

LOCALS

Saturday evening the annual ingathering of fruit and vegetables for the Losville orphans will be held in the Lutheran church. All members are urged to send or bring their contributions at this time.—By order of W. H. & F. M. S.

The Reporter is desirous of publishing as complete a report of the deer and bear killing this season as it is possible to obtain and would request that any of its readers coming in knowledge of deer or bear killed will please phone to this office such information.

A enjoyable auto trip to Liverpool, Perry county, was made in the Bartholomew car, Saturday, by the following: W. H. Bartholomew, Miss Jennie Bartholomew of Pleasant Gap, Miss Helen Bartholomew, Mrs. C. D. Bartholomew and daughters Margaret and Elizabeth. At that place they were guests of Mr. Bartholomew's sister, Mrs. Romig, wife of Rev. Moses Romig, a Lutheran minister.

The citizens of Centre Hall and vicinity had a part in the ship that sailed from Philadelphia laden with useful articles and toys and will reach its destination on the eastern continent by Christmas time. The local contributions were made through the Child Federation society, Philadelphia, and a letter received by Mrs. King states that that society forwarded $6,140 41 and 116,000 articles to the ship Jason.

Howard Homan, who, in company with Mrs. Homan, is on his way east from a most delightful journey through the far western states, writes the Reporter from Altamont, Wyoming, thus: "We are on our way to Pennsylvania. Left Los Angeles, November 4, via Salt Lake. Have crossed several mountain ranges, and just now came through a tunnel one and one-fourth miles in length; I prefer going over. Have seen some fine cattle and sheep in this state. We have passed through California, Nevada and Utah."

A sneak thief is operating in Centre Hall, and since he is rather bold it is expected that he will be captured before he finishes his season's work. Two complaints were recently lodged against the individual by W. J. Mitterling and L. L. Smith. At the former place a sack of potatoes was carried away, and at the latter place a rooster. The aggrieved parties have suspicions that no doubt will later be confirmed. The sneak thief was an unknown quantity in Centre Hall for a long while, and there is an inclination to forestall the development of a new character.
