The Republican State Committee, by an overwhelming vote, refused to insert in the platform a local option plank. The liquor interests are openly, notoriously and energetically backing Senator Penrose. It is a serious matter, so serious that, unless we greatly mistake the temper of our fellow citizens, it will not be permitted to go unrebuked.

When W. H. Patterson is elected State Senator on November 3rd, this district will have a man in the State Senate who can stand upon his feet and advocate the interests of his district. The interests of the 34th Senatorial District will be in safe and competent hands.

Mr. Miller, the Democratic candidate for legislature, carried a gun during the sixties. He is worthy of your support. Vote for him.

Registration Shows Democratic Gains.

State Chairman Roland S. Morris, of the Democratic party, in a statement issued from State headquarters, expressed decided encouragement over the complete returns of registration in the cities of the State.

"The more complete the registration returns, the more favorable appears the prospect of Democratic victory," said Chairman Morris. "Distinct Democratic gains are shown in practically every city from which returns have been received. This is particularly true of Republican cities."

"The desperate efforts of the organization to roll up a huge Republican enrollment in the cities to offset the large rural vote, which will be cast almost solidly against the machine ticket, have signally failed, and victory is in sight for the forces of decency and clean government. All that remains is for the independent voters in the cities, and especially in the rural districts, to go to the polls on election day."

No man will ever have cause to regret having voted for William E. Tobias for Congress. He was raised upon a farm and taught school all over Clearfield county. His nine years successful administration as county superintendent of schools demonstrates that he has the ability necessary for a successful congressman. He knows the needs of the district better than any other man running and should be elected.

ANNOUNCEMENT

G. W. Swartz, at Tusseyville, Will Quit Mercantile Business--Big Bargains to be Offered in All Lines.

Opening Day of Sale, Saturday, Oct. 24th

I hereby announce that on account of my health I deem it advisable to quit the mercantile business.

Before I can step out I have a large stock of merchandise to dispose of. I haven't tried to find a buyer for the entire stock—I will first offer it to the public. My set time limit to dispose of it is this Winter and next Spring, unless I can dispose of it in less time.

This is a rare opportunity—I say rare because I am giving you a chance to buy a big lot of seasonal goods at about cost and under cost prices. I had laid in a big stock of winter goods before I decided to quit so that many of these goods are new.

Prices on everything will be reduced. It would take too much space and time to quote prices here so I would say, come to my store and get prices and the goods. If you come for something and don't see it, ask for it; I may have it. I have many goods you don't see.

I expect to keep the grocery stock filled in and will give you special prices right along.

If your neighbors don't get the Reporter do them a kindness by telling them about it.

Yours for business,
C. W. SWARTZ,
Tusseyville, Pa.

DIXON'S BE LTH TALKS.

Timely topic of "War News and Health" Discussed by Commissioner of Health.

"I could a tale unfold, whose lightest word would harrow up thy soul."

With the greater portion of the space in the newspapers devoted to the news from the fields of conflict it is inevitable that the interest of the nation should be centered upon the titanic struggle now waging. Modern facilities for the gathering and transmission of news make it possible for all of us to familiarize ourselves with the details of the struggle. The strictest of censorship does not forbid the publication of page after page of distressing stories.

It verges upon the miraculous, this ability to read at the breakfast table history which has been made but a few hours previous. We pay a price for it however greater than is generally appreciated. Continual depression of mind reacts upon the body and interferes with its functions. Dwelling upon the harrowing stories of peaceful cities devastated and death and destruction stalking grimly over Christian lands cannot help but stir the most phlegmatic soul with horror.

With these vivid impressions continually before us day after day the most serene surroundings take on a dire aspect. Peace and quietude are impossible.

The effect of all this upon those who are not unusually vigorous and sane may be positively dangerous. For those who are aged and infirm it is certain to result in marked physical as well as mental depression. The connection between the mind and the nerve centers which control the vital organs is of extreme delicacy and is little understood. Certain it is that continued mental disturbance is often the forerunner of serious bodily ailments.

While it is not to be expected that anyone will entirely abstain from keeping the run of the war it is well to exercise restraint in this regard. Do not allow it to monopolize your thoughts. The cultivation of optimism and a cheerful view of life is at all times desirable; under the present conditions it is the best of health insurance.

"The Philadelphia Record."

About three-quarters of the newspapers of the country seem to be laboring under the impression of late that there is little of consequence going on anywhere in the world but the European war. A notable exception is "The Philadelphia Record", whose editors preserve a just sense of proportion in the presentation of the news, as usual. The war is getting all the attention it deserves in "The Record" in the shape of full and satisfying accounts from all the foreign sources; but it is not allowed to overshadow reports of other events, at home and abroad, in which well-balanced newspaper readers are interested.

Fredom from sensationalism has served "The Philadelphia Record" well in this war situation. It has not been obliged to overtax its ingenuity (as have some other newspapers, which had exhausted their typographical resources in giving startling prominence to unimportant matters in time of peace) to "play up" the war news.

"Record" popularity is perhaps accounted for by its versatility. "The Philadelphia Record" covers every phase of human activity in its varied departments, and stands in the good graces of every member of the family. It is fair, clean, reliable, bright and entertaining. It is a level-headed all-around news paper for intelligent people who want trust worthy news of all happenings worth reading about, served in attractive form.
