

The Beginning of the Week Taken Up With a Number of Cases of Minor Importance.

Court convened on Monday morning, and after hearing a number of motions and petitions and taking returns of the constables of the townships, the grand jury was called and sworn, W. A. Lyon, butcher of Bellefonte, being selected as foreman.

The civil trial list for this week as well as next was then gone over and the following cases disposed of:

Effie Taylor and John Taylor vs. Edward Bubb and John Bubb, continued under rule of court on the plaintiff to file a statement.

Farmers and Breeders Mutual Reserve Fund Live Stock Insurance Company vs. E. I. Musser, continued. Same vs. W. F. Colyer, settled.

Same vs. Stewart S. Keen, settled. D. W. Geiss vs. N. J. Hockman, settled.

Belle M. Mattern vs. Irvin G. Gray, Andrew Febr, Perry Hill, Adam Boyer, George Foster, Gray Oliver Irvin, and Clyde Goheen Gray, being an action in trespass; continued.

Stony Brook Slate and Brick Company, a corporation, vs. Centre Brick and Clay Company, a corporation, guarantor of the United Brick and Clay Products Company, a corporation, being an action in assumption; continued, the case being special.

The following criminal cases were disposed of:

Comm. vs. Jacob Burkhardt; charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons; prosecutor Thomas J. McMahon; defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty. Sentence suspended upon payment of costs.

Comm. vs. S. F. Smith; charged with feloniously laying a trap to destroy human life and property; prosecutor, John Waugh, nolle prossed.

The Monday afternoon sessions was taken up in the hearing of a case of Schwanger-Klein Company vs. S. E. Kimport; being an action originally brought before a Justice of the Peace and appealed to Court, and is brought to recover a balance on a refrigerator. The testimony of the defendant being to the effect that the refrigerator wouldn't work and complaint made to the company, but they could not make it work satisfactorily to the defendant, and that the defendant afterwards had repairs made to the refrigerator sufficient to cover the balance claimed by the plaintiff company. The testimony one-half of the plaintiff being that the refrigerator had not been guaranteed. Verdict in favor of defendant.

Comm. vs. Charles Mayes, charged with assault; prosecutor Roy Flegal; defendant waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty, whereupon sentence was suspended upon the payment of costs prior to court.

Comm. vs. Roy Cofer, John Kelley, Charles Bowes, Jacob Brickley and Caleb Miller; charged with assault and battery and threats; prosecutor Joseph Rightmour; bill ignored and county to pay the costs.

Tuesday morning the case of the Commonwealth vs. two sons of Burdine Butler was tried. It appears the two sons were instructed to cut down repeatedly a portion of fence erected by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The fence was destroyed so that the Butlers could continue to water their cattle at a point long used by them. The question for the jury was to decide whether the boys were guilty of wanton and malicious conduct, and they said no, but the costs were placed on the defendant.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Dornblaser, wife of Rev. T. F. Dornblaser, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church, Chicago, Illinois, died Friday, 18th instant, at her home at 2249 Larabee street. Mrs. Dornblaser's maiden name was Miss Anna Shannon. She was the daughter of the late John S. Shannon, and grew to womanhood in Centre Hall. She was a school teacher by profession, and taught the lower grade in the old red school house in this place, and there are many of the readers of this paper who were her pupils. This was back in the latter sixties and early seventies.

Mrs. Dornblaser was born in Centre Hall, on September 6, 1849. She accompanied her husband when he was a missionary in Kansas during the frontier days.

She has resided in Chicago since eleven years ago, when her husband went to Chicago from Dixon, Illinois. She was a member of the Woman's Lutheran League of Illinois and of the general missionary board.

She is survived by five children—Mrs. James Phillips, John S. Dornblaser, Mrs. Roger Walters, and Paul Logan Dornblaser of Amboy, Illinois. Paul Dornblaser, a Robert Waller high school athlete, recently graduated from the law school of the university of Missouri.

Funeral services were held at Grace Lutheran church, Dr. Bannen of Rockford, Illinois, and Dr. Altman of Dixon, Illinois, officiating.

