DEER LAW TO CHANGE, PROBABLY.

Next Legislature Will be Asked to Change

Season to Run from December 1 to 15, " Deer hunters and many men interested in hunting throughout Pennsylseason to make it run from December 1 to 15 will be made" declared Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the state and the change in the law should be made on humanitarian grounds, if none other. off the trees and the bird hunters have production," Mr. Lighty; "Alfalfa," finished up their hunting," he con- 8. W. Smith. tinued. "With the leaves off there is less danger of people being killed and poke, pasture, pen and parlor," Mr. ed and as snow comes early in Decem- lantern slides, Mr. Phillips. ber in some quarters it will be better for hunting. I think that when we get the figures compiled and show the agement," Mr. Card; "Corn growing number of people killed or wounded by mistake that force of these arguments will be recognized."

Dr. Kalbfus says that the deer seathe number of bucks killed will be large, although he says that shooting of does went on. The bodies were found and efforts to arrest the persons responsible will be made.

Every game warden, the paid men and the men who act as wardens through love of sport and game preservation, will be asked to make a report of the number of deer, pheasants S. W. Smith, advertising; John J. and quail killed.

The game official is of the opinion that the shooting of wild turkeys will be legalized next year. There has been a closed season on turkeys for two years.

Democrats Plan for All-Year Work.

Democratic State Chairman Morris ned to keep the state organization ment in its own party that at the last election voted direct for Penrose and Chairman Morris has opened offices ness methods will be used, and the about due. It is stated that a test of by Rev. William Skeath of that place. more readily from the meat than does above and one below. same vigorous personal enthusiasm the fuel has been made at Indianap- The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. the intestinal casing. Further, it is of on the part of McCormick, Palmer olis, and that the effect is apparently James S. Stahl of this place and has a uniform diameter throughout its and the others that marked their the same as if gasoline had been used. number of friends who will note with whole length and thus makes a better work from the day they smashed the old Democratic "machine" will pre-

College Teaching Farming to Many by Mail Pennsylvania who could not find time studied agriculture by correspondence the process for extracting gold from Reporter extends congratulations. with The Pennsylvania State College. sea water. About fifty per cent of them have completed the courses, and were awarded certificates of proficiency.

Prof. T. I. Mairs, who has charge of the long-distance instruction, said the courses attracting most attention were: poultry raising, farm book keeping, gardening, fruit growing and general agriculture. He added that the new $1. course in cooking is rapidly gaining in popularity.

"The enrollment of more than 1,500 persons each year in these correspond-"is good evidence that teaching agriculture by mail has become an important phase of the extension work of the American agricultural colleges." In his opinion it reaches peo- twp. $5,250. ple who cannot leave the farm or the place of business.

Last year, according to Professor Mairs, 15,000 papers were examined and returned to the correspondence C. Hosterman, tract of land in Gregg students. He finds the individuals twp. $225. most interested are young farmers, from 20 to 30 years old, farm women, clerks, business and professional men.

Golden Wedding Celebrated.

Hon. and Mrs. Alexander G. Morris celebrated their golden wedding at Bellefonte, Saturday, with a formal reception from 3 o'clock until 10 in the evening. In addition to their five children and four grandchildren, a special train brought friends from Altoons and Tyrone, while guests were $1. also present from Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburg.

Mr. Morris is president of the American Lime and Stone Company and has large business interests throughout the state.

B. H. Arney Buys Property.

Benjamin H. Arney purchased the Mrs. Kate Saunders property on the place next spring.

Court opens Monday.

Program for Farmers' Institute

The first of the county farmers' institutes will be held at Centre Hall, Monday and Tuesday, December 14 and 15. Unionville comes next, Wednesday and Thursday, December 16 vania will ask the next legislature to and 17. Philipsburg is last, Friday change the deer hunting season and I and Saturday, December 18 and 19. sincerely trust that a change of the The following program has been arranged for the two days' session here:

Monday morning, 9:30-Address of welcome, Dr. H. F. Bitner; "Need of game commission. "The season Lime in the Soil," Mr. Phillips just closed has been very success- "Maintaining and Improving Soil ful, but there have been people killed Fertility," Mr. Lighty; "Soil management," Mr. Card.

Monday afternoon, 1:30-" How to buy and use commercial fertilizers." "After December 1 the leaves are all Mr. Phillips; "The business of dairy

Monday evening, 7:30-" The pig in Tuesday morning, 9:30-" Poultry farming," Mr. Phillips; "Farm man--a large crop," Mr. Lighty. Tuesday afternoon, 1:30-" Fruit growing," Mr. Card; "Silo, soiling and pasture," Mr. Lighty; "Poultry son has been very successful and that houses - location, construction and care," Mr. Phillips. Tuesday evening, 7:30-" The rural school-Some suggestions for improvement," Mr. Lighty; "Some lessons at school," Mr. Card ; " What education should a farmer's son have," Prof. C. R. Neff.

