CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning.

afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.
Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills,

Kurtz will preach.

If you mean to give McCormick real support for governor, cast your vote not only for him but for Mr. Miller, for the legislature, and Mr. Patterson for state senate.

On the ground that hotels with license to sell rum can afford to give better accommodations, Mr. Scott, the Republican candidate for the legislature, says he "absolutely favors the granting of licenses." This indicates that he is willing to profit by the money spent over the bar for booze; that to him it is no concern whether the mother and the children in the home are sufficiently cared for or not, if he and others of his opinion can get better accommodations at licensed houses, the evil of the rum traffic is warranted. Do you want a man with such opinions to make your laws?
Would you expect such a man to be fair on other questions?

The long drought was broken Tuesday evening when the first rain fell since August 23. The rain continued to fall throughout the night and in the morning the government gauge registered a precipitation of over three-quarters of an inch, a good rain under normal conditions, but much more is needed at this time to do any material good.

With a week still to go on until the opening of the hunting season, Treasurer John D. Miller has issued over eight hundred licenses. This is four hundred less than for the corresponding period of last year, but it is thought that there will be a rush for the white arm tags at the eleventh hour and that the number will equal that of last year.

Legation Belge,
Washington, D. C.,
Wednesday, Sept. 23.

Dear Mrs. Stuart:
The barrel, box, and bale arrived yesterday in good shape. I cannot thank you, and the other ladies, enough for your generosity. It is needless to tell you of the good it will do the many unfortunate ones, who, through your kindness, will have clothing. Might I ask for a list with the names and addresses of those who so generously contributed, as I want to thank each one for the interest and help shown to my countrymen. I shall have to ask for a little patience, as this relief work requires many letters, and I take pleasure in attending to it myself. Will the president be good enough to express to one and all my gratitude.

Very sincerely,
HELEN HAVEWITH.

DROPS DEAD IN CORN FIELD.

Ross, Centre Hall, and Mrs. W. A.
Murray, Boalsburg.

Interment was made at Centre Hall Tuesday morning, the services at both the home and the church having been conducted by Rev. J. M. Rarick, a former pastor of the Lutheran church.
The attendance at the funeral was quite large, and the church was filled to hear the sermon for the occasion.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Catharine Bitner, probably the oldest lady in Gregg township, died on Tuesday at noon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Meyer, near Penn Hall, where she had been making her home for several years. The funeral will be held Saturday morning, and the services will be conducted by Rev. D. M. Geesey, her pastor, and Rev. W. D. Donat; interment in the Salem cemetery.

Mrs. Bitner was aged ten days less than eighty-seven years. She was a daughter of Daniel Catherman, and one of seventeen children, all of whom reached maturity. The father, at the age of eighty, was the first of the family to die. Several of the children reached and others exceeded the age of the father, as did also the mother. Two surviving brothers are Daniel, Hart-leton; Reuben, Dakota, Illinois; and these sisters also survive: Mrs. Sarah Emerick, Minnesota; Mrs. Amelia Bingman, Laureton; Mrs. Tamar Derr, Lewisburg. The eight of her ten children living are William, Spring Mills; Joseph K., Farmers Mills; Dr. Henry F., Centre Hall; Mrs. J. S.
Meyer, Penn Hall; James C., Monroe, Wisconsin; Daniel N., Hastings, Nebraska; Robert U., Avis; Mrs. Harry Long, Newark, Ohio.

Mrs. Bitner was a remarkably well preserved lady, and up to wit in a week of her death was very active in body and had the full use of all her mental faculties. She visited her son at Centre Hall during the Grange Encampment and Fair and enjoyed the gathering as much as any one. She was the widow of Jacob Bitner, and prior to 1860 lived on the Bible farm below Centre Hall. From there the family moved to the Coburn farm near Spring Mills, where the father died in 1880.

Jeremiah Snively, a highly respected citizen of Gregg township, died at his home in Spring Mills, Thursday night at eleven o'clock, of a complication of diseases and old age. He had been in delicate health all summer, but it was only a week ago that his condition took a serious turn. He was confined to bed for a period of but a week. Funeral services were held Monday morning in the Lutheran church and interment took place in the Union cemetery. Rev. J. M.
Rearick, of Williamsburg, a former pastor of the deceased, was the officiating minister.

Mr. Snively was born in Potter township, a little more than seventy years ago and was engaged in farming all his life. Up until sixteen years ago he tilled the farm now tenanted by Bruce Hettinger, two miles east of Old Fort. He was twice married, his first wife preceding him to the grave sixteen years ago. To this union two children were born, namely, John Snively, Spring Mills, and Mrs. Andrew Rote, Farmers Mills. His second wife survives him with no children. No brothers or sisters survive.

Mrs. Michael Hettinger died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S.
Musser, at Columbia, Lancaster county, Sunday morning, of old age, being between seventy-six and seventy-seven years old. Her body was brought to Spring Mills Wednesday afternoon and burial was made direct from the train in the Georges Valley cemetery.
Mrs. Hettinger was the mother of twelve children, seven of whom survive, namely: W. H., Spring Mills; Robert E., Spring Mills; Henry, Altoona; Frank, Georges Valley; Mrs.
W. S. Musser, Miss Catharine Hettinger, Columbia; Mrs. Lucy Wesley, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hettinger lived on the Samuel Ertle farm, in Georges Valley, some thirty years ago and it was here that Mr. Hettinger met his death when a team of spirited colts ran off and he became entangled in the lines and was dragged to his death before the animals could be brought to a stop. Mrs. Hettinger continued to live in Georges Valley until ten years ago when she moved to Columbia to live with her daughter.

Hugh Wance, an aged resident of Aaronsburg, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Abner Hill, in Aaronsburg, Wednesday of last week, from the effects of an apoplectic stroke.
Funeral services were held Monday morning from his late residence and interment followed in the Aaronsburg cemetery. Rev. D. M. Geesey, of the Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a member, officiating. Mr.
Wance was a hard laboring man all his life and at the time of his death was past seventy-one years of age.
Surviving him are three sons and three daughters, namely, Israel, Irvin, and William, all of Aaronsburg; Mrs.
Abner Hill, Aaronsburg; Mrs. Alma Long, Potter county; Mrs. Blanche Shultz, Spring Bank.

Mrs. Samantha Kuehle died in St.
Louis, Missouri, Thursday of last week, of infirmities of old age, being in her seventy-fifth year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bair, both deceased, of Madisonburg and spent her early years in that vicinity. She was twice married, her first husband being William Hoeterman of Rebersburg, who is now dead.
To their union three children were born, all of whom died in infancy.
She was later married to Mr. Kuehle, who survives her with no children.
One sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Lease, of Cleveland, Ohio, also survives.
