a deacon in the Lutheran church at State College and an upright and industrious citizen. Besides being identified with the societies mentioned above he was also a member of the Rebekahs, Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors. He is survived by a wife but no children.

Mrs. Mary Jane Wilson died at her home in Linden Hall Wednesday of last week, following an illness which had its beginning two years ago when she suffered a paralytic stroke. Since that time she had been partially helpless. Funeral services were conducted in the United Evangelical church, of which she was a member, Saturday morning, by Rev. F. H. Fox, and interment was made at Linden Hall. She was aged sixty-nine years and six months. One son, Leonard Wilson, survives.

Personality of Candidates.

Vance C. McCormick, Democratic candidate for governor, and Farmer Cressy, candidate for lieutenant governor, are getting handsome receptions wherever they go and, for that matter, so are all the Democratic candidates. Mr. McCormick is being discovered as a personality well worth knowing by the sections of the state that did not know him. He improves upon acquaintance.

There is a good deal in the personality of a candidate for high office. People very often make up their minds about a man as he personally impresses them. So far no man who has come in contact with Mr. McCormick during the present campaign has had anything to say but that he was charmed and delighted by the frank open-handed man who has been nominated by the Pennsylvania Democracy for governor.

There is a greater disposition to know candidates for office now than there once was. People want to meet them, want to shake hands with them, want to converse with them, want to measure them at arm's length. They would rather come in contact with the candidates in this way than to listen to them on the stump an hour. The old-fashioned homely virtues of manhood are more likely to come out when men are together at short range. Under those circumstances candidates are more likely to reveal the real stuff that is in them. The public has a right to know about things of this kind and to be able to form its own conclusions.

Aaronsburg.

Blain Ritner of Spring Mills was a very welcome caller on Sunday at the home of his aunt, Alice Bright.

Mrs. R. Emma Hess is at present under the care of Dr. C. S. Musser, suffering with lumbago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corman of Winbur are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Stover.

Mrs. George McCormick and sons, William and Robert, are spending some time with Mrs. McCormick's parents.

Helen Bower, Marion Eisenhaur, Mae Guisewite, Marion Adams, Mada, Martha and Rhoda Bower, and Albert Mingle are students in the Millheim High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Vonada, his father and son-in-law, J. H. and Harry Crouse, and Miss Alice Bright, were to Lock Haven on Wednesday to Boyd's car to see the airship—stay on the ground. They spent the day, however, among relatives in the Clinton county city.

Those who autored to Lock Haven last week to witness the aeroplane flight were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stover, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mingle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stover and family, Z. D. Thomas and niece, Miss Rebecca Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bower. All were disappointed in the failure of the airman to make good.

The BEATRICE is the typical modern separator supplied with a centrifugal washing device to clean the bowl in two minutes. (See illustration above). A separator, no matter what kind, requires washing twice a day. The BEATRICE, with its patent device makes washing the easiest thing imaginable and means much time saved on the farm in this one kind of daily work. Come in and see the beauty of construction in this machine; how silently it runs and why it gets every drop of cream out of your milk.

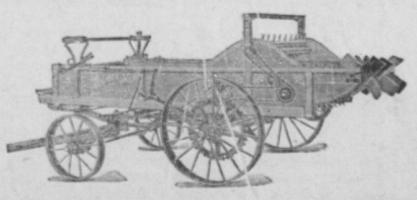

Here is the Syracuse Riding Plow

Needs no description. Its great use among the farmers in Penna Valley speaks for its popularity. More farmers are using it every year. Get in line for one this year and prepare for better crops by doing better plowing. The Syracuse brings results.

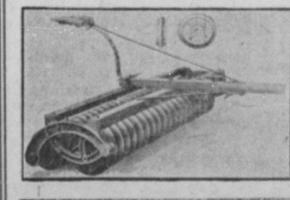

The New Idea Manure Spreader

We received a short time ago a carload of these famous spreaders. The New Idea is more than a spreader, it is a pulverizer, putting the manure in best shape for distributing on the ground. It is simple and easy running, strongly built, and should have a place on every farm.

Burch's Clod Crusher

An elegant tool for crushing hard, lumpy earth and leaving the soil in narrow ridges, but fine and mellow. This implement acts upon the seed bed not unlike the spayd on earth that is being packed by the railroad builder under the tie. It is an ideal implement.

Woven Wire Fencing—Carload of all kinds

We have the wide and narrow woven wire fence, all of the best makes, also plenty of barbed and smooth wire.