Local committee :- Dr. H. F. Bitner, chairman; Hon. Leonard Rhone, Arney, programme; Edward Crawford, music; Mrs. Carrie Bradford, decorations.

A Cheap Substitute for Gasoline.

It is claimed that a substitute for gasoline as a fuel for motor cars has been discovered. It is also asserted has planned for all-year work-plan- that this substitute is easy to make and costs only about two cents a galalive every day in the year, and not lon. Since the principal ingredient in only for a bri f time before elections, the manufacturing process is said to be By this plan the organization will be rain water, the cheapness is evident. better.fitted to combat during the 1916 Rain water, a secret chemical and a campaign not only the foe of opposi- still are the requisites demanded, action parties but the discredited ele- cording to the story that comes out of the west.

If this invention is not of the Keely motor sort, and if somebody is not spreading fairy tales, inroads in the Sherlock, both of Altoona, were quiet-It is to be demonstrated at the New pleasure his advent into the conjugal appearance. It is also uniform, and who is in business under the firm tained at her home Misses Marcia called, for themselves. It is to be change. They will reside at Twenty- greatly benefit the sausage maker and follows: or the funds to attend coffege have hoped that this does not turn out like second Avenue and Fifth Street. The those who eat it and will remove alto-

Transfers of Real Estate.

Nannie C. Lytle to Mary E. Croyle, tract of land in Philipsburg. $2000. tract of land in Spring twp. $85.

Witham, tract of land in Walker twp.

boro. $54 '.

ence courses," said Professor Mairs, tract of land in Bellefonte boro. $1. land in Bellefonte boro. $1.

Hosterman, 2 tracts of land in Potter young couple will wish them joy and

F. D. Hosterman's heirs to W. P. life. Hosterman, 3 tracts of land in Gregg F. D. Hosterman's heirs to Emma

John F. Hosterman et ux to W. P

Hosterman, 2 tracts of land in Potter twp. $7,500.

Clara M. Smith et bar to J. C. Struble, tract of land in Ferguson twp.

B. S. Miller et ux to Sarah Corman, tract of land in Spring twp. $35. John Swaney et ux to Rachel Mil. ler, tract of land in Spring twp. $30. Whiterock Quarries to A. M. Kerstetter, tract of land in Spring twp.

Elmer W. Evey et ux to Russell O. Shirk, tract of land in State College boro. $275. Ed. A. Bower, admr. to Andrew Behm et al, tract of land in Haines twp. $5,789.18. The Varneys Not Leeches,

Gossip has it that the Varneys, the Mrs. Kate Saunders property on Church street, last week. The consideration was $1300. Mr. Arney has not declared his intention to occupy the place part apring.

"Welfare Week" people, carried from Middleburg over $400. This is not the truth. Four hundred dollars were raised for a playground in Middle burg young man. They will take up house through the efforts of the Varneys. That is quite a different thing from carrying that much money away. The Varneys are not leeches.

"WELFARE WEEK."

cember 7th to 13th, Inclusive.

tendances at all periods. A silver of- ing. But it will not be long before fering, however, will be lifted.

has invariably been of an uplifting packing houses in this country and the number of accidents will be great- Card; "Pork production," Robert character. Week before last they ap- Canada. ly reduced. Deer can be better track- Campbell; "Poultry," illustrated by peared in Huntingdon and in commenting on these welfarists the "Monitor" said: "Mr. and Mrs. Varney are holding very successful welfare meetings in the Presbyterian ing. Details of its manufacture canchurch and are doing some good in not be given because these are covered enlivening the people to their own by patents. The pulp however, after good. If Mr. Varney can effect closer co-operation between the merchants and the buying public he will ac. The length of these tubes depends up. planist and the latter as a soloist. complish a great and lasting good."

