

SLAUGHTERING THE DEER.

Present Season is Proving to be Most Successful in Years for Many Hunting Parties—Nine Bears Killed in Paddy Mountain District.

The hunters aren't killing deer, they are slaughtering them, according to reports coming in from the many camps on the Seven Mountains.

Mr. Peate of Northumberland came to Coburn on Monday in his auto and before night had three bears which he loaded in his car and returned home the following day.

Mr. Troutman of Middleburg spent a day near Coburn and succeeded in killing a deer.

Mr. Maxwell, a passenger fireman from Harrisburg, arrived at Coburn in the morning train, Wednesday, returning in the afternoon, but not without a fine deer which he killed in the mountain a short distance below Coburn.

Coming nearer home, the Potters Mills party have met with the best success in the first week's hunt.

The Pleasant Gap party broke camp Monday, having to their credit two bucks, killed by Harold Kerstetter and Ammon Kerstetter.

The Potters Mills party have one. The Olympic club of Palmyra have two.

The Penn Hall hunters have two. The Sweetwood party have one. The Faust party of Reedsville killed one deer.

The Riley party of Boalsburg have two fine deer.

Welfare Week.

Under the above title Chaplain Charles E. Varney and Rev. Mecca Marie Varney will conduct meetings in Grange Arcadia during the whole of the week of December 7th.

Chaplain Varney is billed as a psychologist and humorist, and his wife, Rev. Varney, as a noted woman orator.

All meetings will be free. Inquiry made at points where these specialists have held Welfare Week bring the information that the Varneys were altogether capable of both entertaining and instructing the large audience that greeted them at every session.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

What People Are Doing in Harris Township's Principal Burg, as Reported by the Reporter's Faithful Correspondent.

John K. Stover is home from Philadelphia for a two weeks' vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Lupold of East Petersburg are visiting with relatives at State College and Boalsburg.

The library society of the Boalsburg high school will hold their second meeting Friday evening at 7:30.

R. E. Harrison attended the U. S. Court at Williamsport last week as a petit juror.

Quite a number of persons from this place attended the exercises at State College on Friday.

T. R. Weber of State College broke his arm last Thursday when cranking his automobile.

Miss Mary Reed of Petersburg is in this place taking orders for Christmas books for children as well as for older people; also other good books.

The ladies of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Lutheran church will have their annual thank offering on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Reformed church on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, at 7:15. Rev. J. I. Stonecypher will preach the sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Poorman closed their house at Boalsburg on Tuesday and departed for the west, where they expect to spend the winter with relatives in Nebraska, Kansas, and Wisconsin.

Some time ago a flower bed was made on the central square in Boalsburg under the direction of T. D. Boal.

The civic club was requested to plant flowers and take care of them. At a meeting of the club it was decided to plant tulip bulbs this fall.

Two hundred bulbs were purchased. On Saturday several of the ladies planted them; the outside and inner rings are of red tulip bulbs, and the middle rings are bulbs of yellow tulips.

Friday was a very stormy day. C. W. Corl was threshing grain at Frank Whitehill, at Houseville, and several small children were playing near the straw stack, when part of it was blown over and covered a little four-year-old boy named Walter.

The other children ran into the house to tell their mother who hurried out. Work was commenced at once and in a short time the child was found lying on his face, none the worse for having been hidden about eighteen or twenty feet from the outer part of the stack.

A number of the class in agriculture of the Boalsburg high school entered the corn judging contest at State College on Saturday. Louis Rothrock won first prize, a two and a half gold piece; Ida Segner won second prize, a good book on agriculture; Martha Houz, third, a blue ribbon; Edwin Dale of State College, fourth, a blue ribbon; and Riley Stover, fifth, a blue ribbon.

Some of the girls had bread, cake and canned fruit at the State College exhibit but as yet they have not heard the result of contest.

The attendance for the second month of school was 98 per cent. for the girls and 95 per cent. for the boys. Those present every day in second month were Daisy Rowe, Martha Houz, Edwina Wieland, Ida Segner, Rebekah Wieland, Kathryn Koch, Grace Wieland, Mildred Wieland, Russell Ishler, Forrest Miller, Riley Stover, Myles Thomas, Boyd Wieland, Charles Hosterman, Samuel Ross, Louis Rothrock, Cyrus Wagner and Earl Williams.

LUTHER DAY SERVICE.

Rev. Glandig, Lutheran Pastor in Bellefonte, Delivers Masterful Sermon on the Reformer.

Shortly after last anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther, the Reformer, Rev. W. M. B. Glandig, pastor of the Lutheran church in Bellefonte, delivered a masterful sermon on Luther, and following are excerpts of the discourse:

Text: "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." Pa. 46:1.

Mendic. Principles live. A movement of reform may be started by some and completed by others.

In the church at Wittenberg, Germany, there is precious human dust. A little over four hundred and thirty-one years ago Martin Luther was born.

He was not opposed to the Catholic church as an institution. He protested as a loyal son of the church against the sins and errors of the ruling element. He always appealed to Scripture and the teachings of the fathers.

In the course of the controversy he begged for the privilege of defense before an Imperial council. The request was granted. He appeared at the diet of Worms on April 18th, 1521. Carlyle calls this the greatest scene in modern history.

1. Preparations for the appearance at the diet. When Charles V, an Austro-Spaniard, came to the throne of the Holy Roman Empire, he found the realm in a state of greatest commotion.

2. The journey from Wittenberg to Worms. On April 2 the monk started. This step required uncommon courage. His path was surrounded with dark forebodings.

3. Before the diet. The news of Luther's arrival in Worms spread rapidly throughout the whole city. The Emperor summoned the council.

4. Luther's arrival in Worms. spread rapidly throughout the whole city. The Emperor summoned the council. The Chancellor of Flanders advised that the monk be gotten rid of at once.

The Beatrice Cream Separator

SAVES YOU from $25 to $40

and has all the good features found in the higher priced machines. These are the qualities that make it valuable.

Clean Skimming Easy Running Light Running Long Life Few Repairs

(Shows Simple Method of Cleaning Discs)

The BEATRICE is the typical modern separator supplied with a centrifugal washing device to clean the bowl in two minutes. (See illustration above). A separator, no matter what kind, requires washing twice a day. The BEATRICE, with its patent device makes washing the easiest thing imaginable and means much time saved on the farm in this one kind of daily work. Come in and see the beauty of construction in this machine; how silently it runs and why it gets every drop of cream out of your milk.

The New Idea Manure Spreader

We received a short time ago a carload of these famous spreaders. The New Idea is more than a spreader, it is a pulverizer, putting the manure in best shape for distributing on the ground. It is simple and easy running, strongly built, and should have a place on every farm.

Woven Wire Fencing--Carload of all kinds

We have the wide and narrow woven wire fence, all of the best makes, also plenty of barbed and smooth wire.
