LOCALS

Miss Orpha Gramley of Spring Mills was a guest at the Bartholomew home on Tuesday.

Samuel Shoop was down from State College, Tuesday, to close his home for the winter.

Misses Stella and Esther Raymond of Boalsburg were guests of Miss Mary Whiteman on Thursday.

The Pink Label will appear next week. If you want your label to look real good to the printer you will know what to do.

William Snyder lost a 200-lb. porker beginning of this week. It was one of two hogs he intended butchering in a short time.

Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh of Boalsburg and Mrs. Earl Ross of near State College were guests at the Henry E. Homan home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wolf of Aaronsburg attended the meeting of Pomona Grange at Centre Hall, Wednesday, making the trip in their Buick car.

Miss Anna Kuhn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kuhn of Old Fort, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Bellefonte hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Blaklee and son Russell, and Miss DeArmond, of DuBois were entertained for a short time Saturday at the home of Mrs. Blaklee's niece, Mrs. F. H. Foss.

The body of Catharine Keene, a little child who died at Pleasant Gap last July, was disinterred and taken by F. V. Goodhart to Northumberland for reburial, on Wednesday. The trip was made in C. S. Brungart's car.

Mr. Kessler, the Millheim clothier, made a second trip to New York recently to purchase the very latest and best in wearing apparel, and this excellent display of dependable merchandise will be shown tomorrow (Friday). Do not miss it. adv.

Mrs. M. E. Strohm will close her home in a few weeks and go to Phillipsburg, New Jersey, where she will spend the winter, as has been her custom for the past several years, with her daughter, Mrs. L. S. P. Person.

Rev. Isaac Heckman of Sunbury was in Centre Hall the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Goodhart Monday and Tuesday, having come here in quest of horse flesh. Rev. Heckman was pastor of the local Methodist church about twenty years ago, but is now not serving a charge. He was greeted by many of his former parishioners.

Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Krise received the happy announcement that a dear baby girl arrived at the home of their son, W. S. Krise, in Johnstown, Thursday. The grandparents were especially proud of their new granddaughter because of the fact that the children born to this union have now reached into the double figures—10.

Mr. M. Murray Balsam, manager of Herr's Department Store, will leave Millheim Tuesday, November 23rd, for New York and Philadelphia where he will spend a week or so purchasing winter apparel. This invitation has been extended him by the various wholesale houses who have agreed to furnish him with the best in their line at very low prices; hence the reason for the second trip this fall. We wish him a safe journey and speedy return. adv.

DEATHS.

Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock death claimed one of Pleasant Gap's oldest and most highly respected citizens when Henry N. Twitmir succumbed to a complication of diseases after being confined to bed for only two weeks. He was seventy-two years of age. Funeral services will be held Friday morning in the Methodist church in Pleasant Gap and burial will be made in the Zion cemetery. Mr. Twitmir was born in Zion but at an early age moved with his parents to Pleasant Gap where he has lived continuously. At the outbreak of the war of the rebellion he enlisted in the cause of the north and served his country during the entire period of hostilities. After the war he returned home and engaged in the wagon making and cabinet making trade, in which work he was engaged up until a short time before his fatal sickness.

Surviving him are his wife, who before marriage was Miss Miley Brooks, and the following children: Mrs. J. Abner Noll, Mrs. W. H. Noll, Mrs. Harry Hile, Mrs. Jared Ebey, Mrs. Ward Shewers, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. James Corl, Chicago; Miss Mary, at home; Harry, Pittsirn. All the children were at the bedside of their father when the death angel came. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Dr. John Twitmir, Sharpville; Mrs. Mary Schreffler, Pittsburg; Mrs. Samuel Decker, Bellefonte; Edward Twitmir, Seattle, Washington; Harvey Twitmir, Pittsburg; Jared Twitmir, Illinois.

John Pettit Packer died at the home of his twin sister, Mrs. C. B. Dewes, of Pittsburg, last week, at the age of sixty-four years.

Mr. Packer, who for a number of years was a wholesale lumber dealer, was born in Howard and was the son of John P. Packer and Sarah Llewelyn Packer. After attending the public schools of his home county he entered the West Chester Military Academy at West Chester, where he graduated. He went to Pittsburgh thirty-five years ago and entered the lumber business, which he continued till about fourteen years ago, when he established lumber yards in Harrisburg and Philadelphia. He sold out all his business interests about four years ago and retired from active life. Three children survive.

Mrs. Mariah George, familiarly known as "Polly" George, died at her home in Aaronsburg Monday afternoon at four o'clock, after a week's illness with consumption, aged seventy-four years and eight months. Funeral services will be held in the United Evangelical church Friday morning and interment will follow in the cemetery at Aaronsburg, Rev. W. H. Brown officiating. She was a widow. No children survive, and only one brother, namely, Henry Frantz of Sunbury.