The program is as follows: Monday evening-" Welfare Night"

Mr. and Mrs. Varney Tuesday, $:00 p. m.—Woman's Council 4:00 p. m.—Lecture, "The Grappling Hook Mr. Varney Tuesday evening-" Parents' Night"

Mr. Varney

Wednesday, 3:00 p. m.—Woman's Council Thursday, 3:00 p. m.—Woman's Council
Mrs. Varney 4:00 p. m.—Lecture, "Reary Reference"
Mrs. Varney

Friday, 3:00 p. m.—Woman's Council Mrs. Varney 4:00 p. m.-Lecture, "Taming a Giant"

4:00 p. m.-Lecture, "Taming a Giant"

Mr. Varney Friday evening-"Joy Night" Mr. Varney Saturday, 3:00 p. m.—Woman's Council Mrs. Varney

4:00 p. m.—Lecture, "Twig Bending" Mrs. Varney Saturday evening—" Big Brothers Night"
Mrs. Varney

Claud K. Stahl and Miss Bess C. York Automobile Show, it is said, state. He for a number of years has does not present the bundles of fibres name of McClellan & Breon, in Cam-According to the statement, the in- held a good clerical position with the that are common with the intestinal den, New York, writes under date of young ladies are all co-eds at Pennsylventors expect to make their money Pennsylvania Railroad Company at casing and it is possible to produce November 23rd, an interesting letter vania State College.

Harter-Smith.

At the Reformed parsonage, by Rev. R. R. Jones, on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, Harry K. Harter Charles C. Stroh to Caleb Miller, of Millheim and Miss Rosie F. Smith of Spring Mills, were united in mar-A. H. McCaleb Hoefs, et al to Ida L. riage. Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Tibben day last week. Mrs. Horner was Zubler and Miss Mabel Brown of William P. Humes et al to Louis Spring Mills. The party was convey-Hill et ux, tract of land in Bellefonte ed in Roy Gentzel's car. The groom holds a position in the service of the Louis Hill et ux to Belle Weaver, Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Altoons and he has a house already guest of Miss Grace Smith on Saturparks. In connection with all our are prospering. Belle Weaver to Louis Hill, tract of furnished for his bride, and they will day. commence housekeeping immediately. F. D. Hosterman's heirs to John F. The numerous friends of the happy happiness throughout their wedded Emenhizer-Ishier.

Paul D. Emenhizer and Miss Edna Ishler were married on the morning of Thanksgiving Day by Rev. G. W. Emenhizer, grandfather of the groom, at West Decatur, Clearfield county. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Ishler of Tusseyville and is a young lady possessing many accomplishments. The groom is a son of William Emenhizer of Pleasant Gap and is an industrious young farmer who has been assisting his father for a number of years on the home farm. The couple returned from a short honeymoon Saturday and for a few days were at the bride's home at Tusseyville where they were treated to an old-fashioned charivari.

Balsam-Cohen,

M. Murray Balsam, advertising manager of Herr's department store in Millheim, was married in Fyracuse, New York, Tuesday of last week, to Miss Catharine Cohen of Bellefonte, The groom is well known throughout

Sausage Casing from Wood Pulp,

At this season of the year when An Entire Week of Entertainment of an Up. nearly everyone is killing his hogs for lifting Character for Centre Hall, De- the winter's meat and the "biggest dinners " and the " biggest porkers" As has been previously announced are so common, it might be interestin these columns, Centre Hall is to ing to know of some new feature to have a "Welfare Week," to begin lessen the work and labor of these Monday evening of next week and "butcherings". What tastes and continue until Sunday evening. The eats better than a yard, more or less, sessions will all be held in Grange of good smoked country sausage, yet Hall and since there is no charge of everyone knows how much disagreeadmission there should be large at- able work it took to prepare the caseverybody will be buying and using Two people will do all the speaking sausage casing made from wood pulp, on these occasions. They are Chap- thus doing away with the washing lain Charles E. Varney and his wife, and cleaning of the intestines as at gents sleighed to Prof. Bitner's home Rev. Mecca Marie Varney. They are present. The wood sausage casing is near Penn Hall, where they came in people of refinement, culture, and high one of the newest uses to be found for morals and the work they have done wood pulp and it is already being used in towns where they have appeared commercially by several of the large

> This sausage casing is made of the best quality bleached sulphide wood pulp and is more sanitary and more serviceable than the old intestinal caswalled tubes of various diameters. on the skill of the operator of the machine, some of them being 500 to 600 made, they are reverted, and the imand brittle in drying. When dry the W. Love of Centre Hall.

From a sanitary standpoint, these diseases which might attack the hog, having had a jolly time. cleanliness in the process of manufacture, and absolute antiseptic proper- capital, accompanied by Wm. Wolf. ties. They also keep indefinitely in any kind of decay or putrefaction.

enables it to expand when filled by means of the ordinary filling machine bands around. or sausage stuffer. It is also strong of every "butchering."

LOCALS

Assessor D. A. Boozer is making the annual assessment, which must be completed by the end of this month.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Horner of Linden Hall, one Marion Burchfield before marriage.