SECRETARY WILSON AT PHILIPSBURG

Palmer, McNair, Cressy, Bright and Clark greeted in West. a Portion of Centre County by 1500 Persons.

Secretary Wilson was given a big ovation at Philipsburg Tuesday evening. He addressed 1500 persons there, where he has been spending part of his vacation with a brother. He endorsed the entire Democratic state ticket and gave his reasons why the entire ticket should be elected. He was accompanied by Mr. Palmer, candidate for United States Senator; Mr. McNair, candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs; William T. Cressy, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Robert S. Bright and Arthur B. Clark, candidates for Congress-at-Large.

Mr. Wilson began his address by saying:

"I am here because the administration at Washington stands behind the Democratic ticket in this state from top to bottom.

"Prejudice has given way to reason in latter years and there has been a great change in sentiment. The policy of the present administration is of such a character that it has received the moral support of all the people and now deserves the political support of all voters."

Secretary Wilson outlined the work of the Wilson administration telling of the tariff reforms, the currency legislation, the Panama tolls matter, the Mexican policy and other measures and things that have gained the continent-wide confidence of the people for the government at Washington.

Then, continuing, he said that with this confidence in the administration prevailing the people should reflect it here in Pennsylvania by voting for the Palmer-McCormick ticket.

"The reason the administration is for the ticket and why the people should be for it is," he continued, "that the candidates are honest, straightforward and courageous men."

The secretary paid a tribute to Mr. Palmer for his support of President Wilson and told of his personal investigation into the labor record of Mr. McCormick, Democratic nominee for Governor. He said the gubernatorial candidate's attitude on labor was absolutely right, that his investigation had proven that the stories told about him were without any foundation and that he as a labor union man advocated the election of McCormick.

Speaking in Dr. Brumbaugh's former home, Huntingdon, Congressman Palmer said that the Penrose-Vare gubernatorial candidate used to be all right before he got in with bad company and that because of the Penrose influence over Dr. Brumbaugh, the citizens of his home county should in voting regard only patriotism and not friendship.

Congressman Palmer had an attentive listener to his Huntingdon address in Justice George B. Orsady, of the State Superior Court, and nobody smiled broader than he when the congressman, referring to the volunteer services of ex-Governor Pennypacker, in behalf of the defense of Penrose, was that "Uncle Samuel" had wakened from his Rip Van Winkle's sleep. It was Pennypacker who appointed Judge Orsady to the bench. The judge accompanied the congressman as far as Tyrone.

At night Congressman Palmer took up the 23rd charge in his indictment against the Standard Oil Senator, showing how Penrose had never turned a hand in the Senate to advance employers, liability and workmen's compensation laws.

The BEATRICE is the typical modern separator supplied with a centrifugal washing device to clean the bowl in two minutes. (See illustration above). A separator, no matter what kind, requires washing twice a day. The BEATRICE, with its patent device makes washing the easiest thing imaginable and means much time saved on the farm in this one kind of daily work. Come in and see the beauty of construction in this machine; how silently it runs and why it gets every drop of cream out of your milk.

Here is the Syracuse Riding Plow

Needs no description. Its great use among the farmers in Penna Valley speaks for its popularity. More farmers are using it every year. Get in line for one this year and prepare for better crops by doing better plowing. The Syracuse brings results.

The New Idea Manure Spreader

We received a short time ago a carload of these famous spreaders. The New Idea is more than a spreader, it is a pulverizer, putting the manure in best shape for distributing on the ground. It is simple and easy running, strongly built, and should have a place on every farm.

Burch's Clod Crusher

An elegant tool for crushing hard, lumpy earth and leaving the soil in narrow ridges, but fine and mellow. This implement acts upon the seed bed not unlike the spayd on earth that is being packed by the railroad builder under the tie. It is an ideal implement.

Woven Wire Fencing—Carload of all kinds

We have the wide and narrow woven wire fence, all of the best makes, also plenty of barbed and smooth wire.