Samuel Alters, a retired farmer living about a mile west of Coburn, died Saturday of locomotor ataxia, at the age of sixty-three years and eight months. Funeral services were held at his late home Tuesday and interment was made in the Fairview cemetery, Millheim, Rev. W. Donat of the Reformed church officiating. Besides his wife he leaves two sons, both at home.

Ray Knecht, a senior in Pennsylvania State College, died Tuesday of last week at his home in Lock Haven, of typhoid fever.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Evangelical church at Centre Hall, at 10:30 a. m., and in the Reformed church at Spring Mills, at 7:30 p. m., on Thanksgiving Day. Rev. W. H. Williams will preach the sermon on this occasion. The offerings at these services will be for the benefit of the hospital at Bellefonte. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present at these services, and thus comply with the request of the president of the United States and the government of Pennsylvania, and also show their gratitude to Almighty God.

R. R. JONES,
Sec'y Ministerial Ass'n.

Coxey-Koch.

At the Lutheran parsonage, in Bellefonte, Wednesday of last week, by Rev. W. M. B. Glandig, Roy Coxey and Miss Ruth Koch, both of Boalsburg, were united in marriage. They immediately began housekeeping in the James Poorman home where they will live temporarily, or until Mr. and Mrs. Poorman return from their trip to the west. The best wishes of their numerous friends go with them for a long and happy wedded life.

REBERSBURG

Our farmers are doing their fall plowing.

C. O. Mallory is confined to his house with a severe spell of sickness.

Charles Birly, Sr., is lying at the point of death.

Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Hazel returned from their western trip.

Our mountains are chock full of hunters and game seems to be plentiful.

George Day has found employment as all round boy at the home of Samuel Bierly.

The Bell telephone line has quite recently been extended to the extreme eastern part of this valley.

Mrs. J. K. Moyer vacated her house and will spend the winter with her children.

Wilson Cole, who was employed at Alexandria, Huntingdon county, is at home looking after the wants of his family.

Butchering is all the go at this place this week. There are large sausage and crocks full of liver worst now in the larder.

The class-color scrap between the juniors and seniors of our high school became very interesting towards the last. The juniors won out and succeeded in burning the seniors' colors.

Last Sunday morning when Mrs. George Crouse went out to feed her fattening hogs she was astonished to find one of them lying in the stable dead.

The oil prospectors are meeting with quite a lot of difficulties while probing mother earth. They are at present down 355 feet and are still pounding away on solid rock.

George Haines has rented his farm to McClellan Wert, who will move there next spring. Mr. Braucht, the present tenant, will move to Penna Valley on a farm near Wolfs Chapel.

Newton Weber has rented the Jasper Brungart farm and Cal Weaver, the present tenant on the farm, will this coming spring make sale of his farm stock and move to this town where he bought a home.

Brings result—A Reporter ad.

Spring Mills.

There are still a few cases of measles. Sales are quite numerous this fall: Snively's will be on the 21st.

Quite a number of people were to State College on Friday and Saturday. P. J. Litzell of Belvidere, Ill., who came east to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. J. D. Long, left on Monday for his home.

Thomas Caldwell of Bellefonte is installing a light plant in Dr. H. F. Braucht's residence.

Mrs. C. C. Cummings accompanied Mrs. Susan Herring to Lewisburg on Saturday where she expects to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Donachy.

Georges Valley.

Mrs. Ida Ripka visited Mrs. Rose Lingle last Saturday.

S. L. Immel spent last Monday at the home of Samuel Lingle.

Mrs. James Barger is spending this week at Centre Hill at the home of her son, Maynard L. Barger.

Frank Mishler returned to his home in Johnstown, Wednesday, after spending a week with F. M. Ackerman.

The infant daughter of C. J. Ripka was buried last Sunday at the mountain cemetery.

Steward Ripka of Pleasant Gap made a busin-as trip to this place on Saturday.

HERR'S Department Store
"THE HOME OF THE FASTIDIOUS"

STOP!! LOOK!! LISTEN!!

NO, there is no train in sight, but there's a Carload of Bargains in sight for everyone.

STOP!! and consider for a moment what a great opportunity our weekly sales afford.

LOOK!! in at our display windows and see a few of the bargains we're offering.

LISTEN!! to what we have to say about the quality of our goods and then--

BUY!!!

Because that is what you certainly will do. Our goods have that attractiveness about them that makes "The first-purchase patron always a patron." For the week preceding Thanksgiving we're making a speciality of our--

Woolen Hose, Shirts, Underwear, Gloves, Trousers, Jackets, Sweaters, Etc. Our line of Balmachans, Overcoats, Suits, Mackinaws, Etc., is as usual up to the minute in style and quality.

AND THE PRICES?

Well, we're continuing to sell at a trifle above cost. "Sufficit." Lincoln once said, "You can't fool all the people all the time." Experience is a great teacher, and therefore we can't see the necessity of fooling ANY of the people ANY time. Ask our patrons.

Variety is the spice of life, and you'll get "that and more" in a visit to--