Miss Ella Rhone of California, who has been spending several months ward have been closed for a period of New York City, via Utica and Altwo weeks on account of the preva- bany, and within a year or two exlence of diphtheria among children pect to have them connected to the who had been attending school.

Mrs. Laura Lee, Mrs. Samuel Shoop and Miss Rebecca Derstine, who con- 2500 inhabitants, of course we want it duct fraternity houses at State Col. better if we can have it. lege, spent a few days last week at their respective homes.

William B. Fiedler moved his house hold goods to State College, Tuesday. The vacated property was immediately occupied by Milton Bradford and Sheridan Garis moved into the Grove property, vacated by Mr. Bradford.

Boyd Lucas, who has been in New York City for some years and is a merchant tailor, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas, on Sinking Creek. Mr. Lucas is very much pleased with the great city. Stewart, the ten-year-old son of Mr.

and Mrs. James Callahan, who live on he Potter farm, had a grain of corn seats, 35c. lodge so securely in his ear, one day last week, that it became necessary to have him taken to the Bellefonte hospital to remove it.

John Woods and Charles Klinger, both of Boalsburg, were in town last Friday. The former is tenant on the Frank Brown farm now owned by T. S. Boal, and is getting along nicely. preferred breed.

NEWS OF 1881.

Notes Taken From Files of The Centre Reporter of Thirty-four Years Ago. January 13th-Sheriff Spangler has only four grub eaters in his county boarding house. D. C. Keller got back from a flying trip to Illinois. He found all the Centre county folks in a flourishing condition.

Elias W. Hale of Bellefonte has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic order in Centre and Clearfield counties. On Friday night last the bigger part contact with a huge turkey and knocked all the stuffing out of it. Rev. Fischer of this place boasts of the boss hen. During the last few weeks she had been hatching a lot of eggs, and the other day she was rewarded by a brood of chicks. We think, however, that they were frozen out instead of hatched. Profs. Wm. T. Meyer of Asronsburg and Lowell Meyer of Centre Hall bore leading parts in the recent musicseveral processes, is made into thin al convention at Freeburg and elicited much applause, the former as Married-On the 4th inst., at the residence of Daniel Horner, by Rev. feet long. When these tubes are once J. K. Miller, Jacob Sprow and Miss Catharine F. Horner, both of Potter curities are washed out, and the result township. On the 4th inst., by Rev. is a clear, transparent, colorless tube of S. M. Roeder, William Reiber and pure cellulose. This cellulose is with. Miss Mary E. Deckert, both of Potter out fibre, and entirely without seam township. On December 16th, 1880, or joint. They are finished in a dry by Rev. J. C. Oliver, J. Elmer Campstate, but are usually let stand a short bell of Linden Hall, and Miss Nettie take charge of a park in that section. time so that they do not become hard A. Love, daughter of the late Hon. W.

tubes are cut to suitable lengths and folks are taking advantage of the sleighing. Last Thursday evening farming on that place when Mr. Potwood casings present several noted ad- quite a party sleighed to Shannon ter quits. vantages, which are free from all Boal's, near Linden Hall, and report

The editor has gone to the nation's Prof. Feehrer, the well known band the dry state and are not subject to master, is at present instructing the Company in the capacity of a black-Centre Hall band. The band has re-Besides these valuable properties, organized lately and now consists of the wood casing is very elastic which ten members. We suppose the pro-

The contract for the school house at enough to stand the subsequent pro- Potters Mills was awarded to Horace cess of handling, cooking, hanging Zerby of this place, his bid, $1450, beof the State Committee at 147 South oil trust dividends and much happi- ly united in marriage at Millerstown, and smoking. The casing cuts as the ing the lowest. The house is to be Broad Street, Philadelphia. Busi- ness on the part of automobilists are Perry county, on Thanksgiving Day, ordinary casing, peeling off rather brick and two stories high, one room

Letter From Former Resident,

M. P. Breon, son of Perry W. Breon, along the plumbing and roofing lines. A light lunch will be served. We have just completed the plumbing and heating contract in our Emergency Hospital of which we are rather proud.

