Samuel B. Davis, Esq., of Kansas City, Missouri, was entertained by Miss Annie Bible, a cousin, for a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Davis and two sons, both attorneys, arrived in New York from Paris on Sunday, and while the remainder of the family stayed in that city with a daughter of Mr. Davis, the head of the family came to Centre county to look over the scenes of his youth. When a boy of ten, Mr. Davis, with his father, James Davis, lived in a tenement house on the Bible farm, and also lived on the Alexander farm at Earlstown. Fifty-eight years ago the elder Davis and his wife, nee Susan Bitner, went to Iowa, and finally to Kansas. When the son grew to manhood he took up the law profession, and as an attorney was successful and accumulated a fortune. He is now living retired. The old haunts of more than a half century ago brought back many fond recollections of that day.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Sarah Shreffler, widow of the late John Shreffler, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Barnard, at Mill Hall, Sunday. She was eighty-three years of age and last May suffered a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which she never fully recovered. The body was shipped to Pleasant Gap Wednesday and funeral services were held in the Lutheran church, the following ministers officiating: Rev. Ilgenfritz of Mill Hall, Rev. D. J. From of Pleasant Gap, and Rev. D. A. Sower, a former pastor at Pleasant Gap. Interment followed in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Shreffler lived in Pleasant Gap a number of years ago, where Mr. Shreffler was engaged in carpet weaving. His death occurred about ten years ago and four years later Mrs. Shreffler removed to Mill Hall to live with her daughter. Surviving her are the following children: John, of Mill Hall; Fred and Charles, of Bellefonte; G. W., of Ocochea Mills; Mrs. Edward Evers, of Hublerburg; and Mrs. Anna Barnard, of Mill Hall. One sister, Mrs. Joanna Krieder, of Mill Hall, also survives.

Deceased was an aunt of Mrs. David Kerr of Centre Hall.

Following an illness of two weeks' duration, John S. Beaver, employed for the past two years at the Schmitt house, Altoona, died Sunday morning at the Altoona hospital of a complication of diseases, superinduced by uraemia. He was admitted to the institution on Friday last and gradually declined until death claimed him.

The deceased was born at Aaronsburg, August 12, 1889, and was unmarried. He is survived by three brothers and sisters: Mrs. Frances Russler, of Altoona; Mrs. Vera Auer, of Altoona; Mrs. Catherine Calhoun, Mrs. Anna Reed, all of Milroy; Miss Mary Beaver, of Shamokin; Frank, of Aaronsburg; Laura, of State College; Jennie, M. Ids and Rufus Beaver, all of Milroy.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, followed by interment at Milroy.

NEWS OF 1880.

Notes Taken From Files of The Centre Reporter of Thirty-four Years Ago.

September 2nd.—A. S. Kerlin of Potter township has united with Messrs. F. Anclous and Woods in the proposed establishment of a new axe factory. It will be located at Cold Springs, west of Tyrone.

A son of John Weaver of near Centre Hall was hurt by a rocket striking him on the forehead while in the Hancock torchlight parade at Bellefonte, on the eve of 24th.

The largest potatoes thus far, this summer, is a lot sent to this office by Jacob Harpster. He pronounces them Hancock potatoes, and they must be, for the are fine, large, superb fellows, and hard to beat.

September 9th.—The seventh annual picnic of the Centre county grangers will be held on Nittany Mountain, near Centre Hall, Thursday, Sept. 16. It will be a large affair.

Ex-sheriff Richard Conley died on last Saturday afternoon, at his home in Benner township, from the effects of a cancer in the face, which has given him considerable trouble for a number of years. Mr. Conley was a good citizen and respected by his large circle of acquaintances. He lived near Centre Hall when elected as Sheriff. He was seventy-one years of age and father of John Conley of this place.

Married—On Sept. 1st, by Rev. M. N. Shadow, John Royer and Miss Mary A. Boal, both of Tusseyville.

Mrs. Rena Bilger has been entertaining a number of girl friends from Lewisburg, the past two weeks.

Mrs. Helen Boyles of Altoona is visiting at the home of J. N. Brooks, at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Noll were Sunday visitors to Altoona. They were visiting with Mr. Noll's sisters, Mrs. P. Brooks and Mrs. Paul Keller.

Hudson Barnes of Altoona was a visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. R. P. Barnes, on Monday. Mrs. Barnes will accompany her son to Altoona for a month's outing.

John Sweeney, who has been ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Raudenbush, is not improving very fast; he is suffering from hardening of the liver. His home is in Monongahela City, where he was employed as check weighman.

The Lutherans in Pleasant Gap held their Harvest Home service on Sunday at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon by Rev. Stoneycypher on "Stir up Your Talents," was inspiring. The decorations of potted plants, fruit and flowers were beautiful.

Kessler's Fall Opening. HAVING received our entire line of Fall merchandise, we cordially invite everyone to come in and inspect it. Of the merit of the line we will not speak, other than to say that it upholds our reputation of former seasons, for getting the newest and best in everything. But of the prices we will say that everything will be priced as low as before, even though the prices of raw materials continue to advance. Our line this Fall is another tribute to our policy of careful buying, through which we have saved our patrons large amounts of money. WE CALL SPECIAL ATTENTION TO OUR LADIES' COATS AND SUITS of which we have a surprising variety, no two of which are alike. A call will demonstrate to you the truth of our statements. Don't delay it; we are pleased to show you around. KESSLER'S DEPARTMENT STORE MILLHEIM, PA.