"We hope to have a sewer system in good system of water works and fine electric light system, an arc light among friends in the east, was the system for lighting our street and village conveniences we have now a The schools and churches in Wood- fine line of state road from Camden to prominent resorts in the Adirondacks-We are rather proud of our village of

> "Very truly, " M. P. BREON,"

Entertainment To-Night, "Our Minister's Honeymoon," a musical comedy, will be given by the best young talent of Millheim, to- Hall on Friday night, merits all the night (Thursday), in Grange Arcadia. The play is a sequel to "The New paid him. He is a forceful, logical Minister" and those who laughed at and entertaining speaker, and for nearthe amusing incidents in the pre-nup- ly two hours held his audience spelltial experiences of the eminent divine bound by his magnetic eloquence. should follow him in "Our Minister's He has a keen sense of humor and Honeymoon," which is equally as shifted from the serious things of life funny. There will be lote of good to lighter vein with all the grace of a singing and an evening of fun is as polished orator. Admission, 25c; reserved Naturally Mrs. J. R. Gephart was sured.

The Thankegiving Service, held in the United Evangelical church cooking utensils, clothing, etc., havin Centre Hall was more largely at- ing been consumed in the flames, and tended than last year. The sermon she and her son, Joseph, had little left was by Rev. W. H. Williams, pastor to wear and were scant in necessary of the Methodist church, and was of housefurnishings. But her many unusual interest. The president's friends in Millheim came to her relief The latter owns and farms the John Fortney farm, and makes poultry a side line, the Orpingtons being his freeze and assisted in conducting the formal friends in Millheim.

Thanksgiving proclamation was read by Dr. W. H. Schuyler. Rev. R. R. Jones and Rev. F. H. Foss were also present and assisted in conducting the friends in Millheim on Saturday evening and surprised her with a bountiful kitchen shower.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS,

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

William Shoop of Bellefonte spent Thanksgiving Day in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Lucy Henney killed three porkers, Friday, that produced over a half ton of meat.

Henry Mitterling, a Franklin and Marshall student, was home over Thanksgiving.

Many farmers took advantage of the Indian summer weather during the of Centre Hall's young ladies and past week by plowing their fields.

Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Bitner and son Lynn spent Thanksgiving Day in Pittsburgh as guests of their son, Harry Bitner. Miss Elizabeth Boozer, who teaches a public school at Ramey, Clearfield county, was home over the Thanksgiving season. Mrs. P. McManus of Harrisburg was at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Bower, last week, to lay in a supply of meats for the winter. Robert Meyer, who is employed in the State-Centre electric light plant at State College, was at the home of his parents over Thanksgiving.

Prof. L. O. Packer, instructor in mathematics in one of Pittsburgh's large high schools, spent a few days over Thanksgiving with his family in Centre Hall,

John B. Reish, who for a year or more was employed on a farm near Phoenixville, is now employed by the State, and is one of a force of men to

George F. Potter announces sale for March 5th. He is located on the Stoner farm, one mile north of Tusseyville. Aaron Detwiler will begin

Bruce Harter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Harter of Harrisburg, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Murray, Friday. Mr. Harter is in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad smith. It cost Samuel Lingle of Georges pheasant without having a hunter's license. The fine was collected by W. C. Kerstetter of Coburn, a special deputy game protector. The pheasant was sent to the Bellefonte hospital. Miss Sara Neff, accompanied by Miss Mary Laws, spent the Thanksgiving season at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Neft, near Centre Hall. On Saturday she anter-Lovett and Nora Whalen. The by selling stills so that the users of Altoona. His bride until recently was any size casing which may be desired concerning the wide-awake little city Don't forget the bazaar, in Bar-More than 19,000 men and women of motor fuel can make "zoline," as it is an operator in the motive power ex- On the whole, this new casing will in which he is located. The letter tholomew's ice cream parlor, by the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. "We are having fine sleighing and church. It will open Friday evening gether one of the unpleasant features prospects are good for it to stay and at six o'clock and continue until Sathope it can. It certainly will be bet- urday evening. Many beautiful ter for business in all lines, although things will be on sale, the majority of we have been very busy this season which will serve as Christmas gifts,

> William Bradford, one of the Centre county farmers who is located in Chester county, was in the Seven Mountains after deer, but failed to land game, although his party had our village this coming year which five to their credit. Mr. Bradford will be a great addition; we have a states that conditions in Chester county, aside from the severe drought, are first class. The crops were all good, and the Centre county people there

The Millheim Journal, last week, said in regard to building up the burnt section of the borough : S. Ward Gramley, the owner of the corner lot has declared his intention of building as soon as the weather will permit, which will probably be in the early spring. If his present plans are carried out he will erect a one-story structure over almost the entire lot, and have at least seven business rooms in the building.

Dr. James Hedley, who lectured on "What is a Man Worth," in Grange press compliments that have been feeling extremely sad for several days after the fire, says the Millheim Journal, because she was a very heavy The union Thanksgiving service loser, much of her household goods, self and son were also donated